Advice to Lawyers. Whene'er you speak, remember every canse. Stands not on eloquence, but stands on laws-Pregnant in matter, in expression brief, Lot every sentence stand in bold relief; On trifling points, nor time, nor talents waste, A sed offence to learning and to taste; Nor deal with pompous phrase; nor e resuppo Loose declomation may doceive the crowd, And seem more striking as it grows more loud; But sober sense rejects it with disdain, And nought but empty noise, and weak as vain. The froth of words, the school-boy's vain parade Of books and cases—all his stock in trade-The pert conceits, the cunning tricks and play Of low attorneys, strong in long array, Th' unseemly jest, the petulant reply, That chatters on, and cares not how nor why. Studious avoid unworthy themes to scan, They sink the speaker and disgrace the man, Like the false lights by dying shaddows cast, Scarce seen when present, and forgot when past Begin with dignity; expound with grace Each round of reasining in its time and place; Let order reign throughout—each topic touch, Nor urge its powers too little, nor too much;

In diction elear, and yet severely true, And, as the arguments in splendor grow, Let each reflect its light on all below. When to the close arrived, make no delay, By pretty flourishes, or verbal plays, But sum the whole in one deep, solemn strain, Like a strong current hastening to the main.

Give each strong thought its most attractive view,

INDIAN MASSACRES - The accounts of Indian massacres in Texas appear to multiply. A letter to the Galveston News, from Fort Graham, dated October 30th, says: "I learn that the gentleman who carries the mail from Meridian to Pecau Byron, brought to Meridian yesterday a Camanche scalp that he had killed the day before. The mail rider says there all goods suitable for mourning. were three families murdered by the Camanche Indians, a few days ago, in Camanche or Erath county, and one other family missing. either killed or ran away to escape from the Iudians. I also learn from a gentleman just from Fort Belknap, that a man was killed the other day a few miles below Belknap. About two hundred head of horses have been stolen the last few days, in the vicinity of Fort Belknap by the Indians. A hard coun-has passed a resolution, by a vote of 26 to style or price. 22, declaring the election of Messrs. Bright and Fitch to the U.S Senate, to be illegal, unconstitutional and roid. The same resolution is pending in the House.

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED!!!

It cures nervous and debilitated sufferers, and removes all the symptoms, among which will be found indignation to exertion loss of nover less found indignation to exertion loss of nover less.

found indisposition to exertion, loss of power, loss of memory, difficulty of breathing, general weakness, horror of disease, seak nerves frembling, dreadful horror of death, night sweats, cold feet, wakefulness, dimness of vision, languor universal-lassitude of the muscular system, often enormous appetite, with dyspeptic symptoms, not hands, flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, pallid countenance and cruptions on the face pain in the back, heaviness of the eyelids, frequently block spots flying before the eyes, with a temporary sufusion and loss of sight; want of attention, great mobility, reatlessness, with horror of society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than solitude and nothing they more dread for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no exprestuess, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removed—soon follows loss of power, fatuity and epileptic fits-in one sisted to obtain situations—Tuition for full Com-mercial Course, $35,00—Average time 8 to 12 that these excesses are not frequently followed weeks—Board, $2,50 per week—Stationery, by those direful diseases—insanity and consump-$6,00—Entire cost, $60,00 to $70,00.

tion? The records of the insane asyluma, and tion? The records of the insune asyluma, and the melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In unatic asylums the most melancholy exhibition ppears. The countenance is actually sodden & quite destitute-neither mirth or grief ever visis it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate. "With woeful measures wan despair Low sullen sounds his grief beguiled." Debility is the most terrible! and has fought thousands to un imely graves, thus blasting the ambition of many noble youths. It can be cured
