RECAPED. On yesterday the warden of the Ohio Penitentiary sent twelve convicts in the care of two guards, to the farm of Win. Atcheson, about three miles from the city, for the purpose of cutting wood. The guards placed their revolvers on the top of a woodpile; and while one of them est down to watch the pistols, the other walked round to attend to putting up the wood; and while thus engaged, two of the convicts named Maher and Young, stole the revolvers and made their escape. This makes four escapes from the same place within four weeks! Columbus Fact, 11th.
