hour last evening, when our reporter left:—

KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Geo. Safford of New York, a young man about twenty-one years of age, who slept within twenty feet of the boiler, was taken out of the ruins insensible, and never spoke afterwards. He died in a few moments after he was rescued. His father is proprietor of the Trojan Hotel, near the Crystal Palace.—He came for the body on Saturday evening, after the coroner had held an inquest, and had it conveyed to the city on board the steamboat Mazeppa. He was a fine looking young man, and was formerly a barkeeper on board the boat, but at the time of the accident was returning as a passenger from Troy where he had been visiting some of his friends.

No. 2. Edward C. Cushing of Troy, second engineer was taken out of the wreck mortally injured, and conveyed to Poughkeepsie, where he died during the course of the day from the injuries received.

No. 3. Christopher Caffay, fireman, lingered until Sunday morning, when he died in great agony.

No. 4. John Shannon, a deck hand, died on board of the propeller on his way to Poughkeepsie. His body was taken to Troy for interment.

No. 5. Mary Buder, an Indian woman from Canada, with goods on her way to the world's Fair, also died in great agony on board of the Wyoming. She leaves a husband and two children.

No. 6. Betsey Wooster, a sister of the last mentioned woman, died on Saturday, shortly after the arrival of the boat. She was dreadfully scalded and kept continually screaming from the pain of her wounds.

No. 7. James Daniel Van Schaiack, a boy about fourteen years of age, son of one of the waiters, died before he left the wreck. He was employed as a newsboy, and was a great favorite among the crew.

In addition to the above, the names of 14 others are given, who were more or less seriously injured, some of whom are not expected to recover.—Herald, 13th.

ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred on Saturday last near Locust Ridge, in this county, by which Mr. DAVID PORTER, a millwright by trade, lost his life. Mr. Porter and a number of other men were engaged in erecting the frame of a saw-mill for Philip Neyhart, when one of the timbers which had been raised and not properly secured gave way, striking the deceased on the neck and shoulders crushing him to the ground and so injuring him that he lived but a few hours after the accident. He was much respected by all who knew him.—He was about thirty-five years of age, and leaves a wife and five children to mourn his melancholly fate.—Monroe Dem.

THE FISHERY QUESTION.—Commodore Shubrick, of the United States Navy, who has lately been appointed by the President to the command of the squadron designed as a protection to the American fishermen, passed through Baltimore yesterday morning on his way from Washington, to join his flag-ship at New York. He is accompanied by John S. Cuningham, Esq., of the Navy Department, who will act as his secretary and assistant, in conducting the negotiations that may become necessary during their short visit to the scene of difficulty. We learn that the whole question is likely to be settled without any further unpleasantness, through the skilful agency of the State and Navy Departments.—Baltimore Sun.
