Mousensical.

There is much good sense in nonsense.

A YANKEE IN THE SMITH FAMILY .- Well I put up with a first-rate, good-natured fellow, that I met at the billiard table. I went in and was introduced to his wife, a fine, fat woman-looking as though she lived on laffin her face was so full of fun. After a while-after we'd talked about my girl, and about the garden, and about the weather, in come three or four children, laffin and skip-ping as merry as crickets. There was no candle lit, but I could see that they were fine looking fellows, and I started for my saddle-bags,in which I had put a lot of sugar candy for the children as I went along.

"Come here, said I, you little rogue, come here and tell me what your name is.' The oldest came to me and says, 'My name is Peter Smith.' 'And what's your name, sir ! Bob Smith. The next said his name was Bill Smith, and the fourth said his name was Tommy Smith. I gave 'em sugar candy, and old Mrs. Smith was so tickled that she laughed all the time. Mr. Smith looked on, but didn't say much. 'Why,' says I, 'Mrs. Smith, I would not take a good deal for them four boys, if I had 'em.' 'No,'-said she them four boys, if I had 'em.' 'No,'-said sue laffin, 'I set a good deal on 'em, but we spoil 'em too much.' 'No, no,' says I, 'they're well-behaved children; and by gracious,'says well-behaved children; and by gracious,'says unlimited—Review at pleasure—Graduates assisted to obtain situations—Tuition for full Comsisted to obtain situations—Tuition full Comsisted to obtain situations—Tuition for full Comsisted and I looked at Mr. Smith. I never did see anything equal it, says I, 'your own eyes, mouth, fore head, and perfect picture of hair, sir, tapping the oldest on the pate. I thought Mrs. Smith would have died laffin at that, her arms fell down by her side, and she shook the whole house laffin'. 'Do you think so, Colonel Jones,' said she, looking towards Mr. Smith, and I thought she'd go off in a fit. 'Yes,' says I, 'I do really." 'Haw, baw, baw!' shouted Mr. Smith, kind o' half laffin', 'you are too hard on me just now with your jokes.' I sin't jokin' at all, says I, they are handsome children and look wonderfully like you.' Just then a gal brought a light in, and I'll be darn'd if the little brats didn't turn out to be niggers, every one of 'em! and their heads were curled all over! Mr. and Mrs. Smith never had any children, and they sort o' petted them niggers as playthings. I never felt so streaked as I did hadn't kissed the nasty things, I could a got over it; but kissing 'em showed I was in

Five sequins,' replied the costomer, 'wa the price, and considering the quality it is not at all dear.'

The tailor paused a moment. I am a beginner in the trade,' said he to the spice dealer, at length, 'and money is an - ! object to me. Give me two sequins and I will show you how you may save threein this "I agree," said the other, and the money was produced and paid. "It is well !" said the man of the needle "I am a person of my word. This cloth has cost five sequine- and I have promised to save you three. Take it to some other tailor, and Allah direct you to one of more experience-for I have never made such a drees as you want, and if I attempt it, it would be spoiled."

"What do you mean, you little rascal?" said an individual to an impudent youth, who had seized him by the nose in the street. 'Oh, nothing,' only I am going to seek my fortune, and father told me to be sure to seize hold of the first thing that turned up."

The citizens of Milwaukis are the most lawabiding people in the world. One of them, when asked why so many people were drowned in their river, replied that it was on account of an ordinance of the city which forbids swimming within the city limits. When one of them slipped in, he recalled the ordinance at once, and rather than violate it went cheerfully to the bottom without a backwoodsman. "Why. I was going to mill, to be sure," replied Jonathan.

Well, I wished I'd seen you, I'd got you to carry a grist for me." "Why, you did see me, didn't you?"

"Yes, but not until you had got clean out 3000 Pocket Knives.

HAMMONTON LANDS.

NEW ENGLAND SETTLEMENT. RARE opportunity to all wanting farms—in a healthy place, twenty five miles from Philadelphia, on the Camden and Atlantic railroad, THE undersigned would announce to their customers, friends, and the public generally that they have just returned from the city and are receiving and opening a new and complete assortment of production of fruits, grains, &c. The price is $15 to $20 per acre, payable in easy quarter yearly instalments, within a term of four years, with interest, The terms are made easy, in order to insure the rapid improvement of the land by enabling every industrious man to buy a farm It is now being extensively improved by good roads, and some of the best citizens from New England and the Middle States are creeting large improvements. It is a scene of the greatest in provement out of Philadelphia. Seventy-five houses have been built in four months. Practi-cal furmers and business men from the length and breadth of the Union are settling there. is an important business place, on account of its being in the midst of a great market. It abounds largely in the phosphates, and such is its fertility tha from the crops produced both upon this land and the large area adjoining under cultivation, it will be found not to be excelled anywhere the production of crops most adapted to its mai

The reader may be well aware that the earli est and the best fruits and vegetables come from being accessible in every way for fertilizers, has an abundant supply of the best quality of muck

Lumber and building materials can be had or tho spot at a cheap price, from the mills. Other mills are now being opened, and brickyards being started upon the ground. A person can put up a frame tenement for present convenience for one hundred dollars. On account of the extensive emigration, this is the best course to pursue in order to get a place to live in at first. Car penters and builders are on hand to put up hous es on the best terms.

In settling here the emigrant has many advan tages. He is within a few hours' ride of the great cities in the Middle States and New England; he is near his old friends and associations; he is in a settled country, where every improve-ment and comfort of civilization is at hand; he is in a healthy place, and is not subject to the certainty of losing the greater part of his family and his own health by those malignant fevers which make the graves of so many millions of the young and hardy in far off regions away from home and friends. Besides, he has a mild elimate and an open winter.

There are three trains daily to Philadelphla and to those who improve the railroad compan gives a free ticket. The reader will at once be struck with the ac vantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before.-The reason is, it was never thrown in the mar ket; and unless these statements were correct no one would be invited to examine the land be fore purchasing. This all are expected to do.— They will see the land under cultivation; they will meet persons, no doubt, from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improve-ments, and can judge of the character of the pop-ulation. Persons should come prepared to purchase, as many are locating, and locations ar not held on refusal

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly Literary and Agricultural sheet, containing full informa tion of Hammonton, will be sent to each inquir cr. and can be obtained at 25 cts. per annum.

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED!!!

It cures nervous and debilitated sufferers, and removes all the symptoms, among which will be found indisposition to exertion, loss of power, loss of memory, difficulty of breathing, general weakness, horror of disease, weak nerves, trembling, dreadful horror of death, night sweats, cold feet, wakefulness, dimness of vision, languor, paiversal lassitude of the muscular system, often enormous appetite, with dyspeptic symptoms, hot hands, flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, pallid countenance and eruptions on the face, pain in the back, heaviness of the eyelids, frequently black spots flying before the eyes, with a temporary suffusion and loss of sight; want of attention great mobility, reatlessness, with horror of society.

Nothing is more desirable to such patients than solitude, and nothing they more dread for fear of thomselves; no repose of manner-no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows loss of power, fatuity and epileptic fits—in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases—insanity and consump-tion? The records of the insane asylums, and the melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In lunatic asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden & quite destitute—neither mirth or grief ever vis-its it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is
