ATHENS, June 1, 1853.

Mr. Mathewson, Sir:—Agreeably to your recommendation I used your 'Remedy' on a valuable horse which was rendered completely worthless by a Bone Spavin. The horse was so lame at the time of the first application that it was with difficulty that he could be got out of the stable. Your medicine only was used and the horse was entirely cured. I make this acknowledgement as a simple act of justice to you, and you are at liberty to make such use of it as you think proper. F. TYLER.

The New Year, 1854.

On the first of January next, Gleasons Pictorial will commence its sixth volume, and will appear vastly improved in all respects, with a superb new heading, new type and dress throughout, and will be printed upon the finest paper.—As the proprietor of the 'Pictorial,' has purchased the entire good-will of Barnum's New York 'Illustrated News,' and has merged that journal in the 'Pictorial' the public will reap the advantage of this concentration of the strength of the two papers upon one, both in the artistic and literary departments. The same brilliant host of contributors and artists will be engaged on 'Gleason's Pictorial' as heretofore, and a large addition is also made to the corps, both in talent and number. The most liberal arrangements have been completed, and such as will enable the proprietor to produce by far the finest illustrated journal yet published, and much superior to the present issue of the paper. The columns of the 'Pictorial' will constantly be beautified by all that can please and instruct in art and nature, and its literary department will fully sustain the high reputation it has so long enjoyed.

The pages of 'Gleason's Pictorial' will contain views of every populous city in the known world, of all buildings of note in the eastern or western hemisphere, of all the principal ships and steamers of the navy and merchant service, with fine and accurate portraits of every noted character in the world, both male and female. Sketches of beautiful scenery, taken from life, will also be given with numerous specimens from the animal kingdom, the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, and will present in its mechanical execution an elegant specimen of art. It will contain fifteen hundred and sixty-four square inches giving a great amount of reading matter and illustrations—and forming a mammoth weekly paper of sixteen octavo pages.

Mustang Liniment & the Ladies.

IN our opinion, nothing is above the comprehension of women, and with less prejudice, more liberality, and much keener perception than men, when a new idea is presented, a new doctrine taught, or a new fact asserted, she grasps it at once, and with the rapidity and clearness almost of instinct, decides upon its merits or truthfulness; and if her decision be favorable, she enthusiastically advocates and supports it. Thus the common saying has obtained—"Once get the women on your side and you are safe;" and we are happy to state that we have the ladies all in favor of the Mustang Liniment. They have tried it for Caked breast, Sore Nipples, sores, Chafes, and Burns on children, as well as for the Croup and Mumps. Also, for Corns, Toothache, Pains in the limbs and joints, sore eyes, Eruptions, cuts and bruises, and they have always found it effectual—and they go about, like angels as they are, proclaiming it to their friends and to all they see or hear tell of, who are suffering. We have daily calls for it by persons who say such and such ladies recommended them to try it. Go on ladies in your 'good Samaritan' work, and thousands will bless you for your timely advice.

Poetry and Pictures!

"Lives of great men oft remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Pictures which will last some time!"

"Pictures, which perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's stormy main,
Some forlorn and wayworn brother,
Seeing, can go and get some more just like 'um!"

The above, sent us by a friend, being just to the point, we give the public the benefit of it: trusting that many will heed the wise suggestion, and "go and get some more just like 'um."

We have on hand a recent supply of "dittos" in the fancy line, which we wish to sell, all being bought—"expressly for that purpose!"
