

The "Lenox Road Law" has been repealed, so far as it applied to the townships of Brooklyn and Gibson, in this county.

A Pair of Judicial Stricks. Last week's Bradford Reporter, printed at Lancaster, heads a long article with these ominous words, "A threatened outrage upon the rights of the people of this judicial district."

The Argus, shouts in like strain and accent. Three or four columns in these prints turn quite purple with contending emotions of fear, malice and rage.

The points are two: 1st, that Wilmont's "wicked and blood-thirsty" enemies are persecuting him, out of malice; and 2nd, that the dear people are being also persecuted, and stripped of their most sacred constitutional rights!

We will quote one specimen from Mr. Reporter. It is a blow aimed at him personally, "which it is expected to accomplish by depriving the people of their constitutional rights."

Now it is a blow aimed at the Legislature to submission, we shall wonder, at least they had better adjourn, and take breath, before they venture upon an outrage that is to create a "deadly strife" in No. 12.

This is a peculiar district—it would seem—it is an institution in itself, an empire, a very Utah, that sets up for itself, and flings defiance at the Legislature!

Why what will the smiting and sorrowing people do, if the walls of No. 12 are broken down, and her fields laid waste? We'll tell you, Mr. Argus,—all the sensible men, who think and act for themselves,—and they, in our county are a majority, however it may be in yours,—will be very glad of it, and as for the rest, their plaintive bleating may excite pity, but will not inspire much terror. They won't fight "deadly," it is their nature.

Now what is all this agony about? Simply this: Our Government charges the Legislature with the duty of directing the State, and of re-organizing those districts, as circumstances, in their judgment, may warrant. It is one of their responsible duties, in which all the tax payers of the State have an interest. Whenever they enter upon this duty, they do it upon the naked merits of the case, unswayed, and unbiassed by any man. They are neither to make or unmake a district, for the personal benefit or harm of any one man. It is low, and false to say that they act from mere personal considerations of any kind. It is not.

The Teumseh (Mich.) Herald says that the Presbyterian Church in that village, at a recent meeting, resolved to discard that absurd rule of etiquette which requires a whole slip of gentlemen to rise and file out into the broad aisle, in order to give the lady the foot of the slip.

The Teumseh (Mich.) Herald says that the Presbyterian Church in that village, at a recent meeting, resolved to discard that absurd rule of etiquette which requires a whole slip of gentlemen to rise and file out into the broad aisle, in order to give the lady the foot of the slip.

Now we shall look at this question upon its naked merits. We protest against this false insinuation of mere personal considerations. Nor will we be driven now, to discuss the merits or demerits of any man, because they are foreign to the subject.

Now we showed, last week, that many of the tax payers are positively bothered by public expenses. Many are forced to make sacrifices, and stint their families, in order to pay their taxes. In this 7 by 9 district, there are but about 16 weeks work for an unearned salary of about $2500, or $3000 for a 10 years term. If the Legislature, in these hard times, relieve us from this, and the attendant expenses, are they not doing a public duty to their constituents? And is it to be complained that they are degrading somebody, and invading private rights? What nonsense!

Suppose they were to change the lines of any other district; where is the paper that would bristle up, and charge it as a personal, and malicious attack upon somebody's rights? Such insignificant talk is peculiar to No. 12; and it takes Mr. Reporter and Argus to use it,—it wouldn't be so much as breathed in any other part of the Old Keystone.

Equally silly is the other plea, that "it prevents the people choosing their judges." Just as if changing district lines, took away from the people the right to vote! It is well we have public journals; luminaries set in the political sky, to inform the dear, ignorant people when their sovereignty is invaded, and to light them on to "deadly strife" in defence of liberty! Without this information nobody would have dreamed such a thing. Like the plaintiff in a slander suit, who blabbered out, while his attorney was portraying his wrongs to the jury, that "he never knew before, how much he was slandered."

The truth is, this district is almost a stricture, and ought never to have been made. If we are rightly informed, it was made under very peculiar circumstances, and against the better judgment of the majority then in the Legislature. It has been submitted to nearly 10 years, under the growing impression that it was wrong.

The Reporter and Argus assume that the present incumbent is in, by the over-zealous choice of the people. Now if that were true, it wouldn't alter the question,—because if the district is changed, the people can choose him if they will. He can run against Woodward in the Bradford district, and every free white citizen can vote for him if they wish, under the constitution, —or, if the chances would be better, he could compete with Conyngham in this.

But what do we know about their choice, if that did elude the question? In our county, Wm. Elwell had a majority of the delegates sent into convention,—how that was overcome, is not material to discuss here. After a while, he steps out of the office,—and surely the people endorsed his substitute, (who was an excellent man and a judge,) with uncomplaining gratitude,—and after a brief interval, re-entered it, how? Not by public acclamation, but by appointment, from Gov. Pollock. So that we do not know much about popular choice, in this matter, yet, and will not, until that question shall be tried at the polls between him and Conyngham, Woodward, or Elwell. Immortal as this is, we object to the papers at Towanda assuming that as a fact, and attempting to drag it into a question of district lines, now pending before the Legislature.

Who knew he was going to run for it in October next? Who thought of sitting at him,—or such of the dear people, as your articles may claim to have a constitutional right to vote for him only,—and for him in this district only? And yet Mr. Reporter howls many times louder, over these aggressions and outrages, than he ever did over "bleeding Kansas."

We've changed our occupation. Be still, Kansas,—your wrongs are nothing compared with ours. What is alavay, and all her woes, beside the putting Bradford into Woodward's district? What "border ruffianism" so great as that of destroying salary No. 13? What is Kansas, rapine and blood, compared with tearing poor Susquehanna from the embrace of her weeping sister, and lashing her to Conyngham's hateful district? See how our constitution is rent in twain! Won't the world pause and look on the partition scene going on in the 13th judicial district, like Poland, is divided among her "blood-thirsty" conquerors, her people subjugated, and her sceptre broken!

And when the world does so pause, and lifts its eyes upon this tearing asunder of "limb from limb," is dismembered 13, won't it shudder at the "deadly strife" that is so sure to come!

In that trying hour, no doubt, Gen. Reporter and Capt. Argus will have their bosoms in the hottest of the "strife," and win singular renown in a last struggle for the liberties of 13.

BEARING OF AN ENGINE LIBERTY IN ST. LOUIS. On the morning of the 17th inst. the engine house of the Liberty Fire Company in St. Louis, was discovered to be on fire. Members of the Company were soon on hand, but found the doors of their house so strongly barricaded on the inside, that much time and labor was consumed in effecting an entrance. When the doors were at length forced open, it was discovered that a wheel had been removed from each engine, so that they could not be pulled out. It was also discovered that the openings to all the fire-plugs in the neighborhood had been battered, so that no attachments could be made. Finally, a plug was found unfastened, on the corner of each street, and an attachment made; but the fire had made such progress, by this time, that it could not be subdued in time to prevent the destruction of the building, in which it was first discovered. The company had recently received a new and expensive engine, on which they still owe a debt of $1300. The incendiary had no fixed it, leaving unshipping one wheel and disabling the others, that it could be removed before the flames presented any further attack. The doors of the first story were strongly secured on the inside, and the incendiary made by leaping from the second-story window, by escaping on to an awning on Broadway.

The Teumseh (Mich.) Herald says that the Presbyterian Church in that village, at a recent meeting, resolved to discard that absurd rule of etiquette which requires a whole slip of gentlemen to rise and file out into the broad aisle, in order to give the lady the foot of the slip.

THE Bowels and their functions. As perfect health is the greatest blessing that we can enjoy, without which all other blessings are of little consequence, we deem it of great importance to point out the way for you to enjoy it. The bowels are the "kept in a state by which they are enabled to carry off everything that is unnecessary. And it is impossible to tell what a large amount of sickness has been caused by constipation, or costiveness, in other words, by not keeping the bowels regular. It is the main road to all diseases; the cause of unnatural irritation to the uterus, or lining membranes of the bowels. Having lost their natural strength, they cannot object to what is required of them. Hence the bowels become inflamed, and unless you find speedy relief, thousands other complaints are ever ready to drag you through a miserable and wretched life. Such medicines must be given as will loosen the stomach and bowels, and restore their natural strength, and unless you find there is no compound so valuable as Dr. Morse's Pills; all other medicines sink into utter inefficiency when compared to them; it seems as if the Author of Nature had designed them for this as well as other complaints. From 2 to 5 pills daily will increase the strength and appetite, and cleanse the stomach and intestines from whatever is injurious.
