

THE DEMOCRAT.

The Largest Circulation in Northern Pennsylvania—1833 Copies Weekly.

S. B. & E. B. CHASE, Editors.

MONROE, AUGUST 25, 1883.

Work to be done in August.

The Farm—Continue the precautions for protecting sheep from the strus ovis or fly, which causes worms in their heads, given in last month's calendar.

Destroy thistles; if they be cut off when in bloom, at about one inch above the surface of the ground, the hollow part of the stem receives water and the roots will decay.

Remove the contents of hog pens to the compost heap mix one bushel of refuse salt to every cord, and this quantity will prevent these seeds from germinating which may not have been eaten by the hogs.

If your potatoes be dug early enough to spare five days before putting in turnips, or other late crops, then top dress the potato ground with six bushels of fine salt to the acre before re-seeding, and you will not be annoyed by grubs the next year, besides improving the general quality of the land.

Remove the contents of hog pens to the compost heap mix one bushel of refuse salt to every cord, and this quantity will prevent these seeds from germinating which may not have been eaten by the hogs.

Ladies' Names.

There is a strange deformity. Combined with countless graces. As often in the ladies' names. As in the ladies faces.

Ann is too plain and common. And Nancy sounds but ill. Yet Anna's endurable. And Anne better still.

There is a grace in Charlotte. In Eleanor a state. An elegance in Isabel. A highness in Kate.

And Sarah is so late and neat. And Ellen innocent and sweet. Matilda has a sickly sound. Fit for a nurse's trade.

And Estor says and said. Elizabeth's a matchless name. Fit for a queen to wear. In castle, cottage, hut or hall.

And Maria is too forward. Gertrude is too gruff. Yet, coupled with a pretty face. Is pretty name enough.

And Adalaid is fanciful. And Laura is too fine. And Emily is beautiful. And Mary is divine.

Made only suits a high born name. And Fanny is a lady-name. Eliza is not very choicey. Jane is too blunt and bold.

And Marian somewhat sorrowful. And Lucy pined and gay. Amelia is too light and airy. Fit only for a flirt.

And Caroline is vain and shy. And Flora smart and pert. Louisiana is too soft and sleek. But Alice gentle, chaste, and meek.

And Harriet is confiding. And Clara grave and mild. And Emma is affectionate. And Janet arch and wild.

And Rebecca for a Jewess. Rose for a country belle. And Agnes for a blushing bride. Will suit exceeding well.
