It is also said that the Bank of France has made an advance of (about) 12 day. millions dollars.

Another financial report (and probably correct) is that the Bank of France has decidedon making an advance of sixty millions francs to the Government, on Treasury Bonds renewable each month. It is added that the Credit Mobiler had proposed a loan of two hundred million francs, but the Minister of Finance stated that the treasury had no need

In every department of the public service warlike preparations go on unceasingly. At the military schools the troops are exercised in operations of attack, passage of rivers, &c. Fire at Owego. The Gazette of last Thursday contained a full report of the fire of that morning, but there were several inacuracies and omissions that report.

The fire took, or was set, in Cafferty's Lavery stable, rear of Cabinet Shop owned by Gen. Ogden, and occupied by J. L. Matson, spreading rapidly from building to building until the entire row from Dr. Eastman's dwelling to Ithica street, was enveloped in flames. The Tioga House Barns, only 28 feet from the Livery Stable, were several times on fire; as were also the central House, and the other buildings on the opposite side of Main street, against which the flames were constantly driven by a strong northerly breeze; but thanks to our firemen, its spread was pre-vented with only slight damage to the buildings immediately exposed.
