By the last nights mail from the West, letters were received giving an account of the violent death of James McFarland, the circus performer, recently attached to Spalding & Rogers' Circus Company, now traveling in Western Missouri, at the hands of a Mr. Roberts, a landlord of a hold in Liberty, Mo. The following are the particulars : It appears that on reaching the town, on the 27th of May, the deceased determined, at all hazards, to see h s wife, who had been divorced from him, and who was now travelling with a rival company. So he proceeded to the hotel, examined the register, and asked the landlord to be conducted to the room of his wife, as he wished to see her. To this request the landlord refused permission. He then made a movement to proceed up stails unaccompanied, when the Lindord, armed gaged in the pursuit, while Messrs. Marrick ward in a threatening attitude to dispute the passage. Hard words then cusued, and drawing their manners their manners their manners. Up with a bowie knife, immediately sepped fordrawing their weapons simultaneously, a man had arrived to look after the propdespara e fight occured. INATIENTION OF POSTMASTERS.—Complaints eccei nally reach us that postmisters in the country are in the habit of permitting newspapers to be taken from their offices by perons not entitled to them. It appears to be the practice with some to open the packages: and throw the papers out upon their counters; where they can be picked up by any one who chooses to do so, and are often worn out wi h careless handling or carried off entirely befire the sub-cribers, to whom they rightfully belong call for them. ONE PRICE to all persons for the same article, and it shall be our endeavor to make those prices such as will induce persons who wish to pay for their own Goods and not others, to call at least and examine our stock, and if the prices don't come down to the system, we cannot expect to sell them. Some kind thend may say that it will be-'no go," but we think from the experience of the past few months of every person who happened to owe the country merchants, especially if it had been standing six months or more, with what coaxing, duming, threats, &c., they have been beset, we think they will all respond to the above system and resolve to buy no more goods than they can pay for, and that they are determined to support those who will establish that principle and carry it out. We will let the system established stand upon its own merits, believing that it is the most prudent and wise course to be pursued in every branch of business, and that the day is not far distant when it will be GENERALLY adopted.
