MICHE IS A BACKWOODS MICHIGAN TAVconsisting of two rooms - a barroom and lodging room. The lady laid her lap dog on its mat before the lire, and berself and husband took seats. In a short time the gentleman had an occasion to use his handkerchief, and tock it out, leaving it lying on his knee when he got through with it. In a few moments the landford opened the door, put his head in, looked around, went out, came in, gazed at the dog-his nostrils all the while upturned in intense disgust. He finally appeared sutisfied, he went to the outside door, opened it came back with a bound, seized the lapdog by the tail, and harled him howling through the open door, full ten rods in the forest- The wife fainted; the husband rose to his feet terribly enraged, and wanted to know what he did that for. "That's my dog," continued he, furiously. " "Dont care a cusa whose dog it is," said the man gruffly and impetuosly; "I sin't going to have no such blasted smelling

CAUSE OF THE FIRST MURDER - Welate inthis wise. It says that Cain and Abel, have ing each of them a twin sister, as soon as they all became marriageable, Adam proposed to them, that Cain should marry the twin sister of Abel, and Abel the twin sister of Cain : alleging as his reason for the proposal, that as their circumstances obliged them to marry their sisters, it was proper that they should marry those that were seemingly the least related to them. To this proposal Cain would not agree, and insisted on having his own twin sister, because she was fairer than the other. Adam, displeased at his disobedience, referred the disputa to the decision of the Lord; he ordered his sons to bring each an offering before him; and told them that the offering which had the preference would be a declaration in favor of him who presented it. On the offerings being brought, and that of Abel accepted Cain, stimulated by jealousy an i resentment, as soon as they came down from the Mount where they had been sacrificing, fell upon his brother and slew him .-Forncy's Press.

True Republicanism.

A diversity of ideas has been entertained in different periods and in different countries, respecting the name of a true republican. During the old French Revolution it was one burng the old French Revolution it was one who delighted in anarchy and bloodshed. In the time of O'her Cromwell, it was one who hated the King eschward wire and attention to offers to his customers and the public at low hated the King, eschewed wigs, and sung pashins through the nose. What it may be D R U G S. in our own day and generation, every one is as competent to judge as we are. Our object, at present, is only to in roduce the following anectode, which was related to us by a medi cal friend, presuming that, in all probability publicanism herem developed differs materially from any to which reference has been either directly or inferentially made: Our friend was called upon to visit a man who, in a fit of in-anity, had attempted to cut his own throat with a pair of shears. He made several clips through the skin, but did not succeed in dividing any of the important blood vessels; and the principal injury he did was notching out a piece of his windpipe. The doctor meaded up its throat as well as he could, and gave him particular directions to keep his head still. But in visiting himthe next day, he found he had been tossing about, and had got the dressings sadly deranged. One curious idea seemed to have taken possession of him, viz: that the docter had carried off his head. Full of this strange notion, he demanded of him, as soon as he entered the room, "what he had done with his "Your head!" said the man of medicine.

"why, I tried to fasten it on yesterday, but I see you have torn off the dressings." 'Now, Doctor," replied the patient, with a look of suspicion, "that story won't do to tell me. I'm not to be imposed upon. You know very well that you carried off my head, and unless you bring it back within half an hour, I shall have recourse to the law. Verbum sat sapaenti—von understand me." And he gave a significant look, as much as to say :

"I. I have lost my head, I know how to re-

"I wonder you'll persist in telling that story," said the incredulous patient. You see I've too much brains to be imposed upon and I insist upon your restoring my head. And for my body—I don't care a fig forthat—you are welcome to it. But my head I must have. Ima true republicau and have a right to my head. HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADELPHIA.
A Benevolent Institution established by special en dowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

PHE HOWARD ASSOCIATION in view of the aw-THE HOWARD ASSOCIATION in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITABLE ACT Worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treat-ment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical Abvice Gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their con-dition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty, to furnish medicines free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most improved odern treatment.

The Directors of the Association, in their An nual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Disenses, for the year ending January 1st, 1858, express the highest antisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the Consulting Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhæa, Gleet, Sypillis, the vice of Onanism or Self-abuse, &c., and or der a continuance of the same plan for the en-

TO THE PUBLIC. SOME Merchants publish a few low prices, or the price of a few low priced articles, as an inducement to persons to make their purchases of them, under the presumption that everything is Equally low. Without taking space in the public papers to enumerate prices, I wish it dis-tinctly understood, that I will sell Goods as low for the quality as they can be bought in any other Store in this place or county. Baits and Hooks not used. Purchasers will generally find Also, choice Family Groceries, Crockery, Wall Paper, Jewelry, Perfumery, &c. In shortinearly everything usually kept in country stores. As I deal in many departments of trade, and have more Articles than I can well enumerate in the limits of a Newspaper, I shall not attempt it. neither will it be necessary, under these circumstances, to fill a column with useless repetitions and blanks. The people are invited to call and examine for themselves.
