

Gov. Walker's Inaugural.

We give the following extract from the Address of Robt. J. Walker to the citizens of Kansas...

Our country and the world are regarding with profound interest the struggle now impending in Kansas...

upon her reproach and obloquy, and destroy her progress and prosperity; they may keep her for years out of the Union, and in the whirlwind of agitation, sweep away the government itself...

their noble compatriots, they look down with undying affection upon their Country, and offer up their fervent prayers that the Union and the Constitution may be perpetuated...

The K. N. Riots at Washington. We have lengthy reports of the late election riots at our National Capitol. It seems that a large number of the hirelings from the dens of Know Nothingism...

Decision of the State Superintendent of Common Schools. Taken from the Official Department of the Penna. Common School Journal...

was arrested and committed to answer; Judge Lecompt refusing bail. The pro-slavery men agreed with the free State men that he should be summarily dealt with...

We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. Wood, who is paying our town a visit for the purpose of giving our people a chance to see ourselves as others see us.

Is Willmot an "American"? The Philadelphia Daily Sun, an old Native American paper, advocates the election of David Willmot for Governor as a "TRUE AMERICAN."

In this district the opposition papers hoist the ticket and call it "Republican Ticket." In other counties it is called "American Republican" in others "Union American" while in Philadelphia an old "Native" paper claims him as their candidate.

A Contradiction. The following card was published in the Harrisburg Telegraph and Philadelphia Sun (Whitmot Paper) and is declared by the press to be a "straight" out American to be a forgery.

Harrisburg, June 4th, 1857. Messrs. Editors:—The Convention which met at Lancaster yesterday, to which I was a delegate from Bradford, being composed chiefly of men who considered the great question of Slavery extension of little or no account...

Another Black Republican Hobby. The recent attempt of the State authorities in Ohio, to prevent the execution of the laws of the U. S., has been made the theme for a new edition of Kansas shrikes and doleful repetitions of the "aggressions of the Slave power."

State rights are invoked by the counsel. If these rights are construed to make a substantial part of the federal authorities, they may be some-what in danger.

News Items. The "Straight" American Convention met at Lancaster on Wednesday, June 3rd. Isaac Hurlburt, Esq., of Philadelphia, was nominated by acclamation for Governor.
