[Not room for the poetry.]

At Mazon, Grandy county, Ill., Sept 1st, 1858,
Bro. WILLIAM ROSS, in the 64th year of his

Penu, in the year 1794, and was converted and joined the M. E. Church in the twentieth year of his age, and was a consistent and worthy member until he was removed to the church triumphant. He emigrated to Illinois in the year 1845, and settled near Mazon, where he joined the church of his choice. For the last few years of his life he was a worthy and efficient steward of the same. The disease of which he died was protracted, yet he was patient and resigned to the will of the Lord. When asked if he should not like to get well, he said that if it was the will of God he should like to be spared a little longer, that he might have an op-portunity of farther psefulness in the church, but all his desires were expressed in submission to the Divine will. As he drew near his last to the Divine will. As he drew near his last his sufferings were great, but through grare he was enabled to bear them patiently, and in his last moments to shout the high praises of God, and die with "Glory" on his tips. In the death of Bro. Ross the church has lost a worthy and efficient steward, and his companion a kind husband: but one loss is his eternal gain. On the day of interpent the writer preached to a large congregation at the Mazon church, from Philippians I, 21, after which his remains were converted to their final resting place. To sweet the veyed to their final, rosting place, to await the morning of the resultrection. Thomas Watson, Mazon, October 29th, 1858.

1859. J. DIC KERMAN, JR. 1868 HARDWARE And Stobe Emporium IN FULL BLAST.

THE undersigned would take this opports. nity to inform his friends and customers. that he has recently made large additions to his ormer extensive stock of

Hardware, Stoves, Stove Pipe, Stove Trimmings, Zinc, &c., and that he is prepared to supply the wants of the community in that, line at unusually low prices. He flatters himself that his facilities for manufacturing his own Wares, Stoves, &c., give him a decided advantage over any who purchase and transport at a heavy expense their entire stock.

He would say to those who wish to purchase STOVES of any description, STOVE PIPE, or TRIMMINGS, of any kind, and pay for them, he s prepared to give them great bargains; but to hose who want to purchase on a year's credit and then let it run two years more, he had rather they would call on some one else, even if they have to may seventy-five per cent more than an article is worth.
