

from any quarter. I will pursue the invaders wherever they may go into any territory, and punish them wherever arms can reach them.

I shall send copies of this to the Governors of Maryland, Ohio, and Pennsylvania.

With due respect and consideration,

Yours truly,
HENRY A. WISE.

[Telegraphic reply of Gov. Packer to Gov. Wise.]

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA.—Ex. Chamber, Harrisburg, Dec. 1, '59.]

To His Excellency, the Governor of Virginia:

Sir:—Your letter of the 25th, having been sent to Harrisburg, Va., was not received until this morning. Of all the derado to whom you refer, not a man, so far as I can learn, was a citizen of Pennsylvania; nor was their rendezvous, (which you say was unobstructed by guard or otherwise,) in this State, but in Maryland or Virginia.

In relation to them, Pennsylvania has done her duty. Virginia has no right to anticipate that she will not do so in the future.

The information you have received in relation to a conspiracy to return John Brown, will, undoubtedly, be found, in the sequel, utterly and entirely without foundation, so far as Pennsylvania is concerned. Nor will we permit any portion of our territory, along our borders, or elsewhere, to be made a depo-nitzvous, or a refuge for lawless despera-tes, from other States, who may seek to make war upon our Southern neighbors.

When that contingency shall happen, the constitutional and confederate duty of Pennsylvania shall be performed; and, under all circumstances, she will take care to see that her honor is fully vindicated.

WM. F. PACKER.

THE MONTROSE DEMOCRAT.

MONTROSE, SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY, PA.

Thursday, Jan. 12, 1860.

As we are indebted to Hon. George D. Jackson, for public documents.

Some communications are deferred, this week—as well as last—to make room for the message.

Such of our subscribers as reside out of the county, will please remember that we expect advance payments from them. Remittances are now due from several. Gold dollars, and the change in three-cent postage stamps, or the whole amount in stamps, may be sent safely by mail.

A chance for All.

We would suggest that Court week will be an excellent time for our patrons to call, or send, and pay the Printer.

Hints to Horse-Keers.—This is a complete manual for horsemen; embracing how to breed, buy, break, use, feed, physio, groom, drive, and ride a horse, and chapters on mules and ponies. By Henry William Herald, better known as Frank Forrest. It also contains additions, including "Katy's Meetum of Horseman," also giving directions for the selection and care of carriages and harness of every description, and a Memoir of the Author. Beautifully illustrated.

This work cannot fail to be of use to every one who owns, or expects to own a horse; and especially to those who like to have good sound, and well-bred horses this work must prove valuable. Price, $1.25.

YOLATT AND SPOONER ON THE HORSE.—

This work contains the most important parts of the English edition of "Yolatt on the Horse," with additions by W. C. Spooner, with a prefix treating of the breeds in the United States, by Henry S. Randall. With numerous illustrations. The universal popularity and pre-eminence in the public favor, both in this country and in England, of Mr.

Yolatt's work on the horse, is well known, and this, with the fact that it has had a wide federal circulation in America than any other veterinary work is enough to recommend it to every farrier or owner of a horse. Price $1.25.

THE FARMER AT HOME.—This is in reality a cyclopedia of the more important topics in modern agriculture, natural history, and domestic economy. By John L. Blake D. D.

The author of this work believes that the land should be cultivated and improved as well as the soil; and the present volume is well designed to assist the farmer in being at home in his avocation. To make the reverse of the former radiant with intelligence and enlightened conversation, on topics relating to rural life and domestic economy, has been the aim and object of the author; and from what we have examined it we think he has done much towards the end he had in view.

Price, $1.25.
