An exchange gives the following sketch of this blood-stained monster of crime: In early life he had a difficulty with

Capt. T. W. Gibson, which resulted in a challenge, but for some reason they did, not fight. He next comes in collision with a liquor seller named Smith, and stabs him so that his life was for some, time despaired of. The stabbing was done at night. A short time afterwards he attacks the Hon. Jas. H. Crayons at night, strikes him in the face, and then runs off to a place of safety. He next attacks and strikes a lawyer named Vail, a non-combatant. His next difficulty is with non-combatant. His next difficulty is with a batchied, are successfully administered in this country that the mith a next difficulty and all others. They are also as an immediate the other with a cane. They are separated. and go to Petersburg. Kv., to fight a duel. As usual something turned up to stop the as the very best family medicine in existence affair before any blood was shed. He goes to If given to children suffering from choice, from Mexico and while there has a difficulty with constipution, worms, or any disorder of the Gen. Joe Lane, in which guns and pistols are stomach or bowels, they invariably afford imme shown but not used. He returns home pershown but not used. He returns home, persecutes the lawyer Vail, and again attacks ered everywhere a domestic staple, for sickness, him, this time with an iron poker. Vail draws a pistol, presents it at Lane's breast, are always on hand. but not having been properly loaded, it misses fire, and Lane's life is saved. He goes to Congress, attempts to brow-beat Hunt of Congress, attempts to brow-beat Hunt of Louisiana, who promptly challenges him, the matter, however, as usual, was amighbly adjusted. He goes to Kansas, where he has underside of plate. Also, two did School Houses several difficulties, ending with his recent to sell—one near S. T. Scott's, and the other murder of a friend and his own Adjutant near George Frink's. THOMAS JOHNSON, General. His political exteer and moral character would form a chapter about on a par with the above. - Exchange.

AN INDIAN LOVER .- Miss Bishop, who went to Minnesota as a teacher, received an offer of marriage from an Indian. -He came to her dwelling decked in all his fineryscarlet flannel, rings, feathers, newly scoured brass ornaments, and bear's claws, and, through an intepreter announced to her that she must be his wife. It was urged that he had one headed "Helmbold's Genuine Preparation." [m] wife. He replied: "All the band have as many as they can keep, and I have but one." As an extraordinary inducement he promised that she could have the best corner in the for the cure of Rheumatism, Dysentery, Pains of lodge, hunt by his side, and eat with him, while the dark sound was to hush the papoose. cook the food, carry the game, hoe the corn, and provide wood and water. Miss Bishop, a little in fear of the "green eyed monster," even if the other claimant did hold an inferior position, declined the distinction. The for students during the coming term of the Nor-Indian then begged a dollar to buy a shirt, mal school, and those who have vacant rooms and left with a haughty air. R. R. R. Alarming Signs of a Sickly Summer.

THE Summer and Fall of 1858 will be marked in the records of time as the most sickly and unbealthy of seasons that have visited the northern portion of this Continent for many years. Malarious diseases, in their most malignant and violent forms, will prevail as epidemies in sec tions of our country that have been deluged by the late overflowing of rivers creeks and bayons and drenched by the recent fleavy rains. YELLOW FEVER, TYPHIOD FEVER, BILIOUS FE-

VER, FEVER AND AGUE, CONGESTIVE FEVER, INTERMITTENT AND REMITTENT FEVERS, CHOLE-RA, FLUX DYSERTERIES, SUDDEN ATTACKS OF VOMITING will rage with violence in the vicinity of low, marshy lands, and where the deluge-of waters and drenchings of rains have been suffi-ciently violent to produce miasma from decom-position of Vegetable or other decomposed matter. In our Southern and Western States we may therefore expect the prevalence as epidemic. above named forms; and in order that the Pubway's Ready Relief you have the preventive. THIS ESTABLISHMENT has been greatly enlarged and improved during the spring, and is now ready for the reception of Patients. Few similar institutions in this country com bine so many advantages for the successful treatment of Invalids. The location is beautiful, the house new and commodious, the rooms large, airy, well furnished and every way arranged with a view to the health and comfort of the occupants. The Physicians, Dr. Thayer and wife, have had twelve years experience (the last eight at Binghamton)in treating diseases Hydropathicall during which time they have treated successfully housands of sick persons, many after their diseases have been pronounced fatal, by eminent Physicians. In addition to their patients at the cure" they have a large practice in the village and surrounding country, which makes them fa-miliar with the treatment of diseases of every grade and character. They planned, built, and own the "Binghamton Water-Cure," consequently it is under their entire control and management. In all those diseases to which the peculiar adaptation of Hydropathic treatment has been successfully demonstrated, they will generally guarantee a speedy and perfect restoration.—
Such are the following, viz.—Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Nervous diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Spinal complaints, Tumors, Ulcers, enlargement of Joints, diseases of the Throat and Lungs Dropsy, Ague and Fever, Female complaints o every kind, Skin diseases, Catarrh, &c. &c. Persons who have been long sick or bed-ridden and who have not succeeded heretofore in their efforts to regain their health, are especially invi-ted to consult ur or give us a call. Terms from $5 to $10 per week.

Dr. Thayer will be at Scarle's Hotel in Montrose, on Thursday, August 5th, where any Invalids who desire, may consult him. For further particulars, address my20td] O. V. THAYER, M. D. mv20td1
