May 24, 1856 .- Allen Wilkerson, of Frank lin county, was most inhumanly butchered by a body of midnight assassins, who entered his house between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock at night, and, approaching his bedside, told him he was a "prisoner of the Northern Legion," at the same time tearing him away J. II. Classin, from the embrace of his wife, who begged upon humbled knees, with tears in his eyes, the brutes to spare her husband for the sake of her helpless children—three in number but turning a deaf ear to her entreaties and common dictates of humanity, the brutes took him a short distance and literally chopped him to pieces with their bowie knives, for no other offence than that he was an old resident of the Territory, familiar with the incidents I. Reckhow, attending the elections in the Territory, and would likely be called upon by General Whitfield to testify before the Congressional Investigating Committee, and therefore must be murdered. On the same night William Sherman and Mr. Boyle and his two sons were massacred in the same manner by the same assassins, for the same reasons—their bodies being most horribly mutilated, the S. D. Townsend ears, nose and fingers being cut off before they Jas. Hewitt,

May 25 and 26, 1856 .- The store of Josoph M. Harford University. As Prof. W. Richardson will be absent from the Institution the present year, arrangements have been made with Rev. E. Allen to attend the recitations in the Latin and Greek languages, and with Miss Hannah Richardson to give instruction in drawing and painting. Miss H. Richardson will have the general supervision of the Ladies Department. We defer the commencement of the Term from August 20th to the 27th, in order to accommodate the Normal Department. The classes in all the branches usually taught in the Institution, will be formed at the commencement of the Term. To those in the Normal Department, who wish to attend to any other branch of study, one dollar charge will be added for each

To those who do not wish to attend the Normal Department, the regular charges will be made. The notice given by Mr. Tewksbury respecting the rooms, is to be understood, that each room is furnished with a stove, and the furniture is sold at cost, to those who do not choose to furnish their own rooms, and when they leave (if the furniture is uninjured) it will be bought back, at a moderate discount. The books used at the Institution are furnished in the same manner. FromPailad elphia, leave Walnut st. Harford, Aug. 6, 1856.
