We learn that in several instances, recently, the Democrat has not been reo'd at some of the Post Offices in the North Eastern part of the county. As we publish and mail the paper very regularly, these repeated failures are the result of gross neglect, or of malicious mischief on the part of somebody on the route. The bundles are taken from the mails and detained or destroyed. If we detect the offender, he will have opportunity to learn other business.

The boiler of the locomotive Virginia, belonging to the Delaware, Lackawauna and Western Railroad, exploded in the vard at Scranton, about 1 o'clock Monday afternoon. Robert Stowel, the engineer, John Brewn, fireman, Mr. Swartz, formerly of Moscow, Pa., Patrick Welsh and William Allen, were killed. The engine is a complete wreck. The cause of the explosion was a pressure of steam.

For several days the daily papers have been filled with lengthy reports of the troubles at Harper's Ferry. We insert a condensed report in our columns. Seward, Giddings, Burlingame, and others, who shape the policy of the opposition in the North. The letters found upon Brown show that J. R. Giddings and others furnished mones to pay the expenses of the wicked plot. It is said that Fred. Douglass has fled to escape the hemp difficulty; but we trust no one who his side. has been an accessory will be allowed to go unstrung.
