INJUNCTION ASKED FOR .--- An injunction has been asked for to restrain the Sunbury and Erie Railroad Company from selling the North Branch Canal to the Company of which Col. Welles is President. The ground on which this injunction is asked, is, that another partyare willing to pay $500,000 more for the Canals than the Welles party, and as 75 per cent, of the bonus is to revert to the Commonwealth, it would make a difference to the Commonwealth of $375,000.

ELECTION IN NEW HAVEN .- The Demo cratic majority in New Haven for Mayor is over 500! This is a bad show for the "Fusionists." It looks very like a returniof "first principles" and slight. disgust with "American-Republicanism" in Connection, how important that no diseased matter clog its This, we believe, is the largest majority ever given in New Haven for a Democratic Mayor.

Oxygenated Bitters .- An eminent physician pronounces this medicine a specific for Dyspepsia in sil its forms. When taken according to directions, it gives immediate reliet, and, in most cases, effects a permanent cure.

her safety, we may not know; but while they continue to ring in the cars of that devoted com. panion as long they must, bringing the terrible "Normal scene vividly before her, they will also serve to Board pr. week, convey sweet memories of that tender solicitude and wealth of affection which he ever manifested toward her during a union of so many years.-Never was a husband better beloved by a wife. or a father more reverenced and almost adored by his children, and we know that we speak the language of many hearts, beside the crushed and bleeding ones of that broken family circle, when we say that he was well worthy the heart's purest and warmest regards, and that he gave a full return for all the kindness and love bestowed upou him.

The subject of this notice was born near Manchester, England, in April, 1787. He was con-verted in carly life, and entered the ministry in the Methodist connection before he attained hi 21st year. He emigrated to this country in 1819, united with the Presbyterian church in 1835, and joined the Montrose Presbytery during the same year. Truly a father in Israel has tallen. Looking from our low stand-point of observation, and judging with our weak judg-ment, it would seem that one who had served his Master so long and so faithfully was worthy to lie calmly down to die, and breathe his life out sweetly in the arms of his friends. But higher wisdom chose a different way. Time has many deep mysteries, but eternity will unfold and explain them all; and show us why God so deals with his loved ones. Happy for us if we can feel here, as we shall surely know hereafter, that "Though dark the cloud and fierce the storm, He doeth all things well."

The grief-stricken family have the earnes sympathy of a large circle of friends. Words cannot express it, but there are hearts that can feel. May God shield and bless the widow and the fatherless. W. B. D.
