HARDWARE, HOUSE FUR-NISHING AND FANCY GOODS.

TO THE INDABITATIVE Counties.

WE would respectfully solicit your attenmentioned Goods, now in store and in course of reception. For many years the trade of one of the largest portions of the Empire State has been retained by'a monopoly, which has at last given away before the rush of enterprise. Possessing unequalind facilities for buying, and having direct communication with the most extensive Manufactories in the United States, we say, without exaggiration, that we can and will sell, either wholesale or retail, at prices lower than ever offered before west of N. Y.

City.
While nothing has been omitted in the Hard ware line, we have given particular attention to the House Furnishing branch of our business, and have on hand a stock well worthy the in spection of House Keepers. Of Fancy Goods we have also a large assortment, which, having been selected with especial reference to the wints; of our customers, we think will please those in need of articles in this In conclusion, we would say that our Goods are new, and of the first quality, and that we hope, by strict attention to business, and a constant anticipation of the wishes of our patrons, to merit even an increase of the confidence already reposed in us.

Are curing the Sick to an extent never before known of any Medicine. INVALIDE, READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES

JULES HAUEL, Esq., the well known perfemer, of Chestant Street, Philadelphia, whose choice products are found at almost every toilet, says: Chestant Erret, Philadelphia, whose choice pradicts are found at almost every toilet, $390:

"I am happy to say of your Cathaetic Pills, that I have found them a better family medicine, for common pse, than any other within my knowledge. Many of my friends have realized marked benefits from them, and coincide with me in believing that they possess extraordinary virtues for driving out diseases and curing the sick. They are not only effectual, but safe and pleasant to be taken—qualities which must make them valued by the public, when they are known. "I have taken your Pills with great benefit, for the listleseness, languor, loss of appetite, and Billoins beadache, which has of late years overtaken me in the spring. A few doses of your Pills cured me. I have used your Chetry Pectoral many years in my family for coughs and colds with unfailing success. You make smedicines which ears; and I feel it a pleasure to commend you for the good you have done and are doing."

IOHN F. BEATTY, Esq., Sec. of the Penn. Railroad Co., "Sir: I take pleasure in adding my testimony to the efficacy of your medicines, having derived very material benefit from the use of both your Festoral and Cathartic Pills. I am never without them in my family, nor shall I ever concent to be, while my means will procure them."

The widely renowned S. S. STEVENS, M. D., of Wentworth, N. H., writes:

"Having used your Cathauric Pills in my practice, I certify from experience that they are an invaluable pursative. In cases of disordered functions of the liver, causing headache, indigestion, costiveness, and the great variety of diseases that follow, they are a surer remedy than any other. In all cases where a purgative remedy than any other. In all cases where a purgative remedy than any other I have ever found. They are sure in their operation, and perfectly safe—qualities which make them an invaluable article for public use. I have few many years known your Cherry Peckoral as the best Cough medicine in the world; and these Pills are in no wise inferior to that admirable preparation for the treatment of diseases."

"Never until now have I been free from this loathsome disease in some shape. At times it attacked my eyes, and made me almost blind, besides the unendurable point; at others it settled in the scalp of my head, and destroyed my hair, and has kept me partly bald all my days; sometimes it came out in my face, and kept it for months a raw sore.

"About nine weeks ago I commenced taking your Cathartic Pilla, and now am entirely free from the compliant. My eyes are well, my akin is fair, and my hair has commenced a healthy growth; all of which makes me faltered a new person.
