NEW ENGLAND SETTLEMENT. RARE opportunity to all wanting farms—in a feetly pleasant is healthy place, twenty-five miles from Phila ato in its action delphia, on the Camden and Atlantic railroad. New Jersey. An old estate has recently been opened for sale, and the first division of 10,000 opened for sale, and the first division of 10,000 acres divided up into farms of twenty acres and upwards. The soil is of the best quality for the production of fruits, grains, &c. The price is $15 to $20 per acre, payable in easy quarter yearly instalments, within a term of four years, with interest. The terms are made easy, in order to insure the rapid improvement of the land, medicine ever injured a patient and the testimony der to insure the rapid improvement of the land, and the medicine ever injured a patient and the testimony der to insure the rapid improvement of the land, by enabling every industrious man to buy a farm.
It is now being extensively improved by good roads, and some of the best citizens from New England and the Middle States are erecting large improvements. It is a scene of the greatest im provement out of Philadelphia. Seventy-five houses have been built in four months. Practi-cal furmers and business men from the length and breadth of the Union are settling there. is an important business place, on account of its being in the midst of a great market. Every ar-ticle raised upon this land finds an immediate sale. The water is excellent and no such thing as fever is known.

The soil is a sandy or clay loam, with a clay bottom and retentive of manures. It is free of stones and easily worked. It abounds largely in the phosphates, and such is its fertility that from the crops produced both upon this land and the large area adjoining under cultivation, it will be found not to be excelled anywhere in the production of crops most adapted to its mar-The reader may be well aware that the early sold by Nothing is more desirable to such patients than solitude, and nothing they more dread for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no carnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to snother.

question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows loss of power, fatuity and epileptic fits—in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases—insanity and consumption. tion? The records of the insane saylums, and the melancholy deaths by consumption bear amlunatic asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears.
