The Under Dog in the Fight.

- I know that the world, that the great, big world, From the peasant up to the king, Has a different talo from the tale I tell, And a different song to sing.
- But for me-I care not a single fig If they say I am wrong or am right-I shall always go for the weaker dug. For the under dog in the fight.
- I know that the world, that the great, big world Will never for a moment stop To see which dog may be in the fault,
- But will shout for the dog on top. But for me, I shall pruse to ask
- Which dog may be in the right. For my heart will beat, while it beats at all, For the under dog in the fight
- Perchance what I've said I had better not said, Or 'twere botter & had said it incog., But with heart, and glass filled hock to the brim Here's health to the bottom dog.

Manuring Corn with Sausage. An old friend of ours-one sick and rired of the care and bustle of a city life, has retired into the country, and "gone to farming," as the saying "His land, albeit well situated and commanding sundry fine prospects, is not so particulars ferrile as some we have seenrequiring scientific culture and liberal system of manuring to induce an abundant yield. So unuch by way of explana ion. Once upon a time our friend being upon a visit to New Orleans, was attending an auction sale down town; and as it so happened ther were selling damaged sausages at the time. There were some eight or ten barrels of them, and they were "just going at fifty cents a barrel" when the auctioneer, with all apparent seriousness, remarked that they were worth more to manure land with. Here was an idea, "Sx'y two-and a half cents-third and last call-gone!" retorted the auctioneer. "Cash takes them at sixty-two and a half cents a barrel!"

To have them shipped to his country seat was the immediate work of our friend, and as it was then planting time, and the sausages, to use a common phrase, "were getting no better very fast," to have them safe underground and out of the way, was his next movement. He was about to plant a field of several acres of corn—the scil of the piny wood species—so here was just the spot for this new experiment in agriculture, this new feature in this science of geoponics. One "link" of sausages being deemed amply sufficient, that amount was placed in each hill, accompan-ied by the keinels of corn and an occasional pumpkin seed, and all were nicely covered over in the usual style. Now, after premising that several days have passed since the corn was planted, the sequel of the story shall be told in a dialogue between our friend and one of his neighbors. Neighbor.-Well friend have you planted

Friend,-Yes, several days since.

N .- Is it up yet ! F-Up! yes; and gone; the most of it. N.-How is that?

.F .- Well, you see, I bought a lot of damaged sausages the other day in New Orleans, a smooth tongue of an auctioneer saying they would make excellent manure, if nothing else I brought the lot over, commenced planting my corn at once, as it was time, planted a sausage in each hill, and-N .-- Well, and what?

F.—And felt satisfied that I had made a good job of it. Some days afterwards I went out to see how the corn was coming on, and a pretty piece of buisness I have made of trying agricultural experiments.
N.- Why, what was the matter?

F .- Matter! The first thing I saw before reaching the field was the greatest lot of dogs digging and scratching all over it! There were my dogs, and your dogs, and all the neigh-bors' dogs, besides about three hundred strange dogs that I never set my eyes on before, and every one was hard at it, mining after the buried sausages. Somehow or other, the rascally ps had scented out the buisness have dug every hill by this time. If I could set every dog of them on that auctioneer, I would be satisfied.

"LAST OF THE HUGGERMUGGERS."-A sprightly school girl, who attends the "Central High School," where the teachers have a way of inciting the pupils to understand what they say to the class, was reading the "Last of the Huggermuggers," and, stirred by the spirit of inquiry simulated by her, teachers, if not by natural feminine curiosity, asked a boy cousin of hers the meaning of Huggermuggers. John looked thoughtful for a mo-ment, and then said, "I'll show you!" and before the incipient woman had time to make any further remark, John had his arms around her waist and subjected it to a gentle pressure.

"That's a "hugger,' and this (putting his lips HARDWARE & CTAVE PURCHIM) to hers in affectionate collision) is 'mugger.'
"Yes," said the not more than half displeased Sarah Ann, "and this is the last of the huggermuggers; for if ever you attempt to give me another such definition, I'll box your ears."

ROBBING A BRIDE OF HER BED .- The St. Louis Democrat is responsible for the following: At Layer's boarding house in St. Louis, Louis Democrat is responsible for the following: At Layer's boarding house in St. Louis, an unusually merry wedding came off on Tuesday night; and the dance was prolonged till past one in the morning. The bride and groom then repaird to their apartment, but—horrible visu!—the bed and bedding had been sacrilegiously stolars from the community in that line at unusually low prices. He flatters himself that his facilities for manufacturing his own Wares, Stoves, &c., give him a decided advantage over any who pur chase and transport at a heavy expense their en been sacrilegiously stolars from the community in that line at unusually low prices. been sacrilegiously stolen from the nuptial tire stock. bedstead! Some vindictive wretch had gained felonious ingress at the rear, and effected a robbery unparalleled in the history of matrimony. It is conjectured that so fell ven-genuce could only have been devised and excuted by some disappointed lover of the

Who never to himself hath said,
The scamp who stole that bridal bed Preserves to live and die unwed vith maidens o'd to punch his head?

A gentleman was so prone to exageration that he found it necessary to instruct his servant to jog him, whonever he drew the long bow too freely. One day he was describing a fox he had slain, a fox with a monstrous long brush, quite 'a mile long.' John immediately jogged his master. 'Well,' said he 'perhaps not quite so much, but I am sure it was half-a-mile.' (Another jog.) Or if not, about a quarter.' (Jog again.) Well.
I'll be shot if it was not a bundred yards long ! (A very hard jog !) The poor story teller could bear this jugging no longer, but jumping up, exclaimed -- Zounds, ruscal! will you not let my fox have a tail at all?"

New Excland a Unit.-The Black Republican press is boasting that New England is "a unit" in opposition to the Democracy, and that not one Democratio representative is elected from that region to Congress. True; but not so novel as true. New England was a unit in 1801, when Jefferson was elected President, New England then voting in a body against him; and again in 1828, when General Jackson was elected; New England then, again voting unanimously against the Democracy. Now she is "a unit" in support of Abelitioni-m, and the very men who boast of this unity, profane the name of Jackson and Jeferson with the mockery of their praise.

READY-MADE CLOTHING

READY-MADE CLOTHING!

We have just opened about one-and a half cords of ready-made clothing. Every body says they are cheap. Some say they are very cheap, and a number have ventured to say they are dog cheap. Certain it is that a small pile of money will buy a large pile of clothing.

We would add, in this connection, for the information of all concerned and the "rest of mankind," that we are tired and sick of the credit system; we have suffered enough by it already, and are determined to rid ourselves of the the whole "critter." Believing that the nimble aixpence is the true system, we are reserved to adopt it, and are offering our goods at prices to correspond.

TNOTICE.

DR. E. PATRICK, JR., would like after a silence of nearly ten years, to appeal to the moral sensibilities of a very generous public, who have always manifested their sense of appreciation of his userfulness, by exacting his services when needed or thought to be needed, but who have given no other evidence of gratitude or good will—particularly in the way of a unbatantial aid. As Kossuth would say—that he now desires a full and entire settlement of all his accounts, also the accounts of the late firm of Patrick & Dimock; and he wishes further to state that he desires nothing to be considered to roung, if, after a few weeks, the said accounts, remaining unsettled, sho'd be placed in the hands of a good sharp eclicitor, and made to account to him something that will buy Oats and Buckwheat. Please notice this and take action accordingly.—Yours Truly.

A Book for Everybody. ex STARTLING DISCLOSURES! DR. TELLER'S great work for the married

J. TELLER, M. D.
No. 5 Beaver-st, Albany, N. Y.
Dn. Vachors' Female Phils, $1 a box, with full directions. Married ladies should not market.

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

Schopula and Schofulous Complaints, Bruftions and Emprire Diseases, Ulcers, Prapies, Blotches, Tumors, Sait Rheum, Scald Head, Sythills and Strhilling Apprentices, Rose on St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood.

on Sr. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Invulnity of the Bloom.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the time-ly expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipred in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul cruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and yous feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life-disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been mis-or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of MARRIAGE GUIDE. A NEW BOOK, BY WILLIAM YOUNG, M. D.

CAUTION—These Pills should not be taken by females during the FIRST 3 MONTHS of Pregnancy, as they are sure to cause raiscarriage, but at any other time they are safe.

In all cases of nervous and spinial affection, pain in the back and limbs, fatigue on a light exertion, palpitation of heart, hysteries and whites, these pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and altho' a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously tuken according to directions on the bottle.
