The Retiring Senators.

With the close of the late session of the Legislature, the terms of the following named Senators expired. Names of democrats in italics:

1. Philadelphia City—Charles O'Neill.
2. " County—Thomas H. Forsyth.
11. Adams and Franklin—Thomas Carson.
13. Cumberland and Perry—Joseph Bailey.
15. Blair, Cambria and Huntingdon—R. A. McMurtrie.
16. Luzerne, Columbia and Montour—C.R. Buckalew.
17. Bradford, Susquehanna and Wyoming —Geo. Sanderson.
19. Mercer, Venango, and Warren—John Hoge.
21. Butler, Beaver and Lawrence—Archibald Robertson.
23. Allegheny—James Carothers.
25. Armstrong, Indiana and Clarion—Christian Myers.

Of the above districts, the 1st, 11th, 15th, 21st, and 22d are decidedly whig, and the 2d, 13th 16th, 17th, 19th and 25th are as decidedly democratic. One of the latter was represented by Judge Myers, whig, during the last Senatorial term; but there is no likelihood of such a result at the next election. Should the parties, therefore, carry the districts next fall in which they preponderate, the next Senate will stand 16 whigs, 16 democrats, and one native; and should either party lose one of its districts, the supremacy in the Senate must thereby be given to the other.

A SINGULAR AND AFFECTING INCIDENT.—It is stated that Mrs. Newall, the mother of David B. Newall, of Newport N. H., who was killed on board the New Haven cars at Norwalk, did not hear of her son's death until Wednesday of last week. He was a consumptive young man, and had been to the South. His mother proceeded as far as Georgia to accompany him home, but he passed her on the road without knowing it. She started on her return, and being a stranger held no conversation with any one. On Wednesday she took the New York and New Haven train, when a gentleman handed her a newspaper which contained an account of the Norwalk massacre.—She immediately commenced reading a list of those killed, when suddenly she dropped the paper, and raising her hands, exclaimed, 'My God! my God! my son is killed!' This was her first intimation of her bereavement, and her son had already arrived at home and been consigned to the grave.

Visit of a Centenarian to the State House.—This morning a visit was paid to the State House by Mr. James Peebles, from Oxford, New Hampshire, who entered on his 101 year on the 1st day of September last. Mr. Peebles was born in New Salem, in this State and has been in the ranks, of useful laboring citizens from a period dating before the American revolution. He is a blacksmith by trade and works regularly at that occupation. Last Saturday he walked twenty miles, and shod a pair of oxen and a horse. The old gentleman looks hale and hearty, and his memory and mental faculties generally seem as active as if he was only three score years.—Boston Jour.

Look to It—A CARD.

SOME two months since I gave notice to those indebted to me, and to the public that I had dissolved all my relationship with them as a Merchant, and asked them kindly, to call and settle their accounts, and pay their notes. I would now say, in all sincerity and kindness, that while I feel under very many obligations for past favors, to the public, and to many of you; yet I need the pay for the property you have had, and I will devote two or three weeks, exclusively, to settle with those who will call at my office, in the rear of Messrs. Advt., Wm Field. M. W. G. M. Cyrus Fisher, M. E. P. James Hutchinson, G. S. Dea., V. J. Bates, Joint Benj Colby, and one hundred others, of the most respectable families of Providence.

This certifies that I have for a number of years been acquainted with the composition and mode of manufacture of Morse's Compound Syrup of Yellow Dock Root. I have also been acquainted with its modus operandi in disease, and can say that in all respects it is admirably calculated to remedy that class of illnesses for which it was designed. It is especially valuable in Indigestion and all its attendant symptoms, it excites to healthy action the Liver, removes Torpor, and inactivity of this Organ, and stimulates health- action in all the system. As a Depurator or purifier of the Blood it has no superior.
