To a country so inviting, is it not a wise or patriotism, or philosophy, the fact is certain. What hope then remains that this unfortunate people can ever be Americanized, and constitute an integral part of the State? The conviction this is impossible, that they are politically disfranchised, that they are to remain a degraded caste, has sunk into the depths of their hearts, quenching every noble aspiration, repressing every manly effort, and crushing their spirits to the carth.
