

An Eloquent Passage. We make the following extract from the able and eloquent defence of the Supreme Court of the United States, by Senator Benjamin, of Louisiana, on the 11th of March, in reply to Senators Seward and Hamlin, who had spoken disparagingly of the Court in general, and Chief Justice Taney in particular, as also of President Sumner.

Montrose Democrat. A. J. GERRITSON, Editor. MONTROSE, PA. Thursday, April 15, 1859. DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS. SUPREME JUDGE: WILLIAM A. PORTER, PHILADELPHIA. CANAL COMMISSIONER: WESTLEY FROST, FAYETTE. Special Notice. ALL persons indebted to the late firm of McCollum & Gerritson are hereby forbidden to settle with J. B. McCollum, or any person in whose hands he may place the accounts. Said accounts have not yet been assigned to him, in consequence of his having refused to render values for them as agreed upon before the firm was dissolved; and collections which he may make will be fraudulent, and his receipts void, until further notice be given.

Another "New Party." The opposition to the Democracy in this State, not content with their past experience in getting up new parties and having them wiped out of existence by the votes of the people, are making an effort to get up another new party to enter the field with next fall. To this end the Fremont faction is embracing the Fillmore wing—or rather tail—of the opposition, (which the Republican last fall designated as a venomous serpent) and when united they are to abandon the doctrine of the power of Congress over the territories, and endeavor to swallow a corner of the Cincinnati platform, hoping, by so doing to seduce a few weak minded Democrats into the support of their mongrel organization.

Letter to Judge Wilcox. TOWANDA, March 4, 1858. Hon. D. WILCOX: Sir—I received, late last evening, a printed communication from you, asking for "information, in writing, of those specific matters or things of which I complain in your official conduct."

Letter to Judge Wilcox. Troy, March 6th, 1858. Hon. D. WILCOX: Sir—I received a printed circular signed by you and addressed to myself, which was received yesterday's mail. In it you ask me to "give you information in writing of those specific matters and things of which I complain in your official conduct."

Letter to Judge Wilcox. Troy, March 6th, 1858. Hon. D. WILCOX: Sir—I received a printed circular signed by you and addressed to myself, which was received yesterday's mail. In it you ask me to "give you information in writing of those specific matters and things of which I complain in your official conduct."

Letter to Judge Wilcox. Troy, March 6th, 1858. Hon. D. WILCOX: Sir—I received a printed circular signed by you and addressed to myself, which was received yesterday's mail. In it you ask me to "give you information in writing of those specific matters and things of which I complain in your official conduct."

THE ARMY BILL REPEALED.—The bill providing for raising one regiment of Volunteers for the protection of the frontier of Utah and two regiments for service in the Utah expedition, was signed by the President on Thursday. The Deficiency Appropriation bill passed, it is said that the President would have immediately accepted one regiment from Ohio and another probably from Kentucky.

THE BODY OF A WOMAN IN A CASE.—The New York papers say that on Friday morning, 2d inst., one of the freight agents of the Hudson River Railroad discovered in the key-cask the remains of a woman about thirty-five years of age. The case had been placed on the cars west of Niagara Falls and brought to New York city via the Central and Hudson River Railroad.

THE WOMAN IN THE WHISKEY CASE.—The Detroit Free Press says that, on examination of the freight books of the Michigan Central Railroad, in that city, Mr. James Donnelly, the agent, found that the barrel, which was marked "W. B. Jennings, No. 185 Leonard street, New York," crossed the river at Detroit on the 18th of March.

LETTERS FROM THE LIVING AGE.—The first number of a new series of this old and familiar periodical appeared last Saturday. Heretofore each weekly number consisted of sixty-four pages, but it will henceforth contain eighty.

LETTERS FROM THE LIVING AGE.—The first number of a new series of this old and familiar periodical appeared last Saturday. Heretofore each weekly number consisted of sixty-four pages, but it will henceforth contain eighty.

LETTERS FROM THE LIVING AGE.—The first number of a new series of this old and familiar periodical appeared last Saturday. Heretofore each weekly number consisted of sixty-four pages, but it will henceforth contain eighty.

LETTERS FROM THE LIVING AGE.—The first number of a new series of this old and familiar periodical appeared last Saturday. Heretofore each weekly number consisted of sixty-four pages, but it will henceforth contain eighty.