The Township Elections. The elections for township officers, which will be held on Friday, the 17th, should be attended by every voter. Let the best mentaking all things into consideration—be selected; those who are willing and competent to perform the required duties promptly and faithfully. There is a too prevalent idea that township offices are of so little importance, and so unremunerative, that any one will do to fill them. The practical result of Taggard & Chase have recently published a this idea is injurious to communities, to a new edition of Mrs. Cornelius' "Housekeepconsiderable extent, as the experience of many townships has shown. COUNTY FINANCES .- The annual county statement may be found in our columns to what becomes of their money. An extra certificate from the Auditors will be observed .--As to the correctness of the accounts, we leave all to look to the books and vouchers for evidence; but for the neat and well arranged style of the manuscript statement, a Printers' compliment is justly due to Mr. Crossmon, the Clerk. Neat, carefully prepared "copy" is one of the few choice favors that fall to the "craft:" and we trust that while we have anything to do with the type: setting or proof-reading of County Statements, the Commissioners will retain a Clerk of Mr. Crossmon's excellent qualifications.

FIRE. The barn of N. C. Warner, 11 miles east of the town was burnt down on Saturday night, last. The tenant living on the farm was arrested on suspicion of burning it, but was discharged for want of evidence to send him up for trial. The examination was before Justices Avery and Johnson.

SIGNIFICANT.-John W. Forney was setenaded by the Republicans on Friday night last, at Washington, when he made a speech in defence of his new party. He will without doubt support the Chicago nominee for President; be it Seward or Fred. Douglass.

A Speaker Elected.

We have the pleasure of aunonneing, to day, that Congress has finally organized; the House having elected a Speaker on Wednesday last. Mr Pennington'is a "Republican" of moderate views, and very moderate abilities-one of the least capable men in the House. He was chosen by the combination of Helperites, Anti-Lecomptonites and "proslavery" Know Nothings,-Henry Winter Davis, of Maryland, who was elected by the aid of open violence and murder, giving the one majority required. Although an opposition triumph, the result is a great moral victory for the National Democracy. At the opening of the session, when the Helperites nominated Sherman, and Clark, of Mo., offered a resolution declaring any man who endorsed the cut throat doctrines of the "Impending crisis," unfit to be Speaker, the issue arose that has just been settled, which was, not whether an opponent of the administration should be elected-for that was almost a foregone conclusion but whether one cliffe with that of Walter Scott, he never loof the 68 who had signed the infamous circular, advocating as rank treason to the country as could well be expressed in words, bis diaracters. A Great Christity.

Charles S. Gilbert, Esq., has in his possess on, at Great Bend, this county, the greatest curiosity on record; it was found in the woods near that place. It is a pair of deer's torns, firmly imbedded at the centre, in the body of a dogwood sapling. The wood is about 31 inches in diameter where the horns are connected, and it is also somewhat enlarged at the point of intersection. The horns were about twenty feet from the ground.
