Knintuck and the Fiddler. On board of the Indiana, on one of her trips down the Mississippi, were a large number of good natured passengers. They were seeking to while away hours according to their several notions of pleasure, and would have got on very well, but for one anovenee. There hapened to be on board . Hoosier from the Wabash who was going down to Orleans, and he provided himself with an old fiddle. fancying that he could fiddle as well as the would attract notice, scraped away. . The fellow couldn't fiddle any more than a setting hen, and the horrible noise disturbed his fellow passengers. A Frenchman of very delecate nerves and a fine musical ear was especially annoyed. He fretted, figitted, and swore at the fiddle. The passengers tried various expedients to rid themselves of the Hoosier and his findle, but it was no go; he would music just as long as he pleased. At last a big Kentuckian sprang from his seat, saying I reckon I'll fix him. Placing himself by the fiddle, he commenced braying with all his might. The effect of this move ing the victors in the unequal contest with advance. Come temperance men, give your the Kentuckian and his singular impromptu old friend a lift. imitation of Balanm's friend. The delight of sound of their old tormentor. Hoosier had discovered the coast clear, and was bound to to revenge himself of the passengers. Louder and worse than ever screamed the fiddle. The Frenchman, just scated to read his paper, on the first sound rose and looked anxiously around, shrugged his shoulders, and then shouled-was restored for the day.

Vare is he! Vare is he! Queeck! Queeck! Mon Dieu! Vare is Montieur Kentuck, de man vat play on de jackass!"

ONE OF THE SPEECHES - Job Kolick was "one of em" on the stump. / A double barrelled throat, and lungs as large as two bushel baskets enabled him to electrify his constituents up to a fighting point in less time than it would take for a Susquehanna raft to go over Magra Falls. His great speech de-livered in Bob Stubb's ten acre lot, was a crusher. For the sake of posterity we give an extract:

"FELLOW CITIZENS!-You might jist as well try to pry up the Atlantic ocean with a under my feet with a harnessed gad fly, as trict Attorney, and intimating that it would to convince me that I ain't gwine to be elected this heat. My opponent don't stand a chance-not a sniff. Why he ain't as intellectual as a common sized shad. Fellers, am a hull team with two bull dogs under the wagon and a tar bucket-I am. If there's anybody this side of whar the sun begins to blister the earth that kin wallop me, let him show himself-I'm ready. Boys I go in for the American engle-claws, stars, stripes and all, and may I bust my everlastin' button - gouge everybody as denies it.

plication for a change of venue of the case of draw it. This was refused till Judge Jessup, created some interest. A few days ago the Mr. Wilmot's counsel sent to the Jury room remonstrance of Mr. Williamson against such a paper over his own signature, seconding change (from the Courts of Delaware county the application of the District Attorney, or to to the Supreme Court sitting in Philadelphia) that effect. Then it was, from regard to Representatives, (to the latter body by Mr. Morris, and to the former by Mr. Browne.) When the document in question was presentiliat, although it was unusual to address the Senate in reference to the subject matter of a petition or memorial at the time of its presentation be nevertheless asked indulgence, if the bill ever reached the Senate, he would give his objections at length; and that, for he present, he contented llimself with say ing that he would rote against the measure.

D. L. & W. R. R .- The track of this road has been laid to the Delaware river five miles below the Water Gap, and the first locomoren Railroad will be completed, so that the had a price for turning from a Democrat to a cara may pass through to Elizabethport. The whole length of this road is now finished from Great Bend, where it writes with the New York and Erie Railroad, to the Delaware river, a distance of one hundred and ten miles others must have a larger one for not serving and the Western Extension Road, connecting him. with it at New Hampton, on the New Jersey Central Railroad a distance of eight hundred miles, is also completed, except the tun-nel at the Gap, which will be finished by the at the heal of the paper endorsing it; and it first of March. By that period the Company their mines to Elizabethport. This compaav leaves the Cayuga and Susquehauna Railroad, and thus, connecting with the Erie

Course. But few of the reading public unos to advise his patrons on every subject, from politics to the breed of cattle. Through lotic, thief faced creature associated with him, the whole range of our duties none has per will be held responsible at the Bar of public plexed us more than to tell our readers what to take for a cure when they are sick. High- opinion. erto this has been a severe trial to all our skill, but it will not be hereafter. We have been taking, and have seen the evidence from others that have taken Dr. Aver's Cherry Pectoral and Cathartic Pile. They need but a slight trial to convince the most sceptical how far they are superior to the other medi-rupley here, says the New Haven Journal, say that if any invasion was attempted it justice; that all individual act of illegal in and Kraderick Croswell; Esq., has been ap would be resisted by all the power he could terference will incur condigin punishment; and

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NORTHERN PENN'A

Montrose, Thursday, Feb. 28 1856. WOOD Now is the time for those who are going to bring wood to us, to bring it. Pretty soon the sleighing will be gone. best man, and planting himself where he

Horse Stolen.

A valuable horse, cutter, harness, and two Buffalo robes were stolen from the barn of R T. Asuler Esq., Brooklyn Centre, last Thursday night. A reward of $50 is offer-have too unwell to make the comments we will take care of themselves. desired to. It shall appear in our next.

Book Notices. " The good Templar."-To our temperance friends and readers, we would say, that

THE HOME :- The second number of this the Frenchman knew no bounds, and quiet periodical is on our table. It is all it pretends to be, " a fireside companion, and During the night the Kentukian left the monthly Guide for the Wife, the Mother, the der the Constitution, to legislate upon the quartz veins that are wrought for this metboat. The next morning, after breakfast, the Sister and the Daughter." Edited by Mrs. subject of Slavery in the States where it al; but my best reason is, because of the fact passengers were startled by the discordant II. E. G. Arey, Buffalo, at $1,50 per annum. Gover for March is at hand. He wants our candid opinion of the engraving, " the moment of trial." With our better half we were looking at the engraving before we saw the notice of it, and we pronounced it the fluest specimen of art we over saw in a magazine. What do you say to our faste for the fine arts Mr. Godev !

GRAHAM's Magazine for March, is also at hand. As we mentioned last month, Graham has improved very much recently. For ladies fashions, patterns &c., the number be fore us is not easily eclipsed by Godey. Terms $3 per year. Address A. H. Sec. 106 Chesnut Strett, Philadelphia.

Au Awful Falschood.

In the last Republican was an article that for infamy challenges an equal. It makes direct charges of "bribery, and corruption" on the part of members of the last Grand Jury Union whenever they have the requisite popin reference to the prosecution against the ulation for one representative in Congresc. Editor of this paper by David Wilmot, and denies that the indictment was ignored, saybroom straw, or draw this 'ere stump from ing that it was simply withdrawn by the Dis-

We are authorized by members of Grand Jury to say that the article of the Republican is a flagrant, falsehood from the beginning to the end, and especially so with reference to Mr. WARD, the Foreman, and further that if Mr. Read, (for Prazier nobody thinks of noticing,) persists in this infamous lie, a statement from a majority of the Jury will be made over their own signatures, that the public may see for themselves the charholes, of I don t knock down, drag out, and sater of this christian libeller, in connection with the facts of the case. THE WILLIAMSON SLAVE CASE. The ap- dorsed the District Attorney saked to with-The Bill was ignored, but before it was en Wilmot's feelings, that they gave up the Bill. And fufther, as proof that the Bill was ignored, the records of the Commissioned to the Senate, Mr. Buckslew rose and said er's office show that the District Attorney has drawn his fee from the county of $1.50. the fees for an ignored Bill ! Now we ask. if the Bill was not ignored, but simply within order that he might state that the bill for drawn for the purpose, as the Republican inthe change of venue in the case named had timates, of presenting it to another Grand that persons residing out of the Territory, but been introduced into the Legislature against Jury, what business had the District Attorof the political party with which he was in ney, Mr. Wilmor's friend, to draw any fee at the habit of acting; that the responsibility all until it shall be finally disposed of ! From of its introduction must rest elsewhere; that this very circumstance the public can see and providing arms for the same purpose: the falsehood of Read's infamous charges up and it further appearing that combinations on men who are, at least, so much above him in respectability, that they would not associate their names with that synonyme of infamy, H. H. Frazier, for the purpose of being elected Associate Judge uext fall. He must tive crossed the bridge on the 2d inst. By Judge others by the only code of morals he the 1st of March the tunnel under the War- appears to appreciate, that inasmuch as be Know Nothing Republican, so others must

It will not avail Mr. Read to say that he did not write the article, for his name stands was put there for the sole purpose of giving will be ready to convey coal Mirough from character to the productions of the infamous wietch in company with whom he line assowietch in company with whom he lim asso sufrection in said Territory, or aggressive incisted himself. And when he allows his trusion into the same, will be resisted not road, sands coal to Western New York and name to be used to give character to charges of bribery and perjury against a Grand Jury of the county, composed of the very best are aware how continually an editor is called men of the county, as that Grand Jory was, and civil rights of peaceful and law-abiding he may expect that he, not the miserable, id-

From Kansas.

Greeley writes to the Tribune of last Fri

ment this morning containing assurances that government. cines we have had in use. They have one the Border counties of Missouri would acquisingle property of great importance to the esce in the present state of things in Kansas, and of distant States, to abstain from unausick and that is they care. Boston Herald. and make no aggressive movement. The thorized intermeddling in the local concerns President instructed Gor. Shannon before of the Territory, admonishing them that its P.T. Barnum has been put into bank- leaving to visit these counties personally, and organic law is to be executed with impartial nut by a special messenger, who started on ition.

Wednesday night, to members of the Tope- In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set gauize and adjourn, so as to be prepared tor States to be affixed to these presents. other movements hereafter. With these precautions on both sides no collision is now and energetic instructions of the Executive are having a good effect, and that probably the difficulties between the Kansas Settlers and Missourians are at an end- Certainly all that is necessary (or ever has been) is dedetermined action on the part of the federal power. We trust the President will stand up to the position be has finally assumed, with reference to the invasionists. If he does so We intended to publish the commu- we have no apprehension for the fate of Kannication of our friend "G," this week, but sas. Her people, protected against violence,

The Conventions.

The past week the National Know-Nothing Convention has been in session at Philaadelphia, for the purpose of nominating a late period, suspenced, and it is only since was beyond discription. Old Kaintuck bray- this is the the title of a prettily printed and candidate for the Presidency. To this wri- the peace that he has again commenced ed to lond that be drowned the screeching hilly edited little magazine. B. H. Mills, ting no nomination has been made, and all working his veins. The discovery was first tilddle, and amid the shouts of the passengers formerly of this place, Editor. Published at indications point to the success of Filmore. the discomfiled Hoosier retreated below, leav- St. Louis, monthly, at $1,00 per annum, in The following is a portion of the platform as pursued here since; but I am fully satisfied laid down:

> hereby declared, as the sense of this National does or may exist, or to exclude any. State that, upon examination, I myself found gold Constitution does or does not recognize the nun now writing. institution of Slavery as a part of its social system; and expressly pretermitting any ex- plished. I had heard descriptions of the pression of opinion upon the power of Con- quartz veins in Libertad, and felt sure that gress to establish or prohibit Slavery in any there must be placer diggings in the neigh-Territory, it is the sense of the National Council that Congress ought not to legislate upon frary by every one who professed to be fathe subject of Slavery in the Territory of the miliar with the locality. I have examined United States, and that any interfrence by not only the mineral region of California Congress with Slavery as it exists in the Disty thoroughly but gold mines in other countries, trict of Columbia would be a violation of the and I never knew it to fail that where auspirit and intention of the compact by which riferagis quartz veins are found, gold is found the State of Maryland coded the District to in the soil. My theory is confirmed by my the United States, and a breach of the na- explorations in Nicaragua. Of the rickness tional faith."

> "The recognition of the right of the native-born and naturalized citizens of the United States, permanently residing in any Territory thereof, to frame their constitution and laws, and to regulate their domestic and certainty, would require tools which are not social affairs in their own mode, subject onby to the provisions of the Federal Constitut authorized to consume here. Judging, howtion, with the privilege of admission into the ever, by the same rules that miners are ac-Provided always, that none but those who is one of the richest gold countries in the are citizens of the United States, under the world. Constitution and laws thereof, and who have - "Libertad is located on a stream called Territory or State."

At the same time the Republican branch of the Know-Nothing party held a Conventhen marched down again." We have not been able to see what precise result they did effect, beyond a few Buncombe speeches.

P. S. Mr. Fillmore was nominated Monday by the following vote. Fillmore 179. Baw 24, Rayner 14, McLean 13, Davis 10; following: Sam Houston 3. A. J. Donelson of Tenessee was then nominated for Vice President, receiving on the first ballot 181.

The Convention was a stormy one throughout and after the nomination of Fillmore about 50 northern Delegates withdraw.

Proclamation of the President.

Whereas, indications exist that public tranquility and the supremacy of law in the Territory of Kansas are endangered by the reprehensible acts or purposes of persons, both within and without the same, who propose to designated Article 11th, and which shall be direct and control its political organization as follows: by force; it appearing that combinations have been formed therein to resist the execution of the Territoria laws, and thus, in effeet, subvert by violence all present constitutional and legal authority : it also appearing near its borders, contemplate armed intervention in the affairs thereof: it also appearing that other persons, inhabitants of remote States are collecting money, engaging men. within the Territory are endeavoring by the aid of emissaries and otherwise, to induce individual States of the Union to interfere in the affairs thereof, in violation of the Constitution of the United States. And, whereas, all such plans for the determination of the fu ture institutions of the Territory, if carried into action from within the same, will constitute the fact of insurrection, and, if from without, that of invasive aggression, and will. in either case, justify and require the forcible have a price for not doing it. That as he has or is to have a price for serving Wilm it so eral government, as well to maintain the laws of the Territory as those of the Union-Now, therefore, I, Franklin Pierce, President of the United States, do issue this my proclamation to command all persons engaged in unlawful combinations against the constituted authority of the Territory of Kansas or of the United States to disperse and retire only by the local militia, but also by that of any available forces of the United States; to the end of assuring immunity from violence or loaned to any individual, company, corpo- inspire. - Pennsylvanian.

inhabitants of the Territory. If, in any part of the Union, the fury o faction or fanatacism, inflamed into disregard of the great principles of popular sovereignty, which, under the Constitution, are fundamental in the whole structure of our institutions, is to bring on the country the dire calamity day from Washington in reserence to affairs it shall be between lawless violence on the one side and conservative force on the other. Intelligence was received by the Govern- wielded by legal authority of the general in most of the States. No military force will tions shall not fail in their hands, by co-opbe employed unless the civil process is resist- erating to uphold the majesty of the laws Republican Instructions have been sent and to vindicate the sanctity of the constitu-ka Convention desiring them merely to or- my hand, and caused the seal of the United Done at the city of Washington, the elveenth day of February, in the year of our

By the President: Wm. L. Marcy, Seclyf State.

The Gold Mines of Nicaragna.

We find in the New York Herald a letter ritten to Col. Parker H. Frenche from the District of Chantales, in reference to the gold mines of Nicaragua, from which we make the following extracts: "The mines were discovered some six tion broke out, and he and his men were pressed into the service of the Chamorro party. His operations were, down to a very that there are very rich deposits of gold in "And regarding it the highest duty to the soil hereabouts, not in the rock. Me avow their opinions upon a subject so impor- reasons for this conclusion are, that the countant, in distinct and unequivocal terms, it is try bears the same appearance as the gold country in California; that there are reports Coucil, that Congress possesses no power, un- that gold has been found in the soil near the from admission into the Union because its in the soil of a ravine near the place where I "The chief object of my visit is accom-> borhood, though I was assured of the conof the diggings I cannot judge, except from the appearance of the soil, and the result of the experiment thus described. To 'prospect' the country in such a manner as to arrive at a conclusion in the premises with positive to be procured were and more time than I fan customed to judge by in California and other countries where gold is found, Chontales fixed residence in any such Territory, ought the Mico, which is a branch of the Bluefields to parcipate in the formation of the Constitu | river, and which empties into the Atlautic at tion; or in the ensetment of laws for said Bluefields, in the so-called Mosquito kingdom. There are several other streams in the > Amendments to the Constitution. Senator Crabb has introduced a proposition into the Senate to submit to the people for their adoption certain amendments to the State Constitution. The first is, that there shall be affixed to article 3d, section first, the

And provided further, That no person legience to, or is a subject of citizen or a foreign power or government, and who shall be naturalized on or after the fourth day of July, Anno Domini, one thousand eight handred and fifty-eight, shall be eligible to vote at any political or public election in this Commonwealth, until he shall have resided under the government of the United States a period of twenty-one years,

The next is that there shall be an additional Article to the Constitution, which shall be

Sec. I The aggregate amount of debi which may hereafter be contracted by the Commonwealth, shall not exceed the sum of and statesman. A plain dome is erected over five hundred dollars, except in the event of his grave, and a marble slab bears the inwar or invasion by a foreign power, or dotion of the whole, or a portion of the present three weeping willows and four beautiful monwealth, by virtue of any act of assembly, litical affairs cannot now stand there by the shall be applied to the defraying of the ex- grave of that inflexible patriot without emopenses incurred by such war, invasion or insurrection, or the liquidation of such indebtmay be contracted in the event of war, hos- of their lives. It is apparent to every observerwise, the legislature shall at its next sess lieg brighter and his political character getsion after the adoption of this section by the ting to be better understood every year. It debt or debts shall be paid, said fund shall interposition of the whole power of the gen- be made from the annual income from the canals and railroads belonging to the Com- it encourage them to persevere in a just cause monwealth, or the proceeds of the sale there- which subjects them for the time to censure, of, or other property owned by the Common-secure at last of the praise and veneration of wealth; the money composing the sinking succeeding generations! Vera pro gretiafund shall be invested by the Governor, in true things instead of pleasant things—is a by the Commonwealth, which loans shall be act upon, and which men really interested in cancelled from time to time, in such manner the welfare of their race and the good of peaceably to their respective abodes, and to as shall be provided for by law, and no por- their country will be sure to follow. Had warn all such persons that any attempted in tion of said sinking fund shall ever be ap- Jackson pursued a policy time-serving and lied to any other than one or more of the purposes hereinbefore mentioned.

ration or association, nor shall the Commonwealth hereafter become a steekholder in any company, association or corporation. SEC. 4 The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part, thereof, of any county, city, borough or township, of of any State to repel invasion, suppress domestie in-assist the State in time of peace, the defaulting treasurer of Holmes county, next election.

justice. He said-

apprehended and of the indipendence of the United Presidency. Instead of using any metaphor- go for him to a man, thousands of old line the interpretation of the just is blessed." May ical language in approaching this important Whigs are anxious to have an opportunity the Lord bless the orphan children. subject, I shall come down to matters of fact to vote for him. at once, and say that I am in faver of James Buchanan for that office. (Cheers.) James Penusylvania is good for Thirty Thousand Buchanan possesses in a higher degree the majority against any man or any combinaconfidence and esteem of, all parties to day tion that can be brought into the field against than any other living man in America. His him .- The Star of the North. life has been strangely diversified. He has occupied almost every position within the gift of the nation, and his life is recorded up> ican position in Europe, and he will return to mon Schools of the State with Webster's Unaccumulated a large fortune by his opera- this country not covered all over with the abridged Dictionary. tions. He worked diligently in developing baubles that adorn the ambassadors who The plan proposed by the Committee is throng the courtly halls of Europe, but as he this: the Commonwealth to pay one half of went, an uncontaminated, unflinching supreputation for Democracy such as no man evman. With enlarged and liberal views he looks over the whole field, and if chosen for tions proposed, the State will, of course, not made in quartz rock, which will account for the Presidency will dispense the blessings of have to pay its pro rata share. This is conhis wisdom as the dews of fleaven descend, alike upon the rich and the poor. When a When a Senator of the United States, who within the reach of every school-of every was his superior? He has received the applause of almost every eminent man in the Senate. He is the man who has acquired the most fatimate knowledge of the affairs upon ly convinced by daily observation. that side of the brook of any man in the nation, and he is therefore better fitted than any other to go into the Presidential chair, and say to Great Britain that she must keep faith in her treaties, and that postyranical power shall ever hereafter find a lodgement upon the American continent. (Cheers.)

It cannot be expected, gentlemen, that should detain you longer, but I will say that I trust for the honor of this Association, you will select a man, if not James Buchanan, a man as good as he isaf you can find him. If ou select Pennsylvania's favorite son, from Bergen to Cape May, and from Mercer to Hudson, but one voice will arise, and Buchanan and Union will be the watchword of success. When the election comes, we may give our opponents the exclusive name of Americans" which they arrogate, and let them proclaim if they will the principle that Americans shall rule America." The old Clay Whigs will turn to Buchanan, in disgust from the fanaticism that is stalking over the land; they will be found side by side with us in the struggle. I welcome the hour that will call us to the contest. With "Old Buck" for our candidate, and the Constitution for our fallying-cry, the Democratic cohorts cannot but be invincible. (Enthusiastic and long continued applause.)

The Hermitage. A bill has passed the House of Representatives of the Legislature appropriating $50,000 for the purchase, by the State of the Hermitneighborhood, all of which find their way to age. The Nashville Union thinks the bill will the Atlantic by the same channel. The lo- also pass the Senate. The Hermitage is now tion at Pittsburg. With a great flourish of called the lower range of the owned and occupied by Arrange Jackson, the thinks that the people at large are neuthe adopted son of General Jackson. There is a fitness in the proposition before the Tennessee Legislature which will strike every mind. We sincerely hope that this distinguished mark of grateful respect for the illustrious character and services of ANDREW JACKSOM will be consumated. In this counection, the following extracts of a letter daborn in a foreign land, or who may owe all ted Nashville, January 18 1856, addressed to the Boston Post, will be interesting :

'The mansion of General Jackson is now occupied by his adopted son. It is a stately and spacious house, with large pillars in front and is surrounded with grounds neatly embellished with shade and fruit trees. The plantation itself is a large tract of level land laid off in fields of grain and cotton; and exhibits, in all respects, indications of thrift and enterprise. The neighboring plantation on the opposite side of the main road is occupied by Major Donolson, and also shows marks of good management. . In the garden of the Hermitage, near the mansion, sleep the remains of immortal hero scription of his birth and death. Near by mestic insurrection, or the intended liquida- is the grave of his wife. There are two or indebtedness of the Commonwealth, and the mangolia trees standing near and shading the money obtained on the credit of the Com- tomb. The most indifferent spectator of potion. He who goes to visit the places where great men are buried does not go entirely edness, and to no other purpose whatsoever. to see the marble which marks their grave SEC. 2 That to pay the present debt of but is led involuntarily to contemplate the the Commonwealth, and may debts which elements of their character and the purposes tile invasion, domestic innsurrection, or othing man that the fame of Jackson is growpeople, provide by law for the creation of a is now common to hear men who differed from him in politics extol his integrity and quote him as an oracle. What a valuable lesson is this statesman, and how much does behalf of the State, in the loans contracted principle which the truly great can afford to popular for the day, he could have passed SEC. 3 The credit of the Commonwealth with that enthusiasm and respect with it is, through memory would not now cherished shall not in any manner or event, be pledged and which courage and patriotism can only

Presidential.

The Bedford Gazette, of Friday last, comes to us with the name of James Buchanan at both of Dimock, Susq. county. comporation or association, unless such debt its head, for the Presidency. In speaking By the Rev. J. F. Deans at his resi shall have been contracted to enable the upon the subject of raising it there, it says: The Democratic inceting of last Monday surrection, defend itself in time of war, or to evening, was one of the largest, most respectable and enthusiastic ever held in Bedford A. Contrast. What a contrast the two which prevailed, gives the strongest assurance county, and the entire unamimity of feeling following cases present !- John M. Shrockh, of a handsome Democratic majority at the

New Jersey and Mr. Buchaun. thus emphatically expressed, we this day bly sustained by that firm-reliance on Christ We copy from the Trenton True Ameri- raise to the mast-head of the Gazette, the as his Savious, which he had so long enjoycan, the following extract from the speech of name dear to every Democrat in the Com- ed amid the adverse circumstances through Gen. E. R. V. Wright, delivered before the monwealth and have the most abiding con- which do had to pass, of a worldly kind;

In a very short time gentlemen, it will be nia so decided for any candidate as she now joice in the midst of extreme pain and suffer-

With James Buchanan as our leader.

An Excellent Movement. Mr. Getz, of Berks county, from the Comon almost every page of our country's histomittee on Education, his made a report to years ago, by a man who is now one of the ry. He now holds the most important Amer- the House, in favor of supplying the Com-porter of American interest : and with a purchased, and the school receiving the book to pay the other half. It is not obligatory er yet returned with. He is no sectional upon the schools to take the book, but if any schools decline to receive it under the condisidered a fair and liberal proposition. It places the possession of the most valuable work member of the Cabinet, who was more able? in the English language (save only the Bible) boy and girl in the Commonwealth. Of the importance of a work of the kind being placed in our school rooms, we are ful-Col. J. R. Snowden, the Director of the U.S. Mint has made his annual report. It is a highly interesting document, and furnishes, in reasonable limits, a detailed account of the operations of this great national institution for the year 1855. The deposits received and the coinage at the principal Mint, during the year, amounted in gold and silver, as follows: Deposits. -$13,214,660.

Coinage, $12,045,952. The branches at New Orleans, San Francisco, Dahlonega, Charlotte, and the Assay Office at New York, were also actively embloved. The entire amounts received and coined at the Mint and its branches, including the Assay office, during the year, were as follow:

Received. - - $64.574.391. Coined. - - 56,312,733.

The Director makes, some excellent restions in relation to the issue of small coin. A new machine has been obtained from Par-A new machine has been obtained from Paris, by which the manufacture of the half-call and settle with us, and pay us when you can, we will be satisfied. Otherwise we shall be under the necessity of leaving our books with any means assumed that the colange of the but as a general rule, adapted to the principal Mint, and to the branches in the Atlantic States, it is believed that the time has come. to return to smaller denominations of gold coin such as the half-engle, quarter-engle, and dollar. Mr. Snowden says that this deer than move them, as we are going to build us to a country so greatly favored with the sell you Goods at city cost for the next two he thinks that the people at large are neti- taken in exchange for Goods.

Later From Europe.

" HALIPAX, Friday, Feb. 22, '56. The Canard screw steamship Etna, from Havre for New-York, put into this port this evening short of coal-having experienced very rough weather during the passage. the 5th inst., three days later than those received by the Canady.

She brings no tidings of the steamship

We have received no English papers by this arrival, and the French journals contain no news of importance. It was still current at Paris that Prussia would not be permitted to participate in the Peace conferences.

Prince Grochakoff, when signing the protocol accepting the Austrian propositions, demanded that Prusia should be invited to take part in the conference. Count Buolsupported the demand, but M. Borquency old horse, and 6 two year olds of goodsize. The ind Sir H. Seymour had asked to refer it to said property will be soldeto the highest bidder their governments. The acceptation by Russia of the peace propositions had caused the greatest astonshment in Turkey, but at the latest dates the intelligence had not reached the Allied Generals in the Crimen owing to the breaking of the submarine cable in the Black Sea. Some disturbance had been created by the off his present stock of Bashi Bazouks at Shumla.

It was reported that a serious military con spiracy had been discovered at Madrid; with spiracy had been discovered at Madrid, with ed that they can now purchase of me lower than ramifications through the north of Spain.— Goods were ever before sold in Brooklyn. My The particulars were not given.

THERE is a man our west so dirty that the assessors but him down as real estate. ROTICE.

odge, I. O. of G. T., of Pa., will be held at county and to me directed, I will expose to sale Providence, Luzerne County, on Tuesday the by public vendue at the Court Vouse in Monthe 11th day of March next, commencing at 1 2 o'clock P. M.

S. B. CHASE, G. W.S. Great Bend, Feb. 24, 1856. Notice.

The Board of School Directors of Bridgewater District; will meet at the Court House on Monday, March 3, at 1 o'clock P. M.

C. J. CURTIS, Sec'y.

ELLELLE.

At the Methodist Parsonnge in Benoxville on the 20th inst., by the Rev. Wm. Shelps, Mr. MAHAN C. STEWART, to Miss: ANNE E. STAGE, all of Clifford, Susquehanna county, On the 12th inst., by the Rev. I. L. Staples. Mr. NATHAN PENNY and Miss Betsey GAVIT.

dence in Bridgewater, Saturday eve Feb. 28d. RAH R. STERLING, of Braintrim, Wyoming Co., City and free from offensive odor, called BIBD.

Ohio, run away with $22,000 of the public On the subject of the Presidency, there is in the 50th year of his age. Brother Haigans of the continuous and one-fourth No. 1 Perovice Gundo.

Tafeu is composed of three-fourts and and some opinion in Bedford county. Whilst has been for many years a resident of the Co. ted for raising Corn. Garden Vegotables and the continuous co ed, brought back, tried, convicted and sentine Democracy accord to President and also an acceptable member of the M. E. Grass, than any other in market. Can be put fenced to one vear's imprisonment in the pen- Pierce the character, of an able statesman Church, in which society he has been for a in contact with the seed without injury, and itentiary. Charles B. Smith. a resident of an accomplished gentleman, and a true Demonster of the same county, about the same time, borlowed a horse worth $75, rode him to a neighboring town, sold him, pocketed the should be selected to preside over this mighand Krederick Crossell, Eq., has been appointed Lessees of his setate. Although the formand; also to say to the people of Kam pointed Lessees substitute same substitute of the formand; and that any enclasive to the people of Kam been appropriated of the formand; also to say to the people of Kam been appropriated of the formand; also to say to the people of Kam been appropriated of the formand; also to say to the people of Kam been appropriated of the formand; also to say to the people of Kam been appropriated of the formand; also to say to the people of Kam been appropriated of the formand; also to say to the semicial points and the same substitute of the same substitute and sentenced to the penindary for three p

Democratic Association of the city of Tren- fidence, that he will be the choice of the Conton. Gen. Wright, in speaking of the Hon. vention which will assemble at Cincinnati in like an anchor to his soul sure and stead. fast, entering into that within the veil;" and We have never before known Pennsylva- in view of which hope he was enabled to re-

In Forest Lake, Feb. 18th, 1856, PERRY

Ball, in the 76th year of his age. The deceased was one of the early settlers of this county, having emigrated from Berkshire county, Mass., to this place in 1811; his own hands cutting the way through the forestan advance of team which conveyed his family to his anticipated home in the wilds of (since then) Sucquehanua county. With the blessings of Heaven upon persevering industry, he has made the wilderness to bud and blossom like the rose. He survived a lew years the companion of his youth and sharer of his toils; also two of his three children, deceased before him. An only son was left to smooth the pillow of his dying be ! .--The eceased was one of those of whom it may be truly said was faithful in what appeared to be his duty. Benevolent and kind in his disposition, charitable towards others, and happy in his intercourse with his friends, thus adorning his profession, having been a consistant member of the Baptist church at Midletown for more than forty years, and highy respected by all that shared his acquaint-He always obeyed the Supreme injunction by "Keeping himself unspotted from the world." The hoary head is a crown of glory to those found in the way of righteous-

In Lenox the 13th inst., Hugh MEAD, in the 68th year of his age. Mr. MEAD was one of the most estimable ritizens of this county—a quiet, sober industrious man, commanding the confidence and respect of all who knew him. In his death society has lost an ornament, and his friends counselor and guide. May his example live after him.

In Lenox. Feb., 16th, Lucy CAROLINE. daughter of Sylvester and Elizabeth Tires. aged three years, six months, and seven days.

Happy infant, early blost,
Rest, in peaceful slumbers rest, Early rescued from the cares. That increase with growing years.

First and Last Call

LL indebted to R. Thayer & Co., Thayer A & Crandall, or R. Thayer, individually will please take this kind admonition, and we must have those accounts settled up. Now if you a Justice for settlement and collection. We engle and double engle will be discontinued; will give until the 1st of April next, for you to call and see us. Many of these debts are small and the costs would amount to more than the debts. So friends call and not compel us to do what is so much against our feelings. Also, we would say to the public, that wishing to sell out our entire stock of Goods, Rathscription of coin is particularly applicable a new store house the coming summer, we will original production of the precious metal, and months. Shingles and most kinds of lumber Call and see us without delay.

R. THAYER & CO. Montrose; Feb. 25, 1856.

A CARD.

WOULD take this method to express my gratitude most earnestly, to the merchant of Susquehann, county, a very large majority of whom have shown themselves reighbors and friends, since I have been interested in the Hardery rough weather during the passage: ware and Cutlery husiness in New York, and Her dates from Havre and Paris are to trust they will find it to their interest to continue their favors, and to those who have not found it convenient to make the sacrifice of walk. ing to 215 Pearl Street near Maidenlane (five minutes from Merchants Hotel) I will say that should you call, I shall try and make it your interest to buy, and would esteem it a neighborly act, on the golden rule principle; payable in the same coin. M. C. TYLER. Montrose, Feb 28th 1856.-2w*

Public Sale.

THE Subscriber will sell at public sale on A Saturday, the 8th day of March next, or his Farm in Bridgewater township, the following property to wit: 9 Cows of good quality, 35 on six months time, with good security.

PATRICK CROSSEN. Bridgewater, Feb. 25,-2w*

Goods at Cost. A ND lower too. The subscriber intends lea-April next, and is desirous therefore of selling GOODS For Cash or ready pay the public may be assurstock consists of a general variety store. Give me a call and you will make great bargains.

J. F. SMITH.

Brooklyn, Feb. 20, 1856 .- 84w Sheriff's Sale. A Quarterly Session of the Grand B Court of Common Pleas of Susquehanna

rose, on Saturday the 22d day of March next, at I o'clock P. M. ALL that certain piece of parcel of land situate in Great Bend township, and in the County of Susquehanna, bounded and described as follows to wit: Beginning at the south west cornthe north line of the Depot Grounds of the New York and Eric Rail Road Co. Thence by said Company's Grounds, south 51 degrees cast, 60 feet, thence by other lands of Addison Bryant, porth 51 degrees east 208 feet, to the south side traveled path of the old turnpike road, thouce by said road north 26 degrees west, 60 feet to the corner of said Green's line, thence south 51 deg. west, 233 feet to the beginning. Containing about 12960 square feet, and having created thereon a large Hotel known as "The Bryant, House," with barn sheds and other out houses. Taken in execution at the suit of Elmee W.

Brigham vs. Addison Bryant. Sheriff's Office, Montrose, Feb. 18, 1856.

To Farmers and Gardeners. VOUR attention is called to the Manures dence in Bridgewater, Saturday eve Feb. 23d, I manufactured by the Lodi Monufacturing Mr J. R. Beebe, of Bridgewater, and Miss Sa. Co., from the Sinks and Privies of New York

POUDRETTE AND TAFEU. Pondratte is composed of two thirds nights Tafeu is composed of three-lourths night soil