JOHN YOUNG, Sheriff.

Sheriff Office, Montrose, March 8, 1858. A First Class Literary Wookly Paper,

THE "NEW YORK EXCELSIOR,"

IS a first class family Journal, beautifully li-lustrated, of the largest size—eight pages or forty columns, imperial quarto, and is devoted to literature, News, Morals, and General Miscellany. The editorial department will be under the immediate charge of Alexander D. Manson, who is widely known to the public as having been connected with several of the most popular journals of the day.

Although giving a handsome present to each subscriber, intending to subpass all in our liberality, we are determined that the "Excelsior" shall not resemble those journals usually known as "gift papers," in any particular. Its contents shall be suitable for Home, as our aim is to secure it a welcome in every family. We shall fill our columns weekly with thirling and interesting tales, romances of real life, and sketches of travels, men of character, besides a full digest of the news of the week, and all events of general inferest.

One of the following named presents is sent free of postage to each subscriber immediately on receipt of the subscription money.
