The Ælian Piano Forto is undoubtedly the most perfect musical instrument human ingenui-ty has constructed. Two instruments are blen-ded in one. The Ælian is both attached and detached; so that the Piano may be played with or without it; or, with one hand the performer may clicit the melodious strains of the Ælian, and with the other invoke the harmonies of the Piano. The instrument which, in the evening, incited to the datee or aided the festive song, gives forth, in the moning, the pealing tones which prelude and accompany the solean hymn Mr. Waters' new rooms are very inviting to the lovers of music.
