nestion to another. \ \
These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows loss of power, fatuity and epileptic fits—in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases—insanity and consumption? The records of the insane asylums, and the melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In lunatic asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden & uite destitute-eneither mirth or grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate. "With woeful measures wan despair
