

THE MONTROSE DEMOCRAT.

A. J. GERRITSON, Editor. MONTROSE, SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY, PA. Thursday, June 16, 1859.

FOR ANNUAL ADVANCE. $1.50 For Annual in Advance. FOR ADVERTISING: RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT, Philada.

FOR ADVERTISING: JOHN ROWE, Philada. BLANKS. JUSTICES' Dunning Letters, Warrants, Subpoenas, etc.

The Geese Farmer. Farmers who want a good and very cheap Agricultural paper cannot do better than to take the Geese Farmer.

In addition to the report of the military election which we published last week, we have the following: The 2d Regiment elected Stephen E. Carpenter Colonel, Charles Slocum Lieutenant Colonel, Norman Tingley Major.

Our latest European advices are from Liverpool, dated June 15th. The only news from the seat of war, is that Garibaldi is making some bold movements in Lombardy.

Dr. J. H. Robinson and the New York Mercury. A BRILLIANT ENGAGEMENT. The immense improvement that has exhibited itself, during the past few years, in weekly literature, has received a new impetus from the engagement, by the proprietors of the New York Mercury, of Dr. J. H. Robinson, one of the most popular and talented of American authors.

The brilliant thought, clearness of expression and imaginative tone, and beauty of incident that are the distinguishing features of Dr. Robinson's writings, render him the favorite of all classes of readers; and although the proprietors of the Mercury have engaged him for a term of years, at a higher price than has ever before been paid by any newspaper to any American writer, yet a little reflection will show that they have every reason to be eminently satisfied with the arrangement.

The Ladies' Hand-Book of Fancy and Ornamental Work, comprising Directions and patterns for working in Applique, Bead Work, Braiding, Canvas work, Knitting, Netting, Lacing, Wursted work, Quilting, Patch-work, &c. &c. Illustrated with 262 new Engravings. Compiled from the best authorities by Miss FLORENCE HENLEY, Philadelphia, 1859.

The Ladies' Hand-Book of Fancy and Ornamental Work, comprising Directions and patterns for working in Applique, Bead Work, Braiding, Canvas work, Knitting, Netting, Lacing, Wursted work, Quilting, Patch-work, &c. &c. Illustrated with 262 new Engravings. Compiled from the best authorities by Miss FLORENCE HENLEY, Philadelphia, 1859.

The Ladies' Hand-Book of Fancy and Ornamental Work, comprising Directions and patterns for working in Applique, Bead Work, Braiding, Canvas work, Knitting, Netting, Lacing, Wursted work, Quilting, Patch-work, &c. &c. Illustrated with 262 new Engravings. Compiled from the best authorities by Miss FLORENCE HENLEY, Philadelphia, 1859.

The Ladies' Hand-Book of Fancy and Ornamental Work, comprising Directions and patterns for working in Applique, Bead Work, Braiding, Canvas work, Knitting, Netting, Lacing, Wursted work, Quilting, Patch-work, &c. &c. Illustrated with 262 new Engravings. Compiled from the best authorities by Miss FLORENCE HENLEY, Philadelphia, 1859.

The Ladies' Hand-Book of Fancy and Ornamental Work, comprising Directions and patterns for working in Applique, Bead Work, Braiding, Canvas work, Knitting, Netting, Lacing, Wursted work, Quilting, Patch-work, &c. &c. Illustrated with 262 new Engravings. Compiled from the best authorities by Miss FLORENCE HENLEY, Philadelphia, 1859.

St. Thomas's Herald. A. J. GERRITSON IS COMING LIVE. Written by T. S. Archer, the well known author, of whom it has been truly said, "That dying he has not written a word he would not live."

St. Thomas's Herald. A. J. GERRITSON IS COMING LIVE. Written by T. S. Archer, the well known author, of whom it has been truly said, "That dying he has not written a word he would not live."

The Peoples State Convention. HARRISBURG, June 8.—The Convention of the Peoples State Convention, held at Harrisburg, Pa., on the 8th inst., was called to order by Henry M. Fuller, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

The Peoples State Convention. HARRISBURG, June 8.—The Convention of the Peoples State Convention, held at Harrisburg, Pa., on the 8th inst., was called to order by Henry M. Fuller, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

The Peoples State Convention. HARRISBURG, June 8.—The Convention of the Peoples State Convention, held at Harrisburg, Pa., on the 8th inst., was called to order by Henry M. Fuller, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

The Peoples State Convention. HARRISBURG, June 8.—The Convention of the Peoples State Convention, held at Harrisburg, Pa., on the 8th inst., was called to order by Henry M. Fuller, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

The Peoples State Convention. HARRISBURG, June 8.—The Convention of the Peoples State Convention, held at Harrisburg, Pa., on the 8th inst., was called to order by Henry M. Fuller, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

The Peoples State Convention. HARRISBURG, June 8.—The Convention of the Peoples State Convention, held at Harrisburg, Pa., on the 8th inst., was called to order by Henry M. Fuller, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

The Peoples State Convention. HARRISBURG, June 8.—The Convention of the Peoples State Convention, held at Harrisburg, Pa., on the 8th inst., was called to order by Henry M. Fuller, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

The Peoples State Convention. HARRISBURG, June 8.—The Convention of the Peoples State Convention, held at Harrisburg, Pa., on the 8th inst., was called to order by Henry M. Fuller, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

Regarding the Proslavery. Whenever a man finds it necessary to leave the Democratic party for the party's good, he is certain of being warmly welcomed into the embraces of whatever political organization may be arrayed against the Democracy.

Regarding the Proslavery. Whenever a man finds it necessary to leave the Democratic party for the party's good, he is certain of being warmly welcomed into the embraces of whatever political organization may be arrayed against the Democracy.

Regarding the Proslavery. Whenever a man finds it necessary to leave the Democratic party for the party's good, he is certain of being warmly welcomed into the embraces of whatever political organization may be arrayed against the Democracy.

Regarding the Proslavery. Whenever a man finds it necessary to leave the Democratic party for the party's good, he is certain of being warmly welcomed into the embraces of whatever political organization may be arrayed against the Democracy.

Regarding the Proslavery. Whenever a man finds it necessary to leave the Democratic party for the party's good, he is certain of being warmly welcomed into the embraces of whatever political organization may be arrayed against the Democracy.

Regarding the Proslavery. Whenever a man finds it necessary to leave the Democratic party for the party's good, he is certain of being warmly welcomed into the embraces of whatever political organization may be arrayed against the Democracy.

Regarding the Proslavery. Whenever a man finds it necessary to leave the Democratic party for the party's good, he is certain of being warmly welcomed into the embraces of whatever political organization may be arrayed against the Democracy.

Regarding the Proslavery. Whenever a man finds it necessary to leave the Democratic party for the party's good, he is certain of being warmly welcomed into the embraces of whatever political organization may be arrayed against the Democracy.

Regarding the Proslavery. Whenever a man finds it necessary to leave the Democratic party for the party's good, he is certain of being warmly welcomed into the embraces of whatever political organization may be arrayed against the Democracy.

Regarding the Proslavery. Whenever a man finds it necessary to leave the Democratic party for the party's good, he is certain of being warmly welcomed into the embraces of whatever political organization may be arrayed against the Democracy.

Significant. David Taggart, Esq., in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Black Republican Convention, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, was quite complimentary to Walker and Douglas, Forney and Hickman, Haskin and Clark, declaring that "some of these have shown themselves sounder at the heart and truer of spirit than we (the Republicans) could give them credit for being."

Significant. David Taggart, Esq., in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Black Republican Convention, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, was quite complimentary to Walker and Douglas, Forney and Hickman, Haskin and Clark, declaring that "some of these have shown themselves sounder at the heart and truer of spirit than we (the Republicans) could give them credit for being."

Significant. David Taggart, Esq., in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Black Republican Convention, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, was quite complimentary to Walker and Douglas, Forney and Hickman, Haskin and Clark, declaring that "some of these have shown themselves sounder at the heart and truer of spirit than we (the Republicans) could give them credit for being."

Significant. David Taggart, Esq., in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Black Republican Convention, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, was quite complimentary to Walker and Douglas, Forney and Hickman, Haskin and Clark, declaring that "some of these have shown themselves sounder at the heart and truer of spirit than we (the Republicans) could give them credit for being."

Significant. David Taggart, Esq., in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Black Republican Convention, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, was quite complimentary to Walker and Douglas, Forney and Hickman, Haskin and Clark, declaring that "some of these have shown themselves sounder at the heart and truer of spirit than we (the Republicans) could give them credit for being."

Significant. David Taggart, Esq., in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Black Republican Convention, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, was quite complimentary to Walker and Douglas, Forney and Hickman, Haskin and Clark, declaring that "some of these have shown themselves sounder at the heart and truer of spirit than we (the Republicans) could give them credit for being."

Significant. David Taggart, Esq., in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Black Republican Convention, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, was quite complimentary to Walker and Douglas, Forney and Hickman, Haskin and Clark, declaring that "some of these have shown themselves sounder at the heart and truer of spirit than we (the Republicans) could give them credit for being."

Significant. David Taggart, Esq., in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Black Republican Convention, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, was quite complimentary to Walker and Douglas, Forney and Hickman, Haskin and Clark, declaring that "some of these have shown themselves sounder at the heart and truer of spirit than we (the Republicans) could give them credit for being."

Significant. David Taggart, Esq., in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Black Republican Convention, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, was quite complimentary to Walker and Douglas, Forney and Hickman, Haskin and Clark, declaring that "some of these have shown themselves sounder at the heart and truer of spirit than we (the Republicans) could give them credit for being."

Significant. David Taggart, Esq., in his speech on taking the chair as President of the Black Republican Convention, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, was quite complimentary to Walker and Douglas, Forney and Hickman, Haskin and Clark, declaring that "some of these have shown themselves sounder at the heart and truer of spirit than we (the Republicans) could give them credit for being."

The Battle of Montebello. The details of the battle of Montebello are quite conflicting, especially as to the strength of the forces employed. Austrian accounts place the number of the French as high as 40,000 men!

The Battle of Montebello. The details of the battle of Montebello are quite conflicting, especially as to the strength of the forces employed. Austrian accounts place the number of the French as high as 40,000 men!

The Battle of Montebello. The details of the battle of Montebello are quite conflicting, especially as to the strength of the forces employed. Austrian accounts place the number of the French as high as 40,000 men!

The Battle of Montebello. The details of the battle of Montebello are quite conflicting, especially as to the strength of the forces employed. Austrian accounts place the number of the French as high as 40,000 men!

The Battle of Montebello. The details of the battle of Montebello are quite conflicting, especially as to the strength of the forces employed. Austrian accounts place the number of the French as high as 40,000 men!

The Battle of Montebello. The details of the battle of Montebello are quite conflicting, especially as to the strength of the forces employed. Austrian accounts place the number of the French as high as 40,000 men!

The Battle of Montebello. The details of the battle of Montebello are quite conflicting, especially as to the strength of the forces employed. Austrian accounts place the number of the French as high as 40,000 men!

The Battle of Montebello. The details of the battle of Montebello are quite conflicting, especially as to the strength of the forces employed. Austrian accounts place the number of the French as high as 40,000 men!

The Battle of Montebello. The details of the battle of Montebello are quite conflicting, especially as to the strength of the forces employed. Austrian accounts place the number of the French as high as 40,000 men!

The Battle of Montebello. The details of the battle of Montebello are quite conflicting, especially as to the strength of the forces employed. Austrian accounts place the number of the French as high as 40,000 men!

The Pioneer Society of the Chemung and Susquehanna Valleys met at Wilkshar on the 1st inst., Col. G. M. Hollenback, President, and Ziba Bennett, Esq. of Luzerne, and Col. W. J. Scott, of Northumberland, Vice President, a letter from the Hon. Chas. Mizer, was read, giving his recollections of the prominent men and occurrences of the olden times, or "The first ten years of the Century," James Harris, 93 years of age, and the only male survivor of the Wyoming massacre, favored the audience with many amusing incidents, and some of the trials and hardships of his early life.

The Pioneer Society of the Chemung and Susquehanna Valleys met at Wilkshar on the 1st inst., Col. G. M. Hollenback, President, and Ziba Bennett, Esq. of Luzerne, and Col. W. J. Scott, of Northumberland, Vice President, a letter from the Hon. Chas. Mizer, was read, giving his recollections of the prominent men and occurrences of the olden times, or "The first ten years of the Century," James Harris, 93 years of age, and the only male survivor of the Wyoming massacre, favored the audience with many amusing incidents, and some of the trials and hardships of his early life.

The Pioneer Society of the Chemung and Susquehanna Valleys met at Wilkshar on the 1st inst., Col. G. M. Hollenback, President, and Ziba Bennett, Esq. of Luzerne, and Col. W. J. Scott, of Northumberland, Vice President, a letter from the Hon. Chas. Mizer, was read, giving his recollections of the prominent men and occurrences of the olden times, or "The first ten years of the Century," James Harris, 93 years of age, and the only male survivor of the Wyoming massacre, favored the audience with many amusing incidents, and some of the trials and hardships of his early life.

The Pioneer Society of the Chemung and Susquehanna Valleys met at Wilkshar on the 1st inst., Col. G. M. Hollenback, President, and Ziba Bennett, Esq. of Luzerne, and Col. W. J. Scott, of Northumberland, Vice President, a letter from the Hon. Chas. Mizer, was read, giving his recollections of the prominent men and occurrences of the olden times, or "The first ten years of the Century," James Harris, 93 years of age, and the only male survivor of the Wyoming massacre, favored the audience with many amusing incidents, and some of the trials and hardships of his early life.

The Pioneer Society of the Chemung and Susquehanna Valleys met at Wilkshar on the 1st inst., Col. G. M. Hollenback, President, and Ziba Bennett, Esq. of Luzerne, and Col. W. J. Scott, of Northumberland, Vice President, a letter from the Hon. Chas. Mizer, was read, giving his recollections of the prominent men and occurrences of the olden times, or "The first ten years of the Century," James Harris, 93 years of age, and the only male survivor of the Wyoming massacre, favored the audience with many amusing incidents, and some of the trials and hardships of his early life.

The Pioneer Society of the Chemung and Susquehanna Valleys met at Wilkshar on the 1st inst., Col. G. M. Hollenback, President, and Ziba Bennett, Esq. of Luzerne, and Col. W. J. Scott, of Northumberland, Vice President, a letter from the Hon. Chas. Mizer, was read, giving his recollections of the prominent men and occurrences of the olden times, or "The first ten years of the Century," James Harris, 93 years of age, and the only male survivor of the Wyoming massacre, favored the audience with many amusing incidents, and some of the trials and hardships of his early life.

The Pioneer Society of the Chemung and Susquehanna Valleys met at Wilkshar on the 1st inst., Col. G. M. Hollenback, President, and Ziba Bennett, Esq. of Luzerne, and Col. W. J. Scott, of Northumberland, Vice President, a letter from the Hon. Chas. Mizer, was read, giving his recollections of the prominent men and occurrences of the olden times, or "The first ten years of the Century," James Harris, 93 years of age, and the only male survivor of the Wyoming massacre, favored the audience with many amusing incidents, and some of the trials and hardships of his early life.

The Pioneer Society of the Chemung and Susquehanna Valleys met at Wilkshar on the 1st inst., Col. G. M. Hollenback, President, and Ziba Bennett, Esq. of Luzerne, and Col. W. J. Scott, of Northumberland, Vice President, a letter from the Hon. Chas. Mizer, was read, giving his recollections of the prominent men and occurrences of the olden times, or "The first ten years of the Century," James Harris, 93 years of age, and the only male survivor of the Wyoming massacre, favored the audience with many amusing incidents, and some of the trials and hardships of his early life.

The Pioneer Society of the Chemung and Susquehanna Valleys met at Wilkshar on the 1st inst., Col. G. M. Hollenback, President, and Ziba Bennett, Esq. of Luzerne, and Col. W. J. Scott, of Northumberland, Vice President, a letter from the Hon. Chas. Mizer, was read, giving his recollections of the prominent men and occurrences of the olden times, or "The first ten years of the Century," James Harris, 93 years of age, and the only male survivor of the Wyoming massacre, favored the audience with many amusing incidents, and some of the trials and hardships of his early life.

The Pioneer Society of the Chemung and Susquehanna Valleys met at Wilkshar on the 1st inst., Col. G. M. Hollenback, President, and Ziba Bennett, Esq. of Luzerne, and Col. W. J. Scott, of Northumberland, Vice President, a letter from the Hon. Chas. Mizer, was read, giving his recollections of the prominent men and occurrences of the olden times, or "The first ten years of the Century," James Harris, 93 years of age, and the only male survivor of the Wyoming massacre, favored the audience with many amusing incidents, and some of the trials and hardships of his early life.

DR. J. H. ROBINSON ON THE NORTHERN TRAPPING GROUNDS; NICK WHIFFLES "IN THE PION NEWSPAPERS AGAIN BY MIGHTY!"

THE NEW-YORK MERCURY For Saturday, June 25, 1859. (now ready at all News Depots and Book Stores.) Will contain the initial chapters of a new Western Tale from the graceful and felicitous pen of DR. J. H. ROBINSON, who has been engaged to write exclusively for that journal for a term of years. The Story is entitled "PATHWAY;" OR, THE MOUNTAIN OUTLAWS; A TALE OF THE NORTHERN TRAPPING GROUNDS.

And is considered by the Author to be the very best work which has yet been produced. Those who know the Dramatic power and ELEGANT STYLE, the interesting situations and BEAUTY OF INCIDENT, which have rendered famous all the writings of the AUTHOR OF "BUCK BISON," cannot but hail with delight this new emanation from his pen.

The Trapping Grounds of the NORTH, AND WEST, form a peculiarly favorable field for the location and working out of a romance, and the character and quaint drollery that will render it irresistible to the lovers of fun and the student of human nature.

In addition to this attraction, the plot will be found more IMPROVEDLY INTERESTING, and DRAMATIC INTEREST, than any other story the author has yet written. It is full of Wild Life and Action, crowded with stirring incident and PERILOUS ADVENTURE; and through the whole story runs the underplot which interweaves a GOLDEN-THREADED WOOF of sentiment, tinting all with the radiant light of the GENTLE CHARM OF LOVE.

The most exciting and picturesque scenes of PATHWAY; will be chosen as the themes for a series of BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS, from the pen of the most celebrated of all the American Artists, FELIX O. C. DARLEY, whose drawings have made THE NEW-YORK MERCURY such a favorite with all who appreciate fine artistic excellence.

The clear and vivid style of Dr. J. H. Robinson's descriptive writing is such that the artist can seize upon his creations without difficulty, and thus the best powers of the pen and pencil are united.

The proprietors of the MERCURY are proud of the popularity which the journal has attained, and cannot but take some little credit to themselves for the good which they believe they have done in carrying out the first intention—to make THE NEW-YORK MERCURY a medium for the familiarization of the reading public with the works of the most DISTINGUISHED AMERICAN AUTHORS.

To secure this end, they have spared no expense; and whether they have thought could gratify the tastes of their THOU SANDS OF READERS they have done without questioning either the labor or expenditure required. For the EXCLUSIVE RIGHT to the works of DR. J. H. ROBINSON, they pay a larger sum than any American publisher has ever before received from any newspaper; and the public are already aware of the great outlay necessary for the engagement of such men as BAFFORD TAYLOR, FELIX O. C. DARLEY, GEORGE ALBANY, and others. Yet it is believed that the increasing REFERENCE OF THE POPULAR MIND demands such men, and the MERCURY is intended to keep up with the progress of the Age. A series of BRILLIANT NOVELTIES will appear in the columns of this Journal of AMERICAN LITERATURE in rapid succession, and while the proprietors are eminently well satisfied with the share of popularity hitherto accorded to them, they are determined to derive still more by using every means possible to increase the attractions of their paper.

THE NEW-YORK MERCURY FOR JUNE 25, Containing the First Chapters of PATHWAY; OR, THE MOUNTAIN OUTLAWS BY DR. J. H. ROBINSON, in now ready at all the News Depots. SUBSCRIPTION TERMS.—$2 a year, three copies $5, eight copies $12, with a gratis copy to the getter up of the Club. Address CAULDWELL, SOUTHWORTH & WHITNEY, Proprietors New-York Mercury, New-York City. NEWS OFFICE. THE New York City Illustrated Newspaper, Magazines, &c. &c. for sale at the MONTROSE BOOK STORE. A. N. BULLARD.