137 A married woman was found in her room in the village of Lansingburg, Pa., quite dead on Wednesday morning. When discovered, the body was found in a sitting posture against the wall, and the room was filled with two small children; one of them, a little boy three years old, was found in the bed, and an infant of fifteen months was found lying upon the floor almost dead. It is supposed that the woman committed suicide by taking a dose of opium, which had been administered to her by her husband, who was found in the room with her, and who was found in the morning with a bloody face, and a quantity of opium in his hand.

In Rural, on the 25th ult. MARY S. PATTERSON, wife of David Patterson, in the 25th year of her age. Mrs. P. made a profession of religion in early life, and united with the Presbyterian Church, of which she remained a consistent member until her death. Ever ready to sacrifice herself for the comfort of others, and by her amiable and obliging deportment, she endeavored to do good to all who came in contact with her. She was a devoted mother, and her affectionate and affectionate mother, by this afflictive dispensation of Divine Providence. But then, we trust, is her unspeakable gain.

In Silver Lake, on the 16th ult. LORISA RICHWAY GADE, daughter of Ezekiel H. and Olive Gage, aged 2 years and 4 months. Happy until this day she ended. All thy mourning days be over. Go, by angel guards attended. To the sight of Jesus, go.

In Susquehanna Village, Dec. 12th, of Scarle FERRER, HENRY LARSON, only son of Dr. H. A. and Louisa S. Tingley, aged 3 years and 1 month. Oh! why, dear child, wert thou snatched so soon. From friendship's grasp, and parent's doting arms? Why sank thy sun ere yet it reached its noon. To spread full blown thy virtues budding charms?

Top good thou wert—too pure for this gross world. Like a bright dew-drop, kissed from earth's away. To heaven thou'rt gone, to meet thy Maker, God, and shine a seraph in the realms of day.
