The Regular Quarterly Meeting of the Agricultural Society, will be held at the Court House on Tuesday evening, Nov. 28th inst., being the second week of Court.
W. H. JESSUP, Sec'y.

MARRIED.

In Brooklyn, Monday morning, the 13th inst., by Rev. A. O. Warren, Mr. ALVIN DAY, Junior Editor of the Montrose Democrat, and Miss EUNICE A. HOWE of Brooklyn.

"The Boys" were well remembered, and acknowledged it over a loaf of magnificent cake. They wouldn't care if "the Boss" would get married every week, if they were remembered as well every time. They hope his Days may be many—and pleasant.

At Harford, on the 16th ult., by Rev. A. Miller, Mr. D. C. BRUNDAGE of Clifford, and Miss NANCY J. TANNER of Harford.

At Harford, by the same, on the 29th ult., Mr. WILLISTON TUCKER, and Miss PAMELIA R. PICKERING, both of Jackson.

At Harford, by the same, on the 8th inst., Mr. J. N. BAKER and Miss SARAH E. BERRY, both of Clifford.

DIED,

At Muscoda, Grant Co., Wisconsin, on Sunday, October 22d, Mrs. MARY E. DIMOCK, wife of John H. Dimock of Muscoda, and daughter of Col. Asa Dimock of Harrisburg, Pa.

In this Borough, on the 7th ult., Mrs. LYDIA H., relict of the late J. W. RAYNSFORD, Esq., aged 68 years.

The deceased was long and well known in this community, of which she had been a resident for many years. Unobtrusive in her disposition, and possessed of a kind heart, she had no enemies, while her virtue secured to her a multitude of friends. A professed follower of Christ, she brought no stain upon her faith but lived a holy, harmless, undefiled life; cheered in her declining years by the hope of future blessedness, and supported in her last sickness by the presence and promise of God. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord; for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

HYGEANA.

Brought Home to the Door of the Million.

A WONDERFUL Discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma and all illnesses of the Lung. We refer to "Dr Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Syrup." With this new method Dr. C has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health: as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician says: "It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the aerial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the mixing and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion.—The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists throughout the country.

New York Dutchman of Jan. 14

The Inhaler is worn in the bosom under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid

Hundreds of CASES of CURES like the following might be named. "Our Mr. Hygeana has cured me of the ASTHMA of six years' standing."
Jas. F. Kiesberry, P. M. of Dansonmont, Pa.

I was cured of the ASTHMA of 16 years standing by Dr. Curtis' Hygeana.
Margaret Easton, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs Paul of No 5 Diamond St., N. Y., was cured of a severe case of bronchitis by the Hygeana.

My sister is now cured of a DISTRESSING COUGH of several years standing, and declared to be incurable by her physicians. She was cured in ONE MONTH by the Hygeana.

"Friends thank you once again my friends
No more my footsteps roam"

YOU will find me at my residence on Monument, two doors south from Seth Mitchell's Esq. happy at any time to wait on you, socially or professionally, the latter especially. Those who prefer to have their work done at their residence whether living in town or out, will please give me notice accordingly, and I am at your service. Persons at a distance desiring Plate Teeth, can be accommodated at my house, free of expense, while the work is being done. As I wish to be heavy I shall still adhere to my old plan of charging according to the circumstances of my patrons. There is much complaint of the high prices of Dentistry and of my prices too, although I have been in the habit of deducting from 15 to 25 per cent. from the first. Now, friends I will make you this offer,—if you who need work will come right along and have it done and so keep me busy, I will work for you for half price and do it well too. The reason we have to charge so high is because, either from dread of the pain or the pay, you hold back and force us to lose much time for want of work. Come on then and you will find there is a chance for bargains at Montavne.

NEW GOODS AGAIN.

THE subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Brooklyn and towns adjoining, that they are now opening a very large and carefully selected stock of which have been purchased (principally) very low, and will be sold for a small advance.

We invite the attention of the ladies to our stock of which for variety of style, quality and cheapness, can be surpassed by no establishment in Susquehanna county.

We have also some very nice Winter Shawls—among them several Broche—which we can and will sell "cheaper than the cheapest."

Our stock of Silks is also unusually large and attractive, and as regards prices, we know we can "Beat the Jews."

The gentlemen are likewise invited to examine our stock of Cloths, which is unusually large—including Broadcloths, Cassimeres, Satinetts, Tweeds, Jeans, Overcoat Cloths, &c., which are selling very low indeed.

To be brief, we have a very full assortment of Goods, Staple and Fancy, and are determined to sell them as low as they can be purchased this side of New York.

Thankful for the liberal patronage hitherto extended to us, we with confidence invite our friends and the public generally, in want of Goods, to call and examine our stock before purchasing.
SMITH & HEMPSTEAD.
Brooklyn, Oct. 24, 1854

Our Stock of Stoves.

IS now completed—and we would take this opportunity to say that we can show the most beautiful and splendid patterns of Parlor and Cooking Stoves to be found in the county.—Among them can be seen the Revolving Front, and Gothic Parlor, for wood or coal, entirely new patterns, and decidedly pretty stoves. Prices from five to ten dollars.

Of our Cooking stoves, we think it needless to say much, only to remark that we are selling them at our former prices, and judging from the rapidity of our sales, we believe the public are entirely satisfied with the prices and quality of our wares.

We have a "few left" of the "Clinton Air Tight Elevated Oven stove" acknowledged by all to be the best cooking stove now in use.—Russia and English pipe at old prices, and Trimmings and Tin Ware of all descriptions, at the very lowest rates.

☞ THE CHEST. ☜

Sir Astley Cooper, Bart., M. D., the eminent Medical Practitioner, has left a valuable Legacy to the world in his Great Preventative of Consumption and unfailing cure for Pulmonary Diseases, without the use of Medicine.

Sir A. C., Bart. invented and advised the use of the Medicated Fur Chest Protector.

To all persons of all ages and conditions, as a certain and safe preventative against Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Colds and other affections of the Lungs, which arise from the exposed state of the chest, causing exhaustion, and the continual changes of our climate.

"The Protector" is simply a chemically prepared fur lined with silk and padded, which suspended from the neck, covers the chest, in so agreeable a manner that, once worn, it becomes a necessity and a comfort.

"The Protector" has already had introduced into America, is making rapid progress through the United States, the Canadas, South America, and the West Indies. It has for a long time been a staple article in England and on the continent of Europe, which it has gained in many countries to the position of an article of dress.

To demonstrate these facts enquiries of any English resident in your vicinity or his knowledge of the beneficial effect of wearing the protector with its accurate fac simile of Sir Astley Cooper's signature, is all that is necessary. No one who values the health of himself or his family will be without them. The first order in the country are not alone recommending them but purchasing, introducing them. Her court, Bradley & Co. of London, and Manchester, England, as originally appointed by the manufacturer of the Protectors by the lamented Sir Astley Cooper, and continue to manufacture according to his original instructions, and therefore recommend those who would wear the "Protectors," to see to their being genuine.

Remember that this is a staple article, and no Patent Medicine.
