VOLUME X., NUMBER 51.

moet's Corner.

From Putnam's Magazine. PHANTOMS. All houses wherein men have lived and died, Are haunted houses. Through the open

We meet them at the doorway, on the stair,

Along the passages they come and go, Impalpable impressions on the air, A sense of something moving to and fro.

There are more guests at the table than the Invited; the illuminated hall Is thronged with quiet, inoffensive ghouts, As silent as the pictures on the wall.

The strangers at my fireside cannot see The forms I see, nor hear the sounds Thear. He but perceives what is; while unto me All that he has been is visible and clear.

We have no title deeds to house or lands;

Owners and occupants of earlier dates From graves forgotten stretch their dusty And hold in mortmain still their old estates.

The spirit-world around this world of sense Floats like an atmosphere, and everywhere Wafts through these earthly mists and vapors

A vital breath of mere etheral air. Our little lives are kept in equipoise
By opposite attractions and desires;

The struggle of the instinct that enjoys;

And the more noble instinct that aspires. The purtubations, the perpetual jar Of earthly wants and aspirations high. Come from the influence of that unseen sta

That undiscovered planet in our sky. Throws o'er the sea a floating bridge of Across whose trembling planks our fancies into the realms of mystery and night.

So far from the world of spirits there descends A bridge of light, connecting it with this,

Wander our thoughts above the dark abyss.

NAPOLEON'S PRAYER.

Yes! bury me deep in the infinite sea, Let me have a limitless grave : For my spirit in life was as fierce and free As lar as the reach of all earthly control

And the ebbs and flows of my single soul Were as the tides to the rest of mankind. Then my briny pall shall engirdle the world.

Were the fathomless depths of my mind

As in life did the voice of my fame; And each mutinous billow that's sky-ward. curled Shall seem to re-echo my name.

In the uttermost corners of earth; Now breathed as a curse, now a spell-word In the glorified land of my birth.

Ay! plunge my dark heart in the infinite sea; It would burst from a narrower tomb; Shall less than an ocean his sepulchre be Whose mandate to millions was doom?

Aliscelkameons:

Rules for Home Education The following are worthy of being printed in letters of gold, and being placed in a conspicuous place in every household: 1. From your children's earliest infancy you must inculcate the necessity of instant obedi-

2. Unite firmness with gentleness. Let your actly what you say.

3. Never promise them anything unless you are sure that you can give them what you promise. 4. If you tell a child to do something, show him how to do it, and see that it is done. 5. Always punish your child for willfully disobeying you, but never punish in anger.

cause they cry for it.

time what you have forbidden, under like cir- sition.

way to appear good, is to be good. 12. Accustom them to make their little recitals with perfect truth.

13. Never allow of tale bearing.

A story is going the rounds, of a party Joung ledies who were caught in a shower, having the color washed from their cheeks .-A lady at our elbow thinks the color of some gentlemen's noses will not wash out at pres-ant as to the control of a mighty nation.

he; than others in my line can do."

From Putnam's Magazine. American Ladies.

There is no complaint more common than case. And the reason is but too obvious; it what we make it. is, that as a general thing, unless there are and so the whole thing is vitiated and hollow. There will be many Mrs. Potiphar's halls this winter! Would we might live to see the children always understand that you mean ex- We have no quarrel with it, so long as it keeps like.

vex you or make you lose your self come just now. Ask the six most intelligent mar- we are still black and blue from the kicks of seen, nor any signs of vegetation along their their furs for the necessary implements of used to be formerly. So he went to the mand, ried ladies of your friends how many French a little boy whom his mamma very complasides. Huge naked rocks of granite appear their calling.

There is another class of men who traverse and met every Wednesday evening. His > know anything about it. A lady artist is al- Now, begging pardon of all the dear good Some run over broad shallow beds of bright through countries in which there are no in- in his mind be kept them down with the though most a luster naturae among us and even a women of our acquaintance who allow their sand. Large rivers—hundreds of yards in habitants, except the scattered and roving that there could not possibly be any harm in tolerable skill in sketching from nature is ex- children to treat them with disrespect, there width, with sparkling waters. Follow them bands of Indians; and there are many parts so of tremely rare. Of all the educated American is pitiable weakness in this, and our ideal wonumber, encountered in the course of our wan- which she will grant her children theirs. She your own land, they become less and less, underings, there are not six who can make a will not, for the sake of seeming amiable, let til at length their waters sink into the sands water may be found at certain sessons of the of the atrong fluid with which Robin now water derings, there are not six who can make a will not, for the same or seeming amande, let ut at length their by temperature, the dry channel for year. There are several of these tracks or tered it. But, as gardeners know well, it is of happiness preserve them by temperature. There are several of these tracks or tered it. But, as gardeners know well, it is of happiness preserve them by temperature. There are several of these tracks or tered it. But, as gardeners know well, it is of happiness preserve them by temperature. drawing may are wining or ought by so wis the grant of the mount of th as absolutely essential to the training of an in- ularly called accomplishments and shall pursue the topic no further at present. But our ideal traints. American woman is but half indicated as yet. could bring living witnesses to prove the efficery of his nostrums, which is more, says

Having confessed that neither the grab nor he grab nor the butterfly is to our taste, we we would fur them?

ther that an enlightened and elegant woman gives her own character to her occupations.— There is no complaint more common than that of the intense duloss of our ordinary society. This is so well understood, that no one is surprised at hearing an invitation spoken of the surprised at hearing at the surpri as an infliction, and the acceptance of it as a ago. 'Meubler une chambre,' she says (we parallelogram—you could at once compute its plains, tearing up the clay with their mighty and brisker the more it is occupied. He had Still the branch did not recover its greenness. With feet that make no sound upon the thing to be eluded by any and every social art quote from memory) 'ce n'est pas member une area, by multiplying its length upon the floods, and year after year changing their chan- gone creditably through his apprenticeship on but withered visibiy in the sight of all belief and fiction. We venture to say that purs is chambre; c'est orner un endroit ou fattends mon breadth; and you would obtain one million nels, until they are sometimes a hundred miles the whole, aeldom giving cause for a c omplaint ders.

> people hired to amuse in some way, there is the Holy Family after a courageous fashion; long and in some places a thousand in breadth have borne downwards in their currents—ner hour. However, the apprenticeship came wood struggled to push forth new ones, and absolutely nothing expected at a social gath- Joseph plane ing at a carpenter's bench, with its surface extent is not over one million of There you find them winding by a thousand to an end, and Robin became a journeyman, although a few sickly buds made their appear ering but dress and display, for which not ev- shavings falling about him; Mary with a fam- square miles, or twenty-five times the size loops, like the sinuosities of a great serpent, and being a quick and painstaking hand, he ance, they never came to any, thing, and at ery one has means or inclination. Nobody ily mending, plying the needle industriously; of England. Fancy a desert twenty five times rolling sluggishly along, with waters red and had a run of the best work, and he took a last the branch died outright; and seemed to goes into company intending to contribute in and the Saviour, a youth of fourteen, meekly as big as all England! Do you not think that turbid as though they were rivers of blood.— pride in turning it off the last in the first style have been scorched by a thunderbolt. the smallest degree to the pleasure of others, sweeping the floor with a broom. More could it has received a most appropriate name, when Such are the Brazos and the Red. hardly have been done for the dignity of it is called the Great American Desert! household labour.

We shall, therefore, as we hope, not shock stand by a desert? I think I can guess. of the Great American Desert. anybody by saying that, to our thinking, our When you read or hear of a desert, you think Not less strange are its lakes. Some lie in as natural for the best work to get into the it with strong liquor! ladies of fortune show bad taste by their stu- of a yast level plain, covered with sand, and the deep recesses of hills that dip down so best hands, as it is for the sun to sline bright. men, as they are, are not accomplished? Let dious avoidance of those household occupa- without trees, or grass, or any kind of vegeta- steeply you cannot reach their shores; while est where there are fewest clouds, whatevever The Dead Sea and the Cities of us summon all our courage hay, all our be tions which their sisters without fortune are tion. You think, also, of this sand being the mountains around them are so bleak and the grumblers may say or think to the contranevolence, and confess that that is just what in duty bound to practise daily. This brings blown about in thick, yellow clouds, and no maked, that not even a bird ever wings its ry. If at this time Robin had a fault, it was we do mean. (We have thrust sticks into a these occupations necessary for the comfort water to be seen in any direction. This is flight across their silent waters. Other lakes self-conceit; he thought more highly of himhornet's nest before now, on purpose to pull is and happiness of every human family, from your idea of a desert, is it not? Well, it is are seen in the broad, harron plains; and yet, self than a man ought to think, from which certain cities, inhabitants of which proused the down and get at some lovely pears that were the palace to the hut, and therefore proper ob- not altogether the correct one. It is true that a few years after, the traveller finds them not | we may guess that he wanted balance. Judg. Divine vengeance. It has always been a fagrowing above.) We do say and let our un jects to every one having a human heart and in almost every desert there are these sandy they have dried up and disappeared. Some ment is to a man's mind what the governor vorite theory with many moderns, that the happy bachelorhood take the plame if we are sympathies -into disrepute and contempt. - plains, yet there are other parts of a far differ, are fresh, with waters like crystal; others is to a steam engine; and Robin, with all his Dead Sua covered the site of the clues of Sowrong that American ladies, state of thousand We contend that domesticity is the honour ent sharacter, equally deserving the name of brackish and muddy; while many of them are eleverness, would have been the better for a dom and Gomorrah, and unless we err in our dollar boarding-schools and immensely mus- and glory of a woman, whatever her fortune desert. Although the interior of the great Sa- more salt than the ocean itself. tached teachers of everything, are not practi- and abilities; and that when she performs all hars has not yet been fully explored, enough cally furnished forth with the knowledge and its duties by means of hirelings, she is untrue is known of it to prove that it contains large soda and sulphur, and salt waters; and others and was very fond of hearing himself praised officer had no doubt that he found. Mrs. Lot skill for which their parents have paid so to herself and her birthright. Nature's re-tracts of mountains and hilly country, with so hot that they boil up as in a great caldron for his vocal efforts, so that had it not been much; do not carry with them into their mar- venge is severe enough, for, the loss of real rocks and valleys, lakes, rivers and springs - and you could not dip your finger into them that he now and then got a snubbing from his lar of salt, for looking back as she ran. ried homes, habits which demand the exercise pleasure and interest is incalculable, and there There are also fertile spots, at wide distances without scalding it. And as the moon from some dark gate of of talent, taste and perseverance, with the sin- is no computing the ennui, inanity and ill health from each other, covered with trees, and shrubs gle object of pleasing those with whom they that come of the error. But the punishment and beautiful vegetation. Some of these spots the mountains, and deep chasms opening into live, and making home the centre and natural is seldom recognized as such, certain as it is. are small, while others are of large extent, and the plains—some of them so deep that you saved money, and after a few years, of jourtheatre of their best graces. We do say, and The lady becomes 'nervous,' and accuses her inhabited by independent tribes, and even might fancy mountains had been scooped out ney-work, he took advantage of a favorable do Saulcy, a member of the French Instituto with a deeper sorrow than the subject may cruel stars ; or 'dyspeptic,' and talks of her whole kingdoms of people. A fertile tract of to form them. They are called 'barrancas.' opportunity of going into business on his own could not coincide in opinion with the popuseem to some to warrant, that Music, dancing stomach till she turns every one's else; or con- this kind is called an pasis. and French are the only accomplishments tech- sumptive, and goes down to the grave in the nically so called, cultivated to any considera- prime of life by what is called a mysterious O'er whose unsteady floor that sways and ble extent and that the first of these is so en- dispensation. But she never believes, nor can ed with what may be termed "geographical themselves you may see great clefts cut by to his customers, and became a flourishing desire to vindicate the correctness of his views tirely perverted, from its divine uses, that no you persuade her, that the dulness and mo- features." There are plains—some of them the rivers, as though they had been tunneled tradesman. voung lady plays in company for the sole pur- notony of an objectless wasted life has any- more than a hundred miles wide-where you and their tops had fallen in. They are called hear some indignant voice exclaim; alast dear you tell her that the woman who, with no into long ridges such as those made by a snow ert.

to make a right assertion again, we desire to py enough to come in contact with them an rest. 11. Teach them that the only sure and easy the exercise of which British ladies so gener- rents aid them in the government of children, they were mountains of silver and gold. as well as the Saara.

The Great American Desert. at all points that one cannot go down to the How the Green Branch Wither their turn would soon come. After watering As she feels, believes and is, so will her work North America. It is almost as large as the perished with thirst, while the roar of their womed we know, and that includes a goodly man will put it to shame by the firmness with stead of growing larger, like the rivers of The caravans, however, usually follow a For a little while the green branch seemed ter on the degracions exposition. Let the is people. She will neither be the tyrant of her the water appears, and onward increases in frontier settlements of the United States to plants and vegetables cannot have proper nour. I. Domestic miner to children, nor allow them to lord it over her; volume, until, thousands of miles from the those of New Mexico. Between one and a lahment they die. They must have the right the whole secret of success in all government; We have said enough about what are pop- she will not harrass them by incessant gov- sea, large ships can float upon their bosom.— nother of them, however, stretch vast regions thing, or none at all erning, nor permit them to despise proper res- Such are the Arkaneas and the Platte.

If all the bables in the world were see high, whose baid, naked bluffs' frown at each Such, then, my young friend, is a rough blight had fallen on it, or a worm had got to work-houses.

There is a great desert in the interior of bed of their stream; and often the traveler has reader, have putience—if there be exceptions, choice in the matter, flies from the needle to storm. There are other plains, equally large, It has its denizers. These are oases in it perhaps, he might be church-warden, or com- he pursued his archoeological explorations they are to few too be considered. Ask any the churn, from the broom to the pie-board, where no saud appears, but brown barren some of them large, and settled by civilized non-councilman, or mayor—who could tell! with the happiest results, splendid singer of your acquaintance to sing and from putting the shilldren to bed to kait carth, utterly destitute of regulation. There men. One of these is the country of New These offices are legitimate objects of ambit. an old-fashioned song, one popular twenty or ting stockings for them, is far happier and betation body of infantry thirty years ago, and not yet revived by some ter off, and would be still more blessed if, in shrub, with leaves of a pale silvery color. In inhabitants. These are of the Spanish and as well as another, especially as he attended and cavalry be was enabled to proceed with musical prodict in public, and you will be addition, she had the cultivation, the taste, and some places it grows so thickly, interlocking mixed Indian races. Another casis is the to the main chance, and was seldom away his mission without danger, from the momaconvinced. Ask your daughter to play for the abundant means thrown away upon her its twisted and knotted branches, that a horse-country around the Great Salt and Utah Lakes from his cutting board at the counter. The directed his attenyour country cousin, and see if she will play idle sisters, without losing her own activity man can hardly ride through them. This shrub Here is also a settlement established in 1846. hare escapes while the sportsman winks; and thon, first, to a careful examination of the any but the most difficult music, such as is and the habit of various employment.

There are vast caves piercing the sides of gether have run away with him.

is the artemisia—a species of wild sage or Its people are Americans and Englishmen.—a business runs away if the master's eye is more confusion to uninstructed ears. Request

Want of time' is much talked of, as if from wormwood—and the plants upon which it They are the Mormons; and, though they not pretty constantly upon it. the young lady who sang very sweetly last the shortness of life we could wisely attempt grows are called by the hundreds of miles from any sea, they Robins master had been a tectotaler, from cated Sodom and Comorran; but he was soon That name shall be storied in annals of crime evening in a company where there were only but little. But this is a great error. The com- them the sage practices. Other plains are met will in time become a large and powerful na- which cause it happened that although Robin convinced, that like the applies which were astonished the room. But this is a little saide that those who have the most to do have the most to do have the most to do have the distant period of time has been vomited forth thousands of others of all sizes from fifty favor, for his business grew like a green branch. But the found the cities of the plane, and from our theme. What we ought rather to most effective leisure—i.e., that they are the from volcanic mountains, and now lies frozen miles in breadth, to the little spot of a few and while it was watered with water only, it rode among their ruins. His eyes looked up say is, see how large a proportion of the lifty people to apply to if you need aid unexpected- up, and broken into small fragments like the acres formed by the fertilizing waters of some continued to flourish and put forth green leaves on their widely extended remains, bearing married ladies of your acquaintance who have ly. Our working hours are carefully reckoned stones upon a new made road. Still other gurging spring. Many of these are without in abundance. But as time went on, and Rob even now, the marks of that terrible visitation married ladies of your acquaintance with a string went on and Kobhad a musical education, play and sing at all, by the clock; those that slip by unprofitably, plains present themselves in the American Deinhabitants. In others, again, dwell tribes of in's savings increased, and his account at the fire from Heaven which consumed and dehad a musical equeation, pisy and sing at all, of so unrecorded. There is time for the high-sert. Some are white, as if snow had fallen Indians, some of them numerous and power-bank grew larger and larger, the clever shoeafter two or three years nonsexceptings and larger and larger, the clever shoesic is no longer a home accomplishment a est cultivation and the highest usefulness; freshly upon them and yet it is not snow but ful, possessing horses and cattle; while others maker began to think that he need not stick family treasure, a life long joy. There is a those who doubt it, accuse Providence, as if salt. Yes; pure white salt—covering the are found in small groups of three or four to work quite so closely, at all events he was great delusion about it, which an ideal wo powers were meant to run to waste. The lan-ground six inches deep, and for fifty miles, in families each, subsisting miserably upon roots, entitled to a good share of repose and relaxagreat detusion about it, which an deat work grown good foots, man will see through and live down But guor of too much rest is not repose, but im- every direction. Others, again, have a similar seeds, grass, reptiles, and insects. In addibecility; the intervals of intense action are appearance; but instead of salt you find the tion to the two great settlements we have A man, however, must, do something; it is nough.

Dancing is not worth many words. It is sweet, and full of life and promise. The ex-substance which covers them to be soda.

mentioned, and the Indians, there is another only disgracefully lazy people who can bear properly, the joyous expression of hilarity and citements of a true woman's life, under faThere are mountains, top—indeed one half class of men scattered over this region. These to live in perfect inaction, and as Robin had properly, the joyons expression of minutes and the properly, the joyons expression of minutes and the properly, the joyons expression of minutes and the properly the joyons expression of the desert is very mountainous—and the properly the joyons expression of the desert is very mountainous—and the properly the joyons expression of the joyons ex strength, and the muscles have enough incessant. She has no occasion for severe lagreat chain of the Rocky Mountains—of which subsist by trapping the have enough incessant. She has no occasion for severe lagreat chain of the Rocky Mountains—of which subsist by trapping the have enough incessant. She has no occasion for severe lagreat chain of the Rocky Mountains—of which subsist by trapping the have enough incessant. nours creep on, and the muscles have though bour, she has no excuse for wilful idleness.— you have no doubt heard—runs sheer through bufful and other annimals. Their life is one call on a neighbor came to their house, and a bling earth. under the sweet guidance of delicacy and grace. Our ideal woman will not think idleness lady it from north to south. But there are other continued scene of peril, both from the wild mountains besides these; mountains of every animals which they encounter in their lonely Robin had not forgotten how to sing, and so The ideal American woman-would that height, and sometimes in their shape and color excusions, and the hostile Indians with whom much pleasure did be give by his music, that always visited the Dend Sen, and as they look-The ideal American woman—would that height, and sometimes in their shape and color excusions, and the height indians with whom the study of the French language is, in her time were come!—will govern her chil- presenting very striking and singula appearanthey come in contact. These men procure the most cases, a mere mania of the day, in many dren, which certainly the American woman of cea. Some of them run for miles in borizon- furs of the beaver, the otter, the muskrat, the should like to hear you sing that song at our ded them as sautting up in darkness the cita spending of time and money without intelli- to-doy does not. We will venture to say that tal ridges like the roofs of houses, and seem. marten, the ermine, the lynx, the fox, and the club." gent end or aim, since it finishes with the so many utterly uncurbed children are not to ingly so narrow at their tops that one might skins of many other animals. This is their school days and never had any intended use as be found anywhere as in the United States; sit astride of them. Others, again, of a coni- business, and by this they live. There are a key to French literature. If here we seem perfect nuisances to everybody who is unhap- cal form stand out in the plain spart from the torts, or trading posts, established by adventurous merchants, at long distances from each indulge himself a little, now that pounds firmation of the Old Testament records. disobeying you, but never punish in anger. to make a rash assertion again, we desire to py enough to come in contact with them—an rest.

6. Never let them perceive that they can be put to a test similar to the one proposed expression perhaps suggested by the fact that There are mountains where no trees are other; and at these forts the trappers exchange were more plentiful with him than pence per, wait until they are calm, and then gently they left school Would we then discourage a long stage-ride this last summer. We sho'ld feetly white, because they are always covered the great descrit. For many years there has neighbor introduced him, and all the company reason with them on the impropriety of their the study? Far from it; we would only con- perhaps have been more indignant if the good with a thick mantle of snow. There are oth- been a commerce carried on between the casia scemed so cordial, and made so much of him tinue it through life; we would never under. lady had not been kept in countenance by all er peaks almost as white, and yet it is not with of New Mexico and the United States. This after he had sung a song, and were so loud in 8. Remember that a little present punish- take it without meaning to do so. The only the American mothers we encountered during snow. These are mountains of pure lime- commerce employs a considerable amount of their applause, that Robin felt himself in the commerce employs a considerable amount of their applause. ment, when the occasion arises, is much more other feasible object of so much toil would a pretty long tour. It is hardly possible to ex- stone, or the white quartz rock. There are capital, and a great number of men, principal at ease, and thought it was some other seasible object of so much ton would a pretty long tour. It is narroly possible to except and a pretty the eyes of people abroad if even their wives noticed? In conversation it is a never-failing startle the traueller with their strange appear. Other caravans—Spanish ones—cross the water, and so he kept it up, and went home is 10. On no account allow them to do at one had this ind spensable competency for the po- topic, especially among travellers, who experi- ance. They are those that glitter with the western wing of the desert from Sonora to little before midnight in right good numor, ence its effects in every steamer car and car- mica and selenite. These, when seen from a California, and thence to New Mexico. Thus pleased with himself and all around him. drion.

As to drawing, that lovely home talent, in riage. Ask our teachers to what extent pa-of desert country, entirely unexplored and However, after the first burst, the green There are other rivers that run between unknown, and many fertile spots exist, that branch began to show symptoms of being out bleak, rocky banks banks a thousand feet have never been trodden by the foot of man.

ed. it for a lime with gin, Robin tried rum, and Robin May, when I first knew him, was sa brandy, for from singing at the club he got to the only country under the sun where this is the ami. Ordonner an souper, etc. The thing is and a half of square miles for the result. But from their ancient beds. Here they are found except now and then, when his master said, a Some things, it is said, die very hard; and what we make it.

One of the great Dutch painters represents and although it is fully fifteen hundred miles der vast rafts former by the trees which they to forget how many minutes went to the din- even after all the leaves fell off, the large

> Strange rivers are they that struggle through rate wages. Some of his shop mates would lone, tottering, trembling pauper in the work-Now, my young friend, what do you under the mountains, and valleys, and plateau lands gramble occasionally at this, fancying themsel- house, he might at times be heard murmuring. wes treated unfairly by their mester; but it is to himself, It wanted only water, and I killed

Still, with all this, Robin worked hard, and pose of giving pleasure, or without an idea of thing to do with these sad results. She would can see nothing but white sand, often drifting canons. All these singular formations mark ed Robin's heart, and visions of distinction be 1850, being accompanied by his son, by the competion or display. 'No young lady!' we laugh at you, if she could yet laugh, should about on the wild region of the Great American Des- gan to float across his imagination, he felt Abbe de St. Michen, and several intelligent sure he should rise in the world. Some day, ordinary performers, to oblige you again to plaint is oftenest made by the idle and ineffinight, when her rival at Madame — is has cient. It has been proved a thousand times ler. These are covered with lava, that at some Resides these two great oases, there are the main a water drinker, which was all in his popular idea had no foundation in fact.

tion in the after part of the day. very snug and sociable party they were. his neighbor said, more than once, 'How I ed upon its singgish, sait waters, have regarne grew older, and he had not much difficulty has been reserved for the French savant of the in persuading himself that he had a right to present day to bring to light this strong conclub, which was called the Convival Club, suits of Monsteur de Sauley's researches.

difficult to go again. Business is good, said These Caravans travel for hundreds of miles Robin to himself, and if any misgivings rose vine taking a friendly glass in such respectable com- should always keep on good terms:

of order; something was not right; either a of finish, and as a consequence be got first Many years afterwards, when Robin was a little more of the governor in his constitution. recollections, Lieut. Lynch gave that opinion In this desert there are springs springs of Besides, he could, as is said, sing a good song; an emphatic endorsation. Indeed, our gallant who we are told, was transformed into a pilfellow-workmen, Robin's conceit would alto. A book has just been published in England try which will give the quietus to the popular ideas on this subject. It seems that Monsieur There are precipices rising straight up from account; and such was his reputation for next lar notions of the overthrow of the cities of Of a similar character is the Great Amerithe plains, thousands of feet in height, and ness of fit and excellence of workmanship, that the plain; regarding them as unauthorized can Desert; but its surface is still more vari- steep as a wall; and through the mountains he soon gained a connexion, gave satisfaction by the scriptural history of that event. His induced him to visit the Holy Land. Accor-This success, as may be supposed, gladden dingly, he left for the scene of his labors in friends. In that and the following year, > liked a glass of ale now and then, he was in once believed to grow upon its borders, the stroyed them. Upon the shores and in the vallies where they originally stood, this French savant discovered their blackened ruins

It is surprising that they have not been sooner discovered. The Holy Land has been a point of interest with all travellers and explorers in all times. From the crusades until the present hour, men have flocked thither and trodden the land more full of sublime But we easily account for the failure to discover these relies of olden times. Men have ies accursed of Heaven. Hence no traveller Robin's love of praise had not diminished as has sought after the cities of the plain, and it We trust that our American booksellers will soon give to the American public, the re-

> 'Mr. Sniith you said! you boarded at the Columbia Hotel six months; did you pay ming—the landlerd footed me Verdiet for defendant. Out the next case.

I have very little respect for the this world, as the chap said when the rop was put around his neck.

A POINTED SERMON.—Many a discourse of an hour's length is not half so impressive as the following from an excentric English di-

Be sober, grave, temperate: - Titus ii. 19. There are three companions with whom you

1. Your wife.

2. Your stomach: 3. Your conscience.

If you wish to enjoy peace, long life and 2 Infidelity.

To make these points clear. I refer you 1. To the Newgate Calendar.

2. To the hospitals, lunatic asylums and