

A. J. GERRITSON, PUBLISHER.

Strange Story.

MONTROSE, PA, JANUARY 20, 1859.

VOLUME XVI, NUMBER 3.

Miscellancous.

Mistakes of a Night. The Cincinnati Enginer relates a very it embark for England, but being prevented newly donned hymerial vesments, came be-deli ious period known as the honeymoon, and placed themselves under the charge of the proprietor of the Spencer House. They

They were gone several hours and did not re-the office of commissary of police, he jumped is shown with the landlord's wife.' In utter anazement, his clerical friend through a window, took to flight, and at-wanted to know what he meant. His B then the bride, he bride, the price of commit solcide by leaving into the meant. Mis. R., then found that the like Torgotten down stairs, and went up to Fourth street to day he was brought to trial before the court of transacting some private business, and without a pitot, would be gui a a cert in death. get the diminative bundle. She was success assizes of the department, on the charge of especially to attend to the annual examines. The trait is some sourced, tree marks are biland the Massison for the Spencer House, which are 51 unted nearly opposite to each of her, attreast connet, and other port at which he was going, the 's ranger drove on | landloid's wife, etc. of the bed to enjoy a lit le nap after hier long "to Nemours, and after the shepherd had pare." The grave body of ministers were struck was distanted by a most unexpected incident. the head with the built end of the pistol. The [1 d d the deed! I never lie !! The rightaut occupant of No. 4d, a mer- shepherd tole bothed in blood, and his asse if to the thearen and become a light is oxies. the wood. The man then examined the shep- ation : to see his condition, whiled up to his room fired his pistol again at him, wounded him ever, connected with the affair, I did nor without a fight, and firmately found the again, and then left-lim. The shepherd re- name to the bother. It may not have much to be who in pear the wall in the reast the fair wounds. The traved to the theatest farm home, and had his wounds dressed. The pear of the statest there shill be search after the assignments the full inthe difficult of the statest of the statest all neconomous of the other's prisence, is not only in finding who he was. They leatned an inconstant of the other spice is not in this a man whose appearance corresponded when a tremendous noise was heard in their exactly with the description which the shep apa thent from which female screens issued, herd gave of him, had, a few hours after the willly, prevengly and in reasingly.

Spearer.

The lotel was is an up or r-proprietors. Chatcan Landon, with a flock of two hundred towns in the interior of the State, and knowchers, watters, in rers and gniest- dressed [and fif y sheep, and there placed them ander i highe would have considerable walking over and have insiderable walking over and have insiderable walking over and have insiderable walking over a she have at the door of "48" in the care of one L-jenne, shepherd of Pesty, moddy roads, he took with him a pair of

Sleeping with the Landlord's An account, it may be remembered, was gived in September of a very unious affair An account, it may be remembered, was gived in September of a very curious affair We give the annexed incident in regard Childe Hurdd, but Harold's muleteer," baid thaving occured at Calais A young man of to Key. 'Zeb Twitchel, a Methodist Clergy- travel the snow mountains of California, or he gentlemanly appearance arrived in that town man in full and regular standing, and member of the Vermont conference The Cincinnati English a very 10 embals for English d, but being i revented i member of the vermont conference: configute event which likely happened to a from doing so from want of a paspert, spent interviewer and a so from a drift. There are times when our north-newly married-couple in that city which is a very likely have of the police. He then obtained per-some days since a young couple who had unsoin to go in an excursion steamer to preacher and a multician. In the pulpit he great a that from which we have borrowed a Runsgate on promise of requining in the every it ginve, solemin, dignified, and a thorough from their home, a pleasant village in it is non, and as there was a good deal of myse systematic sermonzer; but of it there is no perils of a snow storm on the "divides" which State, to spend a portion of that supposed-to- lety about him, a police officer was, unknown man living who is more fill of fun and dro!- separate busy settlements; yet in the little disto him, charged to watch over him. During lery. On one occasion he was wending his tance of ten or fifteen miles between there may his absence at Ramsgate, orders arrived from way towards the seat of the Annual Confer- be danger and death. Some of the trails to Paris by telegraph, to arrest him on the ence of Ministers, in company with another the proprietor of the Spencer House. They I was by teregraphy, to arrest that on the ende of antimers, in company with aborned then suffield for it to witness the beauties and charge of having attempted to commit as dergyman. Passing a country inn, he re-peruli rites of the Queen City, and to do as murder and robbery in the department of the marked to the other clergyman : brides are ever wort, a quantity of the little Seine et Marne, and the moment he lauded "The last time I stopped as that tavern, I business eint faced in the term "shopping." he was arcs ted. Having been conveyed to slept with the landlord's wife."

'I mean just what I say, Treplied Z-b ; and one of the ducks, but was re-cued when half on went the two travellers in unbroken ellence songht up among the bonghs and trees. Of some and less indipensable to her thiets and drowned. This man whose name is Pesty, until they reached the conference. Invitting to dis urb her, hisband, who she was afterwards given up to the authorities of 1 In the early part of the session, the conknew to be weary, slipped our while he was the Seine et Marne, and the day before yester- ference sat with doors closed for the purpose get the diminative bundle. She was success assues of the defaultant, ou the charge of experiment of the source of the the traveler should make the wrong sail the clergy man paid ten dollars for the; thus, quality, and condition of that poors, full in her search for the source and the article, artempted moders and the bunges of feed are to be avoided. The private charge of feed are to be avoided. but on her way back missions from her rano, who seemed much affected, said in answer rather conduct, during the past year. For descent, the canon on eithersile, the chances rance of the ci v, M is street for Broudway, to questions put to him, that he was twenty this purpose the clerk called Zoh's name. four years of age and a farmer in Beaune lac. Does any one know adpht against the back. Occasi unlive the strength () get Rollande, in the Leitet. The following sing- character of brother Twitchell during the past, his way and fre-ring to death, but few realize ular fasts we e then a ated f other. Mrs. R. went into the horel and thinking A slopherd named Masson was in the eve-it looked rather different from the other, sak-now ingutat is as where the h st one at looked rather different from the other, sak-now ingutat is as where the h st one and thinking A slopherd named Masson was in the eve-it looked rather different from the other, saked one of the waiters she ufet in the hall, in flock of two humand and fifty sheep from companion stose with a heavy beart and tather a low and mais inclutione, if that was Bransles to a place beyond Nemours. At grave countenance ; said he had a duty to the "Siencer," to which he, failing to made- onte distance from the latter town he was perform -one that he owed to God and stand her, replied in the affirma ive. She overtaken by a man in a light cart, who, put- church, and to himself ; bo must therefore man-munices of St. Bernard, yet uncelebrated. then ordered this to bring heit the ker to No. ming his horse into a walk, expressed admir- discharge it fearlerair, though tramblingly. A while ago toung Gi ray, who drives a siddle 48, which he did, and she entered it, and re- ati n of his flack and got into a conversation | He then related what Zeb had told him while in across Scoti's mountain, passed a man moved her bontiet, shawk and other portion- with than. Having accertained the direction passing the savera, how he slept with the on fout laboring through the show, whom he walk, never creating she was in the wrong sed that town, the man again overtook him as with a thunderboh, although a few amiled house, for the reason that the spartment in his carl, and descending from his vehicle, and looked first at Zeld then upon the bishops, ready fainting he was left. When they reached bappened to have the same position, and far, began close the with him. On passing through knowingly, for they know better than the the period it was dark and snowing. Gill for they have better than the the period it was dark and snowing. Gill furn shed very much like her room at the a wood, he soldenly drew a double-barreled others the character of the acc sed.

into a pr. found size non-she hour a ball of one baire, and in the neck with toni sion to so serions a charge. Zeb rose and after hour until 11 webck, at which time the of the other, wher which he beat him about said :

Then pausing with an awful seriousness, chaut, from a town is Indiana, who had been and thinking he was dead, dragged him into he proceeded with a slow and soleion deliberted, went to the Marison, and wishing mone herd, as if to make sure that he was dead. "There was one little circumstance, how-dor unter the unit of united good me again, and mained senseless some time, and when he re- weight with the conference, but although it a total darkness reigned there, he removed covered, found that his flork had disappeared, may be deemed of trithing importance. I will his garments and tright in the parling dou-but that his dog was at his side licking his state it : When I slept with the landlord's ble bed, not disputing in the feast the fair wounds. He crailed to the hearest farm wife, as I told the brother, I kap the incom myself ! Lodgings for Boots. A Georgia explange tells the following

"boots" story : A short time ago one of our citizens who loves t is joke about as well as folks -usually stiempied muider, strived at a place called do, had occasion to vist one of the small Mountain Snow Storms. would have occasionally stopped ainging to "thrash" his benumbed fingers, or dig his mule | medium" of this ciry. Mr. 'Mansfield has great as that from which we have borrowed a line. None but mountaineers may relate the M.'.

populous places traverse mountains where the snow falls ten, fifteen or twenty feet in depth. Then the wind piles up huge drifts of incredible magnitude, then the sir-currents changing, they are again torn down and wirled away to some other place, until a few hours supshine, and a subsequent frost bardens the now surface, leaving the trail in many places to be course the traveler cannot pass the fury of such a storm, but for several mon hs in the vear he may encounter lesser ones, which are that he will not have the strength to get year I' asked the bishop, who was the presid- how trightful is death in a mount in storm. where the list one slowly perishes almost in

> Bui there are now pilots who guide travelers over these solitary ways. Many are their hethe role and good Samarian deeds, equalling the admonished of danger and besought to throw | away i is blanket and travel for his life. But the man refused, and as the animals were alroy proposed returning for the lost man, but no one hau strength to accompany him. He retwomed where, and found the traveler speech-less, and apparently insane; he had unrolled his blankers and spread them in separate places on the mow. With great difficulty he was dragged within bearing of the house, where the cries of his rescuer brought assistance, and Trum which place he was carried in and warms ed into life. In the morning he departed with scarce an acknowledgement of gratitude .---Trinity (Cal) Journal.

SUBRIDAN'S WIT .---- The following is an authenic anecdote in connection with the Drury Lane. Theater, what the B. B. Hard, the arth-teet, in 1694, and by him leased to Sheridan, who became largely in his doubt: own house, at the theater, at his usual to confounding of keptics. sorts; but he was nowhere to be seen. At -

Spiritual Exposure. Mr. C. H. Colingnn, of West-Newton, has written a long letter to the Boston Courter, in which he makes certain statements in re gard to J. V. Man-field a well-known "spirit carried on quite an extensive business in On The Most Econofolical Way Of selling portrais of the departed, which pur-Wintering Horses. selling portrais of the departed, which purwhich, in reality, were painted by Mr. Collagan under the direction of Mr. M., either from daguerrotype likenesses or from Mr. under the direction of Mr. M., etther "In response to your can on this suggestions as the con-i deguerrotype likenesses or from Mr. offer the following suggestions as the con-descriptions. Mr. Collegan relates sev-instances of this nature, and is desirious." The quantity of food which any animal "The quantity of food which any animal and shaped, the policy of their country. erst instances of this nature, and is desirans responding with any person who may have received such portrais from Mansfield. one of the last pictures he drew for Mansfield field

hereing in talent, taste and education in art." hay and nine quarts of shorts daily, wet and schotars while the English tongue is spoken. once been placed in a lawyer's hands for col- in condition constantly. lection.

Confessions of a Table-Mover. For a long time, Mr. George P. Paine of Wuncester, Mass. Las been known as a powerful "physical medium," and his achievement. in the line of table-moving have converted hundreds of people to Spisitualism, and been an argument in the month of its believers. His demonstrations were not in the dark, like Holland could never obtain a settlement | blaze of gas, or in broad day light. He has or an interview on the subject with Sheridan. made tables move apparently without human He hunted him for wesks and months at his contact, to the comfort of believers and the last he tracked him to the stage door, rushed by for the purpose of convicting Mr. Coles, a Agricultural. Cultivate the Farmer, as well as the Farm.

We copy the appended letter from the columns of the "Gene-ee Farmer": We "In response to your call on this subject, 1 waswhat perported to be the spirit bride of a and if the in one part of the animal econo-on which as of may and great materials have of grman of Portsmouth New Hampshire. my, may it not be throughout the whole I It accumulated for history. They will recall Mansfield said there had been a great wed- is my belief that a horse or an ox. fed it in the impress of the great and the good; whose. ding, at which the clergyman had been wed- regularly and with promiscuons quantities- renown is the common property of the ded to a spirit, but afterward owned up to as he will dispose of esta more than nature Union; and chiefly, perhaps, they will linger church in Purtamouth. Mr C. was next ark- "Cut feed, so called, 1 regard as best adap"- autere, oppresed bot not overwhelmed by ed to draw a pic ure of the clergyman's de- ed to horse-keeping, buth as regards econo- his deep sense of the importance of his pub-caused mother, and commenced the work, and my and the wants of the animal. Of course, lie functions; seeking the grath, then fairless threw up the basiness before finishings Mans- the amount and quality must be modified by by following it; a man whose imparing in-field would sometimes say when he gave an corcomstances. The age, size, condition, t-llect compelled all his emotions to harmor-order that it was for a believer, and that Mr. former keeping, and present use of the still ize with the deductions of his sigorous logic, C. need not be very particular about as it, as mak, mut be considered, in determining how and whose polic countenance habitually wore

C. need not be very particular about as it, as insil, mut be considered, in determining how and whose noble countenance hibitually wore they were easy to please. Mr. Collagan first much or how hitle is required to keep the ithe expression of one engaged in the per-formed the acquaintance of this "medium" beast in good condition. If a horse is to formance of high public duries two years ago. He had several sittings with labor, he needs more sustenance than if he; This was Webster's reat. He, too, was him and received through him several com-stands idle, though not so much more as is even such a Senator. Conscious of his own munications which purported to have emana-ted from the spirit world. In conclusion, he says: "I have spent a whether he works or plays; and this principle smaller men, he stored among his personal the weet of a store in the own of the spirit world. great deal of money in investigating Spirite- guides me in the care of my horse. The greater for the simple dignit of his Senatorgient deal of money in incentigating Spirite guides me in the care of my noise. The greater for the simple dignity of his Senator-alism, and, whatever may be my opinion as same quantity or quality, whether he works int demeanor. Type of his Northern home, regards the phenomena I have witnessed, I or not given about the same time each day. It is issue before the imagination, in the grand am fully satisfied that there never has been keeps him always in condition for any service and granite outline of his form and intellect, and that all the so-called spirit influence, required, besides conducing to his health like a great New England rock repelling a impostors, and their disgureful attempts are, an eleven bundred horse on three bushes, out dualions will be charished, by statesmen and integring in tablent tasts and education in at?" hay and one on the other of the bushes, out and the state the tasts and education in an integrine of his normal encoded in a power of the state with the state and education in an integrine of his power and bushes control to the state and education in an integrine of his power and the state and education in an integrine of his power and the state and education in at its have and education in at the source of the state and education in at the source of the state and education in at the source of the state and education in at the source of the state and education in at the source of the state and education in at the source of the state and the source of the state and education in at the source of the state and the source of the state and education in at the source of the state and education in at the source of the state and the source of the source of the state and the source of the so

Mr. Collagan has been led to make these dis- put before him at regular intervals-morning, 'As a Senatorial outer, his great effec s, are clusures on account of Man-field's failure to nonnand night, and though he is used con historically associated with this chamber, pay him for his labor, the account having siderably and for various purposes, he gains whose very air seems yet to vibrate beneath condition constantly. The strong with a number words, those of the Davenport boys, but under a fall, the mesh, I have found satisfactory; and my individuality and a chaim of character which.

valued as food for horses, and perhaps cattle of history. He loved his cromry above all also. "In my opinion, if the regimen above sug countries. Illustrions man-orator, patriot,

The old Senate Chamber. Outlie occasion of the removal of the U. 3. Senate to the new Hall. Vice Presi dent Breckinridge delivered an address, the following passages of which, we are certain, will be perused with pleasure by our read-

The Senate is assembled for the last time in this clamber. Henceforth it will be converted to other uses, yet it must remain forever

"The quantity of food which any animal and shaped, the, policy of their country, consumes and seems to require, is no doubt, Hersafter, the American and the stranger, as to a great extent, the result of habit. This they wander through the Capitol, will sum to a great extent, the traint of the spot in the spot in the spot of the spot the humber of the aff ir. He requested Mr. Collagan to draw the propriate. The overplus is rejected find the seats once occopied by the mighty picture, saying it was not so material as to thrown off by a prestrating and delitating the deat has not been able to sever i illus-the style of face, so long as its was very bean-tiful. It was drawn in musin robes, and a min the sections. - Enough, is the times linded, sometimes but, and sometimes with the style of face, so long as its was very bean-tiful. It was drawn in musin robes, and a with the style of face, it the times in tobes, and a with the style of face, so long as its was very bean-tiful. It was drawn in musin robes, and a rose was placed in the bride's hand, because point to be songht in the suppry of food to resident public opinion-for they were of that the minister was fund of flowers. Mansfield any and all animals. Begular (y, also, as to higher sort of statement who seek the right sail the chergyman paid ten dollars for the time, quality, and condution of that food, and follow their convictions.

There sat Calhoun, the Senator, inflexible, the stroke of lis deep tones and his mighty of horses, in the last fifteen years, with the On the outer circle, sat Heury Clay, with same satisfactory results. I ouce kept a nine his impetuous and ardent nature unfamed by hundred borse three months on ten hundred age, and exhibiting in the Senate the same pounds of hay and five bushels of corn meal, vehement patrictism and passionate eloquence given out, wet, and mixed, and found him that of your electrified the House of Repsome pounds havier at the end this at the resentatives and the country. His extraordi-beginning of the lim-"Carrots, given once each day, instead of his noble qualities, invested him with an impression is, that this root is not properly in any age, would have made him a favorite warthly subjects. He loved liberty in all

Recently Mr. Paine came to this city, main- gested were to be adopted generally by horse- philanthropist-his light at its meri-lian, was keepers, we should have fewer horses affected seen and felt in the remotest parts of the inst he tracked from to the stage door, runned by but the purpose of constraining for. Cores, a with beaves and otherwise defective. Over evisitized world; and bis declining sun, as it is porter, and found the manager on the stage that physical manifestations are a humbing. It shares and found the manager on the stage that physical manifestations are a humbing. inate and to cheer the land he loved and -erised so wall. All the States, may point, with gratified pride, to the servi es in the Senate of their patriotic sons. Crowding the memory, come the names of Adams, Hayne, Mason, Otis, Mason ; Pinckney, and the rest-I cannot E. INGHAM." number them-who, in the record of their Springfield, Conn., Nov., 1858. acis and utterances appeal in their Successors to give the Union a destiny hot unworthy of Rail vs. Board Fonces, the past. What models were these to swaken 'emulation or to plonge in despair! Forum-Rail fences occupy, on an average eighteen ate will be the American statesman who, in this age, or in -neceeding times, shall contribute to invest the new hall to which we go with historic memories like these which cluster here. And now, Senators, we leave this memorbe used in rail fences. Board fences withable chamber, bearing with us unimpaired, the Constitution we received from our fores fathers. Let us cherish it with grateful acknowledgements to the Divine Power who controls the destines of empires and whose googhess we adore. The proteines reared by men yield to use a realing tooth of time. These marble walls much mulder into min ; or winter. For each rod of fence it requires bat the principles of cons' mional liberty, guarded by wisdom and vor ne, unlike materinches in width ; also one five inch board isl elements, do not decir. Let us devouily extri for built-us on every four posts or tao trust that another Senate, in another age, rods of fence. Fence posts made of good shall bear to a new and larger chamber this white oak, sawed 5 by 6 at the bourd, and significant, sigorous and inviolate, and that 2 by 5 at the top leaving them 5 by 5 where the last general in of posterily shall withes they come to the top of the ground. For the deliberations of the Representatives of every three rods of fence I use one 4 by 4 American States still united, pro-perous, and scantling, twelve feet long, sawing the same liee.

a few minutes, bicking up the entrance and it, of ileanne la Rollande, who was driving a asking each o her eage ray. " What is the mate flock of one hundral sheep from Bransles for t-re" " For God's sake, tell us what is the bs mas er .- "Ins L-jonne was found at trouble "

The cause of this outery may be imagined. fity shep, and he stated that it was its mass. The double had awakened about all or ghe, and te bim-ilf, young Pesty, who had confided patting hershand over for her husband it fell them to him. He added that Pesty, on ar up in the lod aman's fare, and the soft warm riving at the village, had joined him, and touch aroused him at once. He did not one remarked : "I shall get nito trouble about derst ind it exactly, though he did not die these two hundred sheep, they are stolen. like II, and in a moment more Mr. R. said : and the shepherd who drove them, has been "My dearest husband, where have you been murdired " Lejnene further stated that eff this white!" Po-ty made a similar statement to his (Pe--"Husband,"-ectioned the merchan, hegin- 'y's) father, ou which the latter, with great ing to see, like Lord Titsel that he had tennition, cried out, "If it be you who tave "made a small mistake heat;" I am poloud;'s committed the crime, the best bling you can husband. I'reikon, my Jear madam, ybu're] do is to kill yourself !" Ou that young Pesty took flight, and was in the wrot m hed."

The wrong bed-horr r of horrors, that no more heard of by his own people un i-the brize-what would her live her h, what after the arrost at Calais. The shepherd re-would the carions world siv! And Mrs. R. covered from his wounds, and his resovery cream-d terribly, and - | rang from her couch-| was mainly owing to the dog having licked just as her companion did the same. He was their. After that incident Pesty was con fully as much all read as she, and entreased fromed with Moson, and the latter id directly them. After that incident Pesty was con her to give him time and he would have the recognized him. Pesty himself, after some rain deciale, admitted his guilt, and also apar ment with ingli it was the one he had that he had deliberately premeditated the einand-bil make out to that Scream, scream, s. r.am, was the ouly re- murder of the shepher I. This man way of ply to his kindly proposition. yourse, the principal witness against him and "My God, and un, don't, yell so you Il' he created some sededtion after giving his was acquitted.

Galignani:

An ARREST Some years ago, a small sized man went to the phiniation of a gentle-him-elf on his linck, "I'm ready."

but aubmit with chee fulness."

* You must de your daty.

And there be invainmovable muil the

in my stast

wake the horse. Be reasonable; I spear it's evidence, by remarking, "Its a had thing to only a mistake. Have some thought of the say that a follow creature at empted to take cors quences. I don't want to hurt you - I nway my life, and that a poor dog was the saear I don't. You'll get me shot and your- principal means of saving me !" Pestvis crime, it was sisted to court, is self--well, I won't say what."

The communication interested, and the poor Indi- perfectly inexplicable, idasmuchas ho is the on of a most respectable man of good anian expecting every moment to see a pis of three in his face by a judious hosb and property, was in comfortable circumstances pate as death, which he expected, and resignhimself at the time the crime was percellated himself to his fate. Jus: at this juncture, the throng outsile presented i self at the door, and beheld Mrs. still in the cradle, and had received a good R covering in one corner, exercising her education. It appears, however, that dast lungs magnificently, with a sheet wrapped year he was tried for stealing 19 sheep, but over her form and heal, and the Indiania in the middle of the roug, enveloped in a cov-end, enveloped in a cov-end, enveloped in a cov-The joy declared the man guilty with ere ing-end, enveloped ing the second of the second of the second of the The jointor proprietor. Dr. Could, saw defined thin to hard lattor for the also to pay information of the second of the second of the second of the second of the lattor. there must be some mis ske, and requesting 6.000 france damages to the shepherd the others to retire, called the merchant out with him into another wood, and there learned the whole sory ... The The or then sent one of the ladies of the Lotel to Mrs. R. and I to its affair and fexplained, greatly to the relief - though she was orerwhelmed with wit, but rather heavy in field, with a piece of confusion at a cir constance when might have paper in his hand, folded in form, and known rained har reputation forever. Under the by the slovevintion of co. to. Having found escore of the Doctor, she was conveyed to the the owner of the plantation in the field, he "Spincer," where the husband was found explained his busidess, when he was requised pa ing the contitors with fran is mein and to read his capies, which commenced as half or ized with g if at the unsterious di- 0-valappearance of his wife, whom he believed had been sid itel away by a villais or murdered lay to take the boly of." en. for her jeweln in this "infernal city," where, "Humph?" wive the prisme as he expressed it, "they would kill a man f.r a dollar any time." In Women are called the softer sex' because they are exaily humburged. Out of know. I do not rest the prices of the law one hundred gr., niteryfire would prefer bar white it is the default as Ostenta Ion to happines a dandy husband 10 a mechanici -

IT A scientific gentleman, after search-" diligently, for the entire of the pointd ight has air void at the conclusion that it _____ is the rot tator-r movement of the earth. sheriffihit when he left alan teret to it's all around my fint if as the hypocrite said when he put on mourning for his dead wife.

long rubber boots. He arrived at his desti-Bemine' Ly Rol'ande, with two hundred and : ed about the feel. After supper, he inquired the charge for lodgings. 'We usually charge,' answered the land-h rl who also had some fon in his composition, "iwenty-five cents ; but if A man goes to bed with such boots as them you have on," (pointing to his customer's feet.) 'we charge tifty cents.

'A very good idea,I should think,' returned the traveler.

After an hour's conversation, the inndiord howed him to his room, and they parted for he night mutually pleased with each other The next morning our friend ar se late, and inquiring for the landlord, learned that he had g me from home to attend to some busi-After breakfast he handed a dollar to Dens. be landlady, saying : There are fifty cents for my supper and breakfast, and filly cents more for my hodg-and talk to you." ing." Twenty five cents is all we charge for lodging! said the landlady. 'Yes,' returned the traveler, under ordinary circumstances; but in this case fifty cents is not toy much. The tranger departed, and the lady was deep in conjectore as to what could be the circumstances which registred a man to pay double price for lodging , when her ha-band ed, married to a cliaming young woman of double pr mneteen years of age, is the father of a child returned. This that man who slept in the front chamber come down yet I he asked. 'Ye,' an-wered his wife, and he has gon away. He paid me fifty cen s for his lodg-The jury declared the man goilty with exclings, and sail under the circumstances it was

> The da-1 he did " exclaimed the land lord, rus fug up stairs. His wife followed, to learn the meaning man not for from Louisville, who was light in putytoes in than it did for any human being to sleep in. wit, but rather heavy in fiesh, with a piece of You saw that man when he came here last high " said her husbhad. 'You saw his boots, didn't you !'

Yet

Well,' said the landlord, 'the infernal oues slept in em. "You are hereby commanded without de A fow days after, the traveler, on his, re furn home, put up again at the same tavern. Not her himself nor the landlord said any-"Humphi" wive the prisoner, stretching thing about the boots, which were about in "O bot you don't expect me to carry you the mine condition as on the previous evening ; but the fundhuly looked daggers at " Certainie ; you most take my boly, yo in, and eved his bouts with much anxiety. About 10 o'cluck he mind he would retire." 'And, by the way, landlord,' said he with Will you wait autil I can bring a cart !" a marry uninkle in his ove," "what do you "Can't promited if may idouter from my fitigate in the mean fine." "Well, what man fine at the second usually sharge for folging ? "We charge, an werst the landlord with remendous emphasia, 'twenty-five, cents !' ----Coma: Bol, bay much lieve you sleaved by your speculations !' said a friend to his companion. Cleared I answared Bob, with a frown ; "Why I've cleared my pockets." When he doubles his fits he had invited to show them the theater and found the mud in some spots so deep have had the trouble of calling on me so them to call the next day. Mr. Coles and bis that his boots were baiely long enough. He often, but now we are met, in a few minutes associates, however, determined pot to yield i reached the botel at last, looking rather soil. I shall be a liberts two will then as the noint and seen Mr. Due of the pot to yield is my room together and settle our affairs. But derstand that they would not leave the room

, nutil they had taken on the curnet. first, you must decide an important question Some of these gentlemen tell me Mr. Paine, finding that he could not stave here. there are complaints, and loud ones, that the off an examination, finally acknowledged that transmission of sound is defective in your beautiful theater. That, in fact, the galleries the whole thing was a fiand; that he had chested, not only on this occasion, but from the beginning; I is wife and his nost intimute, cannot hear at all, and that is the reason why friends, as well as his numerous converts havthey are so noisy of late."

ing been the dupes of his preineditated decep-Sound defective! not hear !" reiterated the astonished archit-ct, turning pale, and al-

Mr. Coles stated tlieso facts in the Spiritu most staggering back ; " why, it is the most ! perfect building for sound that was ever presence of Mr. Paine; and after he had conerected; I'll stake my reputation on it, the luded, the begas medium; got spand publiccomplaint is most groundless." ly acknowledged the frand, and defended it "So I say," revorted Sheridan ; " but now on the ground that the end justified the we'll bring the question to issue definitely, and means. He believed that the great share of i then have a paragraph or two in the napers. the reputed spiritual phonomena is sham, Do you, Hulland, go and place yourself at the although he was of opinion that some of back of the upper gallery, while I stand here them are real. He stood commended to his "Certainly," said Holland, "with the great- own conscience, and counted it among his reasures in heaven that he had charged est uleasure." nothing, although small presents had, from A lantern was provided, with trusty guide, ume to time. flown into his earthly coffers ; and away went the architect through a labyhis labor had been one of love. He had reeinth of dark and winding passages, almost a sorted to deception in order to meet decepdey's journey, until he reached the distant i tion, and ultimately expose it. /. Having defended his course, Mr. Paine ex levated post. "Now, Mr. Holland," cried Sheridan, "are you there, and ready !" "Yes," was the immediate answer.

"Can you hear me !" cester Republican. "Perfectiv, perfecily, Mr. Sheridan,"

So swing, Sturidan disuppeared, and wrs two or three miles off before Holland could | descend. Another long interval- occurred ere he was able to chase the fugitive to his justice :

lair again. •

such strange proceedings, and found her led hook, you are green. Is a pretty dress or our dranght animals. Our stimularing and down at the surface of the ground. This country man whose face was not bushed while the bed clothes torned down. form an attractive, or even a pretty face t differential and our dranght animals. Our stimularing and down at the surface of the ground. This country man whose face was not differential bed looking more fit to plant. Floances, bots, are of no consequence. At our the the one nor to bust one form to bust one form to the the one form to bust one form to the surface of the ground. This was the analytic and the base bed looking more fit to plant. Floances, bots, are of no consequence. At our the the one form to bust one form to bu Floances, boys, are if no consequence. All our that hife is becoming to us but one con-pratty face will grow old. Paint washes off, inter any one to find a passin. Our movements are like those the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair accession of the fair will give way to the accession of the fair accession of the sparklingere and barming countenance will gradingly give ourselver, wears us as much as with a good saw, square, chisel, and hammer, -On Saturday night last says the Calhoun losk daggers at you. Beware I fills dear is our work: We cannot bear to have another can build such a fence. I use the five incir (Ga.) Platform, we had the pleasure of seccross and scolds at her mother in the back called more 'smatt' than our elves, and we tour you may be sare you'll get particular, will die and be fouried rather thannot become four beards Banil over the house. If the blushes when as rich as onr neighbors. There is ever the found at the wash tub, with her sloeves Tol' - ame unwitsfielt re-tleant at whether we go and saw in two at the mill; fence boards, year 1754, a.d is consequently 104 years of led up be sure she is a dish ray aristoprat i sine unwitsfield restled restled restled in an in the restlet restled restle If you marry a girl sho Enows nothing but less numb r of hours than ourselves, no mat- see Farmer. to commit woman slanghter on the pisuo, ter at what cost of money or health. There you have got the poorest piece of mario ever, is no impossible Alps that we will not climb, got np. Find one whose mind is right in and no deep cave of the earth or sea, that we

Hald up your light hand, air is said the not sit. There is working within the scope of t keeping his left hand up, 'plasse ver honor, I | lished, there are none who, shall draw a longer am left handed ' how.

: •

Paine's rooms, and Mr. Coles with several black. But it is objected that it is too much net on about aibe o'clock in the evening. *n I, Sheri fan saw Hollaud approaching, and others, attended, and were unable to detect work thus to piepare food for hires. With upon induir); he found the only tavern in the knowing that estape way this time impossi-place was half à mile from the station. No conveyance was to be had and the road was minudly in the extreme. Congratulating himself on Evvilig his long boots, he set off come most groups. I am truly corry you -you have Three gentlemen proposed to take up the cars i ness to do what ought to be done, while last orry you part : but Mr. Paine demarred, and requested uses never watts an excuse for negligence.

feet of land, board fences only gix, in plowed land. Rul fences are not so objectionable in meadows and pastores ; still there is a half to two thirds difference in favor of board, and fall two thirds in saving the material. Tunber can be made into board fences that dathot s and winds that rail hardly can, even staked and capped. Some may object that frost al Conference, on Wede-eday evening, in the pulls up fence po-ts, and they cannot be put up as easily as to his up rails. I will give a description of my board fence, manner of building, etc. I cut logs for boards of obesnut, black or white oak, in fall one board each ten, eight, seven, six or five extra for bait-us on every four posts or two in six pieces, two feet each, which I are as ! h bited a p c e of No. 2 wire, as the veritable the two feet piece, in the middle, and mark in the congregation, s i.P., the dove tail, taking half of that, then drive fore his congregation, s i.P., the dove tail, taking half of that, then drive fore his a weighty argument, but neither apparatus by which he had moved tables and ouverted hundreds to Spiritualism .- Wor it into the post, forming a sort of forst. One band will bottom fifty posts a day, and it can erational nor convincing.

appears to comprehend the American people, wes days. I find that the boles can be day in this compary, wrote to his' friends inform-physically speaking, siys with no little two feet long and two feet deepse easily and hing them of his sudder-death, that after ad-

Justice : The Americans are in fact becoming not-Such a fence coas about 874 conts per rod, i gave way, owing to which he fell and broke ing bat brain and veryes. Fat and fibrine and will last fourteen to twenty years, if the his neck.

Young man keep your eyes open when are only valued as they sell in marker, and posts are well sees of provides to setting, you are after a woman. If you bite at a marker muecle is only thought of as it pertains to and a coat of coal far put ion six inches up, wards for caps and battens. The feres is -ixicen feet, six inches, and one incli thick. lage. He was a suddier faster or ree a given number of objects in a Brash white ouk is the best. - Corr. in Gene-

The candles, you sold me last night. were very bad,' said Suelt to , a tailowchandler.

Indeed, fir,' said be, 'I'm very sorry for that." can hold, their brauli longer under water. Yes sira do you know that they burned When the guide is not looking, there is no to the middle, and then wouldn't burn any

> 'No, sir.' . What then I They hursed shorter follows : Halve each post at the bolton 41 For When a spice was once thrown into inches up, and make a dove-rail. Lav it on the pulpit where John Muray was preaching the two feet pirce. in the middle, and make in Boston, he picked it up, and holding it be-

A BRAIN AND NERVE PEOPLE - One , who be done in the barn in the writer and on (A Datchman having a friend hung

ET A sun of the Emerald Isle, meeting a countryman whose face was not perfectly inquired his

A VENERABLE RELIC OF THE REVOLUTION, On Saturday night last says the Cathoun ing and conversing with the oldest man in high and long feet four inches | Gordon county, Mr. Wm. Coggin. He was high. I cut logs for posts thirteen feet long, born in Camden, South Carolina, in the in the Revolution and served under Gen Greene a part of the time, and was at the men orable battle of Entaw Springs. He is yet comparatively active, and is able to walk everal miles during the day. CHARME - An euter prising jeweler in Washe ingtou has found and out op that brick which Yes sirà; do yon know that they hurned Montgomery of Penusylvania, shied at the leg s the mildle, and then wouldn't burn any of English, of Indiana, into the most delightful "charms" to adorn the watch clusion of the longer ? You surplise me; what, sir.! did they, go granting fratering fratering that and kill, bas had ine in inettopolitan tas's and skill, has had English's silvered cane picked up, brought in, and carved into beautiful rings for Christmas presente.