"ALL THE YEAR ROUND"
DICKENS NEW WEEKLY.

WE have the pleasure of announcing that we have entered into arrangements with CHARLES DICKENS, for the issue of his new publication entitled "ALL THE YEAR ROUND" each week in New York, and which will be published in London, and forwarded to us sufficiently in advance of publication to be sent to our subscribers in New York, and New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charles Dickens, to be continued from week to week during about six months.
The first number will appear in London and New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story
by Charles Dickens, to be continued from week
to week during about six months.

ADDRESS.
Nine years of Mr. Wells are the best evidence that can be offered to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round." In transferring myself, and my strongest energies, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to be begun, I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business cooperation that can make my new venture a success in every important respect. I am now free to devote to my past arrangements. Those I leave to testify for themselves in due course.
That fusion of the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the writer of my community, and for which I have striven from week to week as honestly as I could during the last nine years, will continue to be striving for the year round. I have weekly cares and duties beyond things of the past, merely to be as-aped, with an increased love for them and brighter hopes springing out of them, in the Present and the Future.
I look at my work, and with a very wide circle of readers, and yet again for a steadily expanding circle of readers, in the projects I hope to carry through "all the year round." I feel confident that this new venture will be realized, if it deserves realization.
The task of my new journal is set, and it will steadily try to work the task out. Its pages shall show to good purpose their motto is remembered in them, and with how much fidelity and earnestness they tell THE STORY OF OUR LIVES FROM YEAR TO YEAR.
CHARLES DICKENS.
