NAYS-Messin, Barksdale, Bennet of Miss. Brooks, Keitt, Shorter, Walker, Wright of Mississippi.

THE COST OF KANSAL Mr. Washburn (rep.) of Maine, asked leave to offer a resolution calling upon the President to communicate the amounts of money paid and liabilities incurred for the pay and support of persons called into the service of the United States, either under, the designation of Militia of Kansas or as a poste comitatus, by the civil officers in that Territory, since the date of its establishment, and for witnesses and arrosts, detection and trial of persons charged with treason against the United States, or with violation of the so called laws of the Territory. Pending this the House adjourned.

Holloway's Pills have been placed by the ommon consent of mankind, at the head of nternal remedies. To say that in warm climates they have thousands upon thousands of persons annually from falling a sacrifice to lyspepsia, dysentary, diarrhea, constipation, iver complaint, general debility, remittent lover, etc., is simply to relate a fact attested by clouds of witnesses. No sufferer from corbutic affections has ever failed to experience relief from them, and they are guaranteed to cure chronic diseases of the internal organs, which have previously baffled the skill of the most successful practitioners.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15th, 1856. THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE. Mr. Etheridge, (K. N.) of Tenn., submitted information : Resolved, That this House regard all sugrestions or propositions of every kind, by homsoever made, for the revival of the slave trade, as shocking to the moral sentiments of and inhuman trafic would justly subject the United States to the reproach and execution of all civilized and Christian people throughout the world. Objection was made to the introduction of the resolution.

Mr. Campbell (rep) of Ohio demanded the ares and nays. Mr. Walker (K. N.) of Ala., asked whether, if the House abould suspend the rules, it was the purpose of Mr. Etheridge to move the previous question on the adoption of the resolution, in order to dut off debate. Mr. Etheridge replied that the resolution contained a self-evident proposition. He presumed that every gentleman had an opinion on the subject. He would not discuss it, but would move the previous question.

Mr. Jones (dem.) of Tenn., wanjed Mr. Etheridge, to leave out the argument in the resolution, saving he was as much opposed to the re-opening of the African slave trade as his colleague. (He was here called to fund order by the Speaker, who said that debau was inadmissable at this time.) Mr. Jones said that he would not be gaged by either the Speaker or anybody else. Mr. Otr (dem.) of South Carolino, ineffeotually strove to substitute, simply ; " It is inexpedient to repeal the law prohibiting the
