Camp Meeting Notice. The churches composing the State Road, Fair Dale, South Auburn, Apalachian, Candor, Union, Tioga & Athens circuits, Syracuse Conference, are making arrangements to hold a Camp Meeting, to commence Sept. 10. and continue till the following Monday.-The camp is located seven miles from Montrose, the county seat of Susquehanna Pa on the State Road West. It is expected that the pledge of our brethren from the Rochester conference, that have hitherto been with us will be redeemed, so that there will be no lack of Ministerial help. It is also expected, that Bros. Lee and Matlack, with many others of our brethren of the Syracuse Conference and Bro. C. F. Hawley of the Illinois Conference will be present.

Now, brethren, these arrangements are being made in the name of the Lord, for the sole purpose of advancing a pure Gospel, and to bring the unconverted to embrace Bible christianity. They are for the People. The Cheapest Reading in the World!! UNITED STATES MAGAZINE # \. AND

UNITED STATES JOURNAL For only one Dollar twenty-flue conte a year MAGNIFICENT PREMIUMS!

ETC., ETC., ETC., The United States Magazine is not in the second volume, having, during the first year, achieved an unparalleled triumph. When the first number appeared, so far as its superior to anything ever before published at the price, that it was predicted on all hands, that i must either be increased in price, or surely fail—that no such magazine could be sustained at the extraordinary low price of ONE DOLLAR a year. At the same time the laudations of the press throughout the country were unbounded complimentary notices flowing, in upon us by thousands. Subscribers began to roll in with a rapidity beyond our most sanguine expectations. The magazine has now reached a large circulation in every State and Territory of the Union throughout the British Provinces, and in the principal European cities, and is rapidly increasing wherever it is known. It is electrotyped from new type cast expressly for the purpose, and is printed on a new improved Adams' Press, making it one of the most beautiful specimens of typography of any senal publication ever issued from the American Press. The best artists are engaged upon its engravings, and each volume will hereafter contain The celebrated poem the "Lav of the Last Minstrel," illustrated with over sixty engravings, throughout six numbers. A series of over one hundred original designs illustrating scenes and incidents in American tainment, will promptly attended to by him the Magazine, accompanied with interesting and thrilling sketches connected therewith. It also contains, from time to time, views o cities, public buildings, scenery, curiosities, flowers agriculture, natural history, portraits of disinguished individuals, etc., etc., to which is added each month a page of withand humor, from "Democritus, Jr.," the Laughing Philosopher, with his comical "picters."

Although it is our object to give the magazine practical and instructive character, rather than tht, imaginative and sentimental, yet we intend that it shall always wear a smile that will cy make it attractive to all. Its articles are mostly original and from the ablest pens in the country; while the editorial talent bestowed upon it is unsurpassed by that of any publication in America. In addition to the rich Premium Books which ire given to those getting up clubs, rewards amounting to over THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

will be given to persons kending the largest num-

The United States Journal'is one of the largest, and universally acknowledged to be the cheapest newspaper in the world. It is published monthly, each number containing FIFTYsix spacious columns of the most valuable and nteresting reading matter, of 672 columns during the year, an amount sufficient to fill 3 large octavo volumes of over four hundred pages each. As a very interesting feature, there is now being published in the Journal, a series of beautifully engraved portraits of distinguished individuals, ecompanied with well-written biographical ketches. These will, two of them, appear each month, and be continued through several years. The Journal has been published six years, and has reached the triumphant circulation of One Hundred Thonsand Copies, and we are determined immediately to increase the circulation to One Hundred and Fifty thousand.

We have, during the last two years, presented to the subscribers of the Journal two series of splendid gifts of over $1,000 each, besides over $5000 worth of valuable Books, to those send-
