Hollowny's Pilis If we would deetroy a paisoness plant, we actack the roots, not the leaves and blassoms. The operation of Holloway's Pills proceeds upon the same principla. The cadaverous complexion, suaken eye, and stooping frame, are simply indications that the litternal organs are not doing their duty. If the skin is suffused with bile, and the breath of. force of there are obstructions in the liver. If the lond, edger sating, seems to lie like lead on the fit of the stomach, and is turned into foul gasses instead of wholesome pabulum, the organs of digestion are diseased. Upon these distempered viscers the Pills act as a powerful like the property of the same of the alterative. They purge mildly, and at the same time regulate and purify the accretions and the blood. Need we say that the inevitable conseruonce is a thorough sute?
