GREAT BRITAIN. The steamship Leviathan was successfully floated in the Thames on Sunday, the 31st of January. Arrangements had been perfected to complete the launch on the day previous, but the prevalence of a heavy gale rendered a postponement imperative, and as Sunday proved most auspicious it was determined to proceed with the operations rather than encounter the risk which a further delay would have entailed. The final floating of the great ship was effected with great ease and no accident of any kind occurred, although the river was literally covered with boats full of Ghormatkela." Here is a prous old murderpeople, and the timbers forming the cradles which had been kept down by the weight of the vessel ascended with great force some twenty or thirty feet above the surface of the water. The scene was a brilliant one and the enthusiasm of the multitudes who witnessed the launch was manifested in loud and continued cheering.
The Leviathan was towed by four powerful tug boats to her moorings opposite Deptford, where she will remain until her internal arrangements are completed. --

The Atlantic Telegraph company had issued a call for the ordinary meeting of the there-holders on the 13th of February, and in anticipation of this meeting had published a full report of the position of the company. She had dressed for the hop at the National, and was leaving one of the parlors at Kirkwood's when by some means her dress, which was of a very light texture, caught fire. Mrs. R. screamed and ran, bringing another lady to her assistance. Happily for both, a gentleman, (Mr. J. N. Jones, of Wisconsin.) whose coolness and judgment the ladies will have reason ever to remember, rushed up and kept off the second lady, whose dress was also very combustible, threw Miss R. to the floor, and in a moment succeeded in beating and trampling out the flames. Miss Reilly is burnt about the chest and one arm, though it is hoped not seriously, and Mr. Jones suffered somewhat in one hand .-But for his prompt and judicious intervention both the ladies would have been injured, perhaps irremediably:

It may be used as a swarming of non-swarming hive, the surplus honey and comb can be removed without injuring the bees. It is very convenient for feeding bees, and prevents all danger from robbers; it is also the cheapest patent hive now in use. A hive with two sections coats $2,75, three sections $3,50, made of the best pine lumber, and can be had at all times of B. F. Willard, Elmira, N. Y., or of the understand of the surplus of the sections and contains the term to disconsist the true distinctions and contains a surplus from the true distinctions of their schools not being out until that time will be charged $5.00 tuition.

For making and using, $5, hive and right $8.

I will sell, town rights, having bought the right for the county. With every hive and right, I give a book instructing how to manage it. My hive was at our County Fair last fall and took the premium, with the bees and honey in it. I warrant every hive I sell to give satisfaction, or refund the money after fair trial.
