"Can you lean me two thousand dollars to establish myself in a small retail business?" inquired a young man not yet out of his ed to offer you an equal share in the stock, teens, of a middle aged gentleman, who was that it might prove better than an investment poring over a pile of ledgers in the counting in the bank.". room of one of the largest establishments in Boston. The person addressed turned toward the speaker, and regarding him for a moment with a look of surprise, inquired :: "What security can you give me Mr. Strosser ?"

"Nothing but my note," replied the young man, promptly.
"Perhaps so," the young man replied, "but Mr. Barton, remember that the boy is not the man; the time may come when Hiram Stros-of any other man." "True, ven true," said Barton mildly "but you know business men seldom loan money without adequate security-otherwise they might soon be reduced to penury !". At this remark, the young man's counte nanco became deadly pale, and having observed a silence of several moments, he inquired in a voice whose tones indicated keen disappointment: "Then you cannot accommodate me, can ou!"

"Call upon me to-morrow, and I will give all, and see if you don't buy.

"Call upon me to-morrow, and the young J. L. MERRIMAN. you's reply," said Mr. Barton, and the young man retired.

Mr. Barton resumed his labors at the desk, but his mind was so much upon the boy and the singular errand, that he could not pursue his task with any correctness-and after having made several sad blunders, he closed his ledger, took his hat, and went out upon the Erect. Arriving opposite the door of a the lloor.

. "Good morning, Mr. Hawley," said he, approsching the proprietor of the establishment who was seated at the desk, counting over the profits of the week. Good morning," replied the merchant, blandly, "happy to see you-have a seat !-'Any news ! how's trade !" Without noticing these interogations, Barton said: Young Strosser is desirous of establishing himself in a small retail business in Washington street, and called this morning to secure of me the loan of two thousand dollars for that purpose.

"Indeed!" exclaimed Hawley, evidently surprised at this announcement, " but you do not think of loaning that sum do you?" "I do not know," replied Barton, "Strosser is a young man of business talent and

"Perhaps so," replied Hawley, doubtfully: "but I am beartily tired of helping to re-es tablish those young aspirants for commercial

"Have you ever suffered any from such a course?" inquired Barton, at the same time casting a rougish glance at Hawley.

"No," replied Hawley, " for I never felt inclined to make an investment of that kind." "Then there is a fine opportunity to do so. It may prove better than the stock in the bank. As for myself I have concluded that if you will advance one thousand dollars, for such a purpose; and if you make an in- aid with special regard to the tastes and wants

Barton observed a silence of several moments and then rose to depart. "If you do not feel disposed to share with me in the enterprise I shall advance the whole sum myself." Saying which, he left the store.

Ten years have passed away since the occurrence of the conversation recorded in the preceding dialogue, and Mr. Barton, pale and agitated, is standing at the same desk as when first introduced to the reader's attention. As page after page of his ponderous ledger was examined, his despair became - deeper, till at last he exclaimed: "I am ruined-utterly ruined!"

"How so?" inquired Hiram Strosser, who entered the counting room just in season to hear Barton's remark.

"The last Experin steamor brought news of the failure of the house of Perleh, Jackson & Co., London, who are indebted to me in the sum of nearly two hundred thousand dolcould rally again; but it is impossible, my creditors are importunate, and I cannot much longer keep above the tide," replied Burton. "What is the extent of your liabilities?"

"Seventy-five thousand dollars." "Would that sum be sufficient to relieve

"It would." er, as he stepped up to the desk and drew inke this, and when you need more, do not hesitate to call upon me. Remember that it was from you I received money to establish myself in business.'

"How did you manage to keep above the tide!" inquired Hawley of Mr. Barton, one morning, several months after the events last recorded, as he met the latter upon the street on his way to his place of business.

"Very easily, indeed." replied Mr. Barton. "Well, do tell me how," continued Haw lev: "I lay claim to a good degree of shrewd ness, but the strongest exercise of my wits did save me; and yet you, whose liabilities are twice as heavy as my own, have stood the

YER'S

CATHARTIC PILLS PERATE by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, and, by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, by Professors, Physicians, and Patients, has shown cures of dangerous diseases almost beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth Their certificates are published in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named are pleased to furnish free to all inquiring.

Anaexed we give Directions for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure.

For Costiveness.—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Cos-

FOR COSTIVENESS.—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of Piles, and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Hence it should be, as it can be, promptly relieved.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, which is sometimes the cause of Costiveness, and always uncomfortable, take mild doses—from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. They will do it, and the hearthorn, bodyburn, and soulburn of dyspepsia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't forget what cured you.

For a FOUL SYOMACH, or Morbid Inaction of the Boucels, which produces general depression of the Bowels, which produces general depression of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength is restored to the system.

FOR NERVOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, NAUSEA. Pain in the Stomach, Back, or Side, take from four to eight aills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be sweet out from the system. Don't went these and their kindred disorders because your stomach is foul.

FOR SCROPULA, EUYSIPELAS, and all Diseases of the Sin take the Pills freely and frequently, to

FOR SCROPULA, ERYSIPELAS, and all Diseases of the Skin, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The eruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disappear. Many dreadful ulcers and sores have been healed up by the purging and purifying effect of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfect health. Patients! your duty to society forbids that you should parade yourself around the world covered with pimples, blotches, ulcers, sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing.

To Puhify the Bloon, they are the best medicine ever discovered. They should be taken freely and frequently, and the impurities which sow the seeds of incurable diseases will be swept out of the system like chaff before the wind. By this property they do as much good in preventing sickness as by the remarkable cures which they are making every where.

they do as much good in preventing sixeness as by the remarkable cures which they are making every where.

Liver Complaint, Jaundies, and all Bilious Affections arise from some derangement—either torpidity, congestion, or obstructions of the Liver. Torpidity and congestion vitiate the bile and render it unfit for digestion. This is diasstrous to the health, and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the symptom. Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to overflow into the blood. This produces Jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Costiveness, or alternately costiveness and diarrhea, prevails. Feverish symptoms, languor, low spirits, weariness, restlessness, and melancholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness; sometimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin and the white of the eyes become a greenish yellow; the stomach acid; the bowels sore to the touch; the whole system irritable, with a tendency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colic, bilious diarrhea, dysentery, &c. A medium dose of three or four Pills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days; will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is wicked to suffer such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents.

Rescumatism, Gout, and all Infammatory Fevers are rapidly cured by the purifying effects of these Pills upon the blood and the stimulus which they afford to the vital principle of Life. For these and all kindred complaints they should be taken in mild doses, to move the bowels gently, but freely.

As a Dinner Pill, this is both agreeable and useful. No Pill can be made more pleasant to take, and certainly none has been made more effectual to the purpose for which a dinner pill is employed.

WE would respectfully solicit your attention to our large stock of the above mentioned Goods, now in store and in course of reception. For many years the trade of one of the largest portions of 'the Empire State has been retained by a monopoly, which has at last given away before the rush of enterprise. Possessing unequalled facilities for buying, and having direct communication with the most extensive manufactories in the United States, we say, without exaggeration, that we can and will sell, either wholesale or retail, at prices lower than ever offered before west of N. York

City.
While nothing has been omitted in the Hardware line, we have given particular attention to. the House Furnishing branch of our business, and have on hand a stock well worthy of the in spection of House Keepers.

Of Fancy Goods we have also a large assortment, which, having been selected with especial reference to the wants of our customers, we hink will please those in need of articles in this In conclusion we would say that our Goods are new, and of the first quality, and that we hope, by strict attention to business, and a con-stant anticipation of the wishes of our patrons, to merit even an increase of the confidence already reposed in us.
