

happy family can three smiles across your path... Too much affected to reply, Mr. Edgar returned the warm pressure of the hand which had grasped his, and glided away.

THE DEMOCRAT.

Largest Circulation in Northern Pennsylvania—1837 Copies Weekly. S. D. & E. B. CHASE, Editors. MONROE, FEBRUARY 10, 1853.

GLEANNINGS.

The Delaware County Republican, in noticing the election of officers by the State Agricultural Society, at its recent meeting in Harrisburg, remarks that of the thirty-five gentlemen elected, full one-half are lawyers, who know nothing about the science of agriculture, or its interests.

FREE BANKING—No. 3.

Masses Errors.—If I understand the drift of your article of last week, your objections are not so much against a system of Banking based on stock securities, as against Banks in general, and against all and every system of Banking.

THE NEW TAX LAW.

It is known to the public that in pursuance of a resolution passed at the session of the Legislature, Col. Brier appointed James M. Porter, E. A. Pennington and J. Ellis Bonham, commissioners to prepare drafts of certain bills to be submitted to the present Legislature for consideration and adoption.

THIRTY SECOND CONGRESS.

The senate met at 12 o'clock. Mr. Hunter of Va. submitted a resolution providing for the counting of the electoral votes of President and Vice President of the United States, in presence of the two Houses of Congress, on Wednesday next.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Washington, Feb. 6. Fuller who was sent to this city a few days since, is slightly improving, and the surgeons now entertain hopes of his ultimate recovery.

Extract from the Report of the Canal Commissioners.

EXTENSION OF THE NORTH BRANCH CANAL. ALL the heavy work on this extension has been put to contract. The light portions which have been allotted are estimated to cost $219,000.

Railways to the Pacific.

Three several plans says the N. Y. Post are now pending before Congress for the construction of a railroad from the Mississippi valley to the Pacific shore.

Resignation of Whig Office holders.

In relation to resignations of Whig office holders and the appointment of Democrats in their places a course of proceeding which has been adopted in several instances in this and other States.

THE MONEY LUMBERY.

The Money Lumbery being the term "she" in application to the West Branch Bank. It must be a very amiable corporation to be fairly entitled to such an appellation.

THE DELAWARE COUNTY REPUBLICAN.

The Delaware County Republican, in noticing the election of officers by the State Agricultural Society, at its recent meeting in Harrisburg, remarks that of the thirty-five gentlemen elected, full one-half are lawyers, who know nothing about the science of agriculture, or its interests.

THE HOUSE.

The House met at 10 o'clock. Mr. Hunter of Va. submitted a resolution providing for the counting of the electoral votes of President and Vice President of the United States, in presence of the two Houses of Congress, on Wednesday next.

THE SENATE.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock. Mr. Hunter of Va. submitted a resolution providing for the counting of the electoral votes of President and Vice President of the United States, in presence of the two Houses of Congress, on Wednesday next.

THE HOUSE.

The House met at 10 o'clock. Mr. Hunter of Va. submitted a resolution providing for the counting of the electoral votes of President and Vice President of the United States, in presence of the two Houses of Congress, on Wednesday next.

THE SENATE.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock. Mr. Hunter of Va. submitted a resolution providing for the counting of the electoral votes of President and Vice President of the United States, in presence of the two Houses of Congress, on Wednesday next.

THE HOUSE.

The House met at 10 o'clock. Mr. Hunter of Va. submitted a resolution providing for the counting of the electoral votes of President and Vice President of the United States, in presence of the two Houses of Congress, on Wednesday next.

THE SENATE.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock. Mr. Hunter of Va. submitted a resolution providing for the counting of the electoral votes of President and Vice President of the United States, in presence of the two Houses of Congress, on Wednesday next.

THE HOUSE.

The House met at 10 o'clock. Mr. Hunter of Va. submitted a resolution providing for the counting of the electoral votes of President and Vice President of the United States, in presence of the two Houses of Congress, on Wednesday next.

THE SENATE.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock. Mr. Hunter of Va. submitted a resolution providing for the counting of the electoral votes of President and Vice President of the United States, in presence of the two Houses of Congress, on Wednesday next.

THE HOUSE.

The House met at 10 o'clock. Mr. Hunter of Va. submitted a resolution providing for the counting of the electoral votes of President and Vice President of the United States, in presence of the two Houses of Congress, on Wednesday next.