

Imports and Exports.
The United States
all other countries during the fiscal year of 1857, was $226,554,308, of which $195,791,825 were to the British dominions.
The imports, during the same period, were $195,791,825, of which $154,064,746 were from the British dominions. Our exports to France amounted to $1,535,936, and our imports $33,949,835. — Parisian.
Those political philosophers who sustained the Tariff of '32, because of a "balance of trade," against us, and who held that the Tariff of '46 would increase our balance, can look into this mirror and appreciate their own wisdom.
There never was a more striking example of plunder, injustice & tyranny, respecting the "protective Tariff," after overlooking the people for years, it is wiped out and forgotten.

Holloway's Pills.—Persons of bilious habi-tude, or who are liable to attacks of dyspepsia, should fortify their systems against the relaxing heats of Summer by a course of this mild and salutary medicine in the Spring. It not only regulates the secretions and removes the obstructions from the bowels, but braces and revitalizes the digestive powers, when weakened by indigestion, or rendered torpid by a sedentary life. The testimony of invalids of both sexes and all ages in every part of the globe, demonstrates beyond question that all internal diseases not resulting from malformation, are curable of being cured by this great remedy.

the curse of a disagreeable breath, when by the use of a "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a knows their breath is bad, and the subject is as delicate their friends will never mention it. Pour a single drop of "Balm" on your tooth brush and wash the teeth at night and morning. A fifty
