THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NORTHERN PENN'A. E. B. CHASE & ALVIN DAY, Editors. Montrose, Thursday, Oct. 5, 1854.

FOR THE DEMOCRAT. Home beside the Sea. A farmer's life is the life for me, A life without a care, With a home beside the pleasant sea, With peace and plenty there; Where ocean billows wan along And break around the shore, Where beautious birds with sweetest song

In mellow accents pour. I love to roam mid finture's bowers And watch the ripling stream That glides along in sparkling showers And in the woods doth gleam; Where noble grandeur fills the mind

With richest gems inlaid, Where beauteous flowers of every kind Adorn each bill and glade. I love to sail in my cedar boat

Along the rugged shore, And watch the noble fish that float Beneath my oaken oar; And when the glorious sun doth rise Behind the eastern hills, With golden light it fills the skies While joy my soul doth fill.

Talk not to me of the golden west Nor scenes of classic lore, But give me my own dear place of rest Beside the ocean's shore. There may be heard the farmer's song As it rings throughout the dale, While birds with sweetest strains prole Their notes o'er hill and vale.

A Mother's Love.

A mother's love is divinely beautiful when it enfolds the helpless and dependent infant with a mystic power, like the silent omnipresent influence of an ever watchful Providence. Beautiful in after years, as it guides the careless and uncertain steps of joyous childhood, strewing around its pathway bright flowers of hope, that breathe softly their lessons of gratitude and praise, while the young wayfarer gathers them in his embrace. Beautiful in its exaltation is the higher development of the mental sentiment, which commands the reverence of impetuous youth, and subdues the mighty power of passion by the holiness of its strong endurance leading him upwards through difficulties and temptations to the summit of that mount of contemplation whence he may survey the world with a clear whence he may survey the world with a clear vision, and willingly brave the stern realities of a severe disciplin rather than yeld himself acknowledgments to the public for past fation. But when, in the full strength of ma-ture manhood, the great heart bows itself be-of Spring and Summer Goods they are now, refore her who nurtured its best affections, and the soul erect in the conscious dignity of its wondrous being, acknowledges the mother's and Oils &c., they are prepared to exhibit a large assortment of understood, and the sublime mission of maternity complete in its fulfilment.

PREDESTINATION .- "Do you believe in predestination?" said the captain of a Mississippi steamer, to a clergyman who happened to be travelling with him." "Certainly."

And you also believe that what is to be, will be !"

" Certainly! "Well, I am glad to hear it."

"Why?" "Because, I intend to pass that boat ahead in fifteen consecutive minutes, if there be any virtue in pine knots and loaded safety valves. So dont be alarmed for if the boiler isn't to bust, then it won't." Here the divine began putting on his hat, and looked very much like backing out, which the captain observing, he said: "I thought you said you believed in predestination, and what is to be will be." "So I do, but I prefer being a little nearer the stern when it takes place."

WE read that Napoleon was a very awkward dancer. On one occasion he danced with a very beautiful countess, who could not conceal her blushes at his ridiculous postures. On leading her to her seat, he remarked: "the fact is, madam, my forte lies to pay in grain are requested to bring it along as marked: "LL MERRIMAN. not so much in dancing myself as in making others dance." This reminds us of an anecdote of Daniel Webster, who being present at a ball in Washington, during the period of his incumbency as Secretary of state, was asked by an effeminate foppish sort of a chap, who thought a good deal of his dancing, "Don't you dance, Mr. Webster? I never saw you dancing. "No," said Mr. Webster, as he only could say and look such things, "I never could have the capacity to learn how, sir."

A NEW and singularly successful A remedy for the cure of all Billious diseases—Costiveness, Indignation, Jaundice, Dropsy is the unatism, Feters, Gout, Humora, Nervousness, Irritability, Inflammations, Headache, Pales in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbe, Femile Compilainte, &c., &c. Indeeu, very few are the diseases in which a Pungative Medicine is not more for less required, and much sickness and suffering might be prevented, if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails; berides it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is alike true of Colde, Feverish symptoms, and Millious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distempers which load the hearses all over the land; Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and Palients, has shown results surpassing any thing hitherto known of any medicine. Cure have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to for lid the suspicion of ustruth. Among the man emigent gentlemen who have testified in favor of these Pills, we may mention

Dr. A. Hayes, Analytical Chemist, of Restou, and State Assayer of Massachusetts whose high professional character is endorsed by the Hon. Edward Everett. Senator of the I. S.; Robert C. Winthrop, Ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives; Abbott Lawrence, Minister Pien, to Euglish John B. Fitapatrick, Cath Bishop of Boston. Also, Dr. J. R. Chillion, Practical Chemist, of New York City, endorsed by Hon. W. L. Marcy, Secretary of State; Wm. B. Astof, the cichest man in America; S. Leland & Co., Proprietors of the Metopolitan Hotel, and others.

Proprietors of the Metopolitan Hotel, and others.

Did space permit we could give many hundred certificates, from all parts where the Pills have been used but evidence even more convincing than the experience of eminent only lie men is found in their effects upon trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the beat and most complete which the present state of medical acience can afford.—They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies, extracted by chemical process in a state of purity, and combined to gether in such a manuer as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process—The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of composition, every medicine is burdened with more or less foactimonious and injudents qualities, by this each individual virtue, only that is desired for the currative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance embleyed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-ey-left the effects should prove as they have proved more purely remital, and the Pills a surer, more powerful agriduale to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that any medicine should be taken in the counsel of an attending Physician, and as he could not properly judge of a remedy without knowing its composition. It have supplied the accurate Formulæ by which both my Rectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British American Provinces. If however there should be any one who has not received them, they will be promptly ferwarded by mail to his address.

Of all the Patent Medicines, that are offered, how few would be taken; their mystery. I have no mysteries and in the received the same thing of my Pills, and eve

PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL HOUSE—Established 20 years ago by Br. KINKELIN, corner of Third & Union sts. between Sprince and Bine, Philadelphia, Pa.
In valida are apprised that Dr. KINKELIN confines his practice to a particular branch of medicine, which engages his undivided attention. He cautions the unfortunate against the abuse of mercury; thousands are annually mercurialized out of life. Recent affections are promptly, extinguished. Twenty Years of Experience in thetreatment of a class of diseases hitherto neglected and imperfectly understood, has enabled 9r. KINKELIN. Author of a work on Self-Preservation, to prove that nine tenths of the causes of pervous debility, local and constitutional weakness, mental and physical suffering, are traceable to certain habits, forming the most secret yet deadly and faral springs of domestic misery and premature mortality.

The tentic ular Notice—There is an evilhabit sometimes in luged in by boys, in solitude, often growing myth them; to manhood, and which if not reformed in fluctime, not only begels serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rise to a series of protracted, insidious, and devastating affections. Faw of those who give way to this princious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, feel strange, and unaccountable feelings, and vague fears in the mind. The unfortunate thus affected becomes feeble, is unable to labor with occastomed vigor; or to apply his mind to Twenty Years of Experience in thetreatment of a class of diseases hithertoneglected and imperfectly un-

The unfortunate thus affected becomes feeble, is unable, to labor with occasioned vigor, or to apply his mind to study this atep is tardy and weak. To is dull, irresolute, and engages in his sport with leasenersy than usual. If he mannipate himself before the practice has done its worst, and enter matrimony, his marriage is unfruitful and his enset tells him that this is caused by his early follies. These are considerations which should awaken the uttention of those similarly situated.

Marringe requires the fulfilment of several conditions, in order that it may be really the cause of mutual happiness. Could the veil which covers the origin of domestic wretchedness be raised, and its trpe source in every instance disclosed—in how many could to be traced to physical liqualifications and their attendant disappointments.

**RENTES TREBETE—He who places himself under Dr. KINKELIN'Streatment unyreligiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and rely upon the assurance, that the secrets of Dr. K's, patients will never be disclosed.

Young man—let no false moderty deter you from making your casekn wanto one who, from education and respectability, can certainly befriend you.

Too many think they will conceal the secret in their own hearts, and cure themselves. Alms! how often is this a fatal delusion, and how many a promising young man, who might have been an ornament to society has faded from the earth.

Strictures of the urethra are rapidly removed by the application of a new therapcutical agent, used only by Dr. K. Weakness and constitutional stebility promptly cured, and full vigor restored.

A bottle of your Forest Wine and box of Pills, which I procured of Mc. James Carr, your agent for this place) has done wonders for me I had been it a state of decline for more than a year, afflicted with a dreafful cough, pain in the breast; general debility and loss of appetite. I, became almost a skeleton, and had been unable to leave my room for more than two months; my friends told me I had the Consumption, and despaired of my recovery. I could not obtain any relief from any medicine I had taken, or my physician, until your Wine and Pills were procured. The first dose of Pills brought up from my stomach, much phlem and greedish matter, and first tolds were perfectly black. I then commenced taking your Forest Wine three timess day, my appetite began to return immediately, my cough left me add in less than two weeks I was almost well. I now enjoy better health than I ever did infore, having in creased 25 pounds in seven weeks. Your Forest Wine and Pills are high! valued in this vicinity, and I owe my recovery entirely to their virtues. Yours respectfully.
