All around the lots-Lived the slickest gal you ever Saw in your life; Ankle like a blue beach lever. Voice like a fife.

As I sat by her a courtin', Calm and serenc-With her apron she was sportin', Mingled was our hush together;

All day we sat, A chawin' gum in winter weather, Happy as ful.

Long I stuck to her like mud. Summer and fall; But she went off with a "blood,"

Ankle and all. Flatfooted Courtship.

One long summer afternoon there came to Mr. Davidson's the most curious specimen of an old bachelor the world ever heard of He was old, gray, wrinkled and odd. He hated women, especially old maids, and wasn't afraid to say so. He and Aunt Patty had it hot and heavy, whenever chance threw them together; yet still be came, and it was noticed that Aunt Patty took unusual pains with her dress whenever he was expected. One day the contest waged unusually strong, Aunt Patty left him in disgust, and went out into the garden. "The bear !" she mut tered to herself, as she stooped to gather s blossom which attracted her attention. "What did you run away for I" said a gruff voice close to her side. To get rid of you." " You didn't do it, did you!" "No; you are worse than a burdock bur."

"You wont get rid of me, neither." "I wond eh !" " Only in one way." " And that ?"

"Marry me!" What, us two fools get married! What will people sav !" "That's nothing to ut. Come, say yes or no. I'm in a hurry." " Well, no, then."

"Very well, good-bye. I shant come again "Stop a bit-what a pucker to be in." "Yes or no?" "I must consult-

"All right; I thought you of age. Good-bye." "Jabez Andrews don't be a fool. Come back, come back, I say. Why, I believe the critter has taken me to be in earnest. Jabez Andrews I'll consider-"I don't want no considering. I'm gone: Becky Hastings is waiting for me. I though

TOTHE PUBLIC. SOME Merchants publish a few low prices, or the price of a few low priced articles, na an inducement to persons to make their purchases of them, under the presumption that everything is equally low. Without taking space in the public papers to enumerate prices, I wish it distinctly understood, that I will sell Guods as low for the quality as they can be bought in any other Store in this place or county. Baits and Hooks not used. Purchasers will generally find good qualities of Articles at Turrell's, and in Drugs. Medicines, Paints, Oils, and Die Stuff, the very best, and the assortments full. The Fancy Goods Department is also extensive. Also, choice Family Groceries, Crockery, Wall Paper, Jewelry, Perfumery, &c. In short nearly everything usually kept in country stores. As I deal in many departments of trade, and have more Articles than I can well enumerate in the an inducement to persons to make their purchases more Articles than I can well enumerate in the limits of a Newspaper, I shall not attempt it neither will it be necessary, under these circumstances, to fill a column with useless repetitions and blanks. It cures nervous and debilitated, sufferers, and removes all the symptoms, among which will be found indisposition to exertion, loss of power loss of memory, difficulty of breathing, general weakness, horror of disease, weak nerves, trembling, dreadful horror of death, night sweats, cold feet, wakefulness dimness of vision, languor universal lansitude of the muscular system, often enormous appetite, with dyspeptic symptoms, hot hands, flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, pailed countenance and eruptions on the face pain in the back, heavings of the eyelids, frequently black spots flying before the eyes. With a temporary suf usion and loss of sight; want of attention, great mobility, restlessness, with horror of society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than solitude and nothing they more dread for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no exmestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to mother.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on-which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows unlimited—Review at pleasure—Graduates. as loss of power, fatuity and epileptic fits—in one sixted to obtain situations—Tultion for full Commercial Course, $35,00—Average time 8 to 12 that these excesses are not frequently followed works. the melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In lunatic asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden & quite destitute-neither mirth or grief ever vists it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woefal measures wan despair Low sullen sounds his grief beguiled." Debility is the most terrible! and has brought thousands to untimely graves, thus blasting the ambition of many noble youths. It can be cured
