United States Senator,

Tuesday, the 13th, was the day fixed law, for the election of a U.S. Senator from Pennsylvania. Col. John W. Forney is the candidate of the Democracy for that position. Mr. Forney is an eloquent and logical advocate of sound Democratic principles, and his nomination by the Democratic caucus will give, we apprehend, satisfaction to the party, whose faithful and efficient champion he has been. We notice the Senate has refused to consider the resolution to go into joint ballot with the House on the Senatorial question. This proceeding is clearly revolutionary, and should be discountenanced by all parties .--The attempt of one branch of the Legislature to prevent the election of a U. S. Senator is shameful, and we trust will prove unsuccessful. Mr. Forney, having the necessary qualifications, and being the choice of the dominant party, ought to, and we doubt not will be our next Senator.

Mr. Payne, a member from North Carolina, intimated that the charge was true, and stated that he had been offered a large sum of money to vote for said Bill. A resolution was submitted for the appointment of a committee with power to send for persons and papers to investigate the charge; which resolution passed unanimously. A bill has been introduced in the Senate, granting equity powers to Courts of Common Pleas; also bills to incorporate the Bank of Pottstown, the Tioga County Bank, and the Bank of Connestoga.

Having perfected, after many years of laborious research and experiment, two remedies which he knew, with positive certainty, were absolute specifies for nearly every internal and external malady incident to humanity, he determined at once to give them a wider publicity than any other medicine had ever attained. His motive was noble and benevolent. He felt that he possessed the power of mitigating suffering and successful war with diseases heretofore unconquerable, and like a good champion he fearle-sly entered the lists. Had he been moved by avarice instead of philanthropy he could not have taken a surer or shorter path to wealth. The plan of advertising preparations, which actually accomplished all that empiricism had ever promised or medical orthodoxy attempted, of course proved self re munerative. He flooded every nation with his advertisements, he pervaded the whole world with his medicines, and the world repaid him with a shower of gold.
