Ambrotypes, Atrephographs, Daguerreotypes

Strange things are oprising—
Man is ever desiring
Something new and surprising B. DEANS, the M introse Artist, is now V prepared to furnish, in addition to his old style of pictures, the Improved Ambrotype, and the recently invented Atrephographs.

These Ambrotypes, or glass pictures, are durable, soft and brilliant in their tone and finlah. and free from that dark leaden hue which has been the objection to pictures of this description. The Atrephograph is an unreversed likewash on paper, (entirely different from the Photographs) very susceptible of colors, and much resembles a fide painting on ivory. They are just the thing for inserting in gift books family records, &c., or for mailing to distant friends, Sky Parlor in the Brick Block, over Bentley Montrose, Dec. 17th, 1856.
