From the Editor's Preface.
"A man may not only 'take on one life,' but by writing his Autobiography, without com-pulsing le dieu that may be his, into the future time, by producing a book which the world will not willingly let die. This is what Mr. Robert-Houdin, the great artist in what is called Conjuring, has lately done in the remarkable book Confidence d'un Prestigiateur, a faithful translation of which is here presented to the American reading public.

The work is the greatest success in Europe, from its lively style as well as the variety of information it contains, historical and philosophical. On the practice and principles of magic, the other details, mental as well as mechanical, which unite to make perfect the exhibition of White Magic, the anecdotes of what our forefathers knew, persecuted and punished as the Black Art.

"Without any excessive intention, we might show that the Conjurer was really a man of greater ability than many a successful author.
On the whole we can recommend these Memoirs of Robert-Houdin as the pleasant reading."

History of the Early Settlement of Kentucky.
With accounts of the Hardships and Adventures of the Pioneer, to which is added COL. BOONE'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY COMPLETE, As dictated to John Wilson and first published in 1784.
"Greatest Daniel Boone was one of the most remarkable men that this country has produced. His character was original and influential in one of the most interesting periods of our history—that of the early settlement of Kentucky. Boone is generally acknowledged as the founder of that State, having explored it alone to a considerable extent, leading the earliest settlers; founding its first towns, being defended the stations successfully against the Indians, and the prominent part which he took in military affairs of this period of distress and peril, certainly render his claims to the honor of the title founder of Kentucky very strong." Handsome bound in one volume, 12mo., cloth, and illustrated with fine engravings.
Price $1.00.
Copies of either of the above books with a handsome Gift, worth from $30 cents to man's Pills, Prepared by Cornelius L. Chaceman, New York City. The combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, disturbed sleep, which arises from interruption of nature.

TO HARRIED LADIES, these Pills are unval-uable, as they will bring on the monthly period with regularity. Ladies who have been disappointed in the use of other pills, can place the most confident reliance on Dr. Chaceman's Pills, as they are represented to do.
NOTICE.—They should not be used during pregnancy, as a miscarriage would certainly result therefrom.

any injurious to life or health. Explicit directions, which should be read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosboth new and old. The work is highly recommended by Hon. S. D. C. Wilmot, Wm.

Jesup, U. Burrows, C. E. Read, E. B. Streetor, and by nearly all the Attorneys of the county.
The Attorneys in their testimonials say that a strict economy, saying nothing of the great convenience of the work, will, in our judgment, induce every Justice in the county to purchase the book as soon as it is examined by them.
It is substantially bound, and contains six quires of good paper, and is sold at the uniform price of $6. Call and see it at the Montrose Book Store. Orders by mail from any part of the county or state, enclosing the cash, promptly attended to, and the work sent by express, or as directed by the purchaser.

SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY
CLASSICAL AND NORMAL SCHOOL, At Montrose, Pa., for 1859.
THE Trustees are happy to announce to the public that the next term of this popular and successful school will commence on the 23rd day of August, next, under the able and able management of Prof. HARRY BRODHEAD, B. A., a graduate of Yale College, Principal, assisted by a corps of competent instructors in the various departments. The trustees would refer to the patrons of the school, and to the following testimonials from the President and Professors of Yale College:
YALE COLLEGE, June 24, 1859.
Mr. Harry Brodhead, a member of the class about to be graduated at Yale College, has held a high rank in the class as a scholar. So far as I am acquainted with it, his moral character, and habits, are irreproachable.
THOMAS D. WOOLSEY, President.
Mr. H. Brodhead, who belongs to the graduate class of this year, has shown himself during the two years of his connection with the college, a capable and successful scholar. He has applied himself to the work of instruction, I have no doubt of his ability to justify the confidence and satisfy the expectations of any who may have entrusted to him the duties of a teacher.
JAS. HADLEY, Prof. of Greek.
Mr. H. Brodhead of the class of 1859, in Yale College, is a good scholar, and has a superior command of the English language. He is a patient and successful teacher, and makes an efficient and valuable member of the faculty.
I have great confidence that he will not disappoint his patrons.
NASH PORTER,
Prof. of Philosophy and Metaphysics.
Mr. H. Brodhead has just finished his course of collegiate education and will receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the approaching commencement. As he proposes to be engaged for a time in the business of teaching, he cheerfully consents to be understood as a person well qualified by his scholarship and attainments, by his christian character and deportment to be successful in the instruction and government of a school.
