Postmasters at offices of or near railroads hut more than eighty fods from a station, will, immediately after the 31st of March next, report their exact distance from the nearest sta-tion, and how they are otherwise supplied with the mail, to enable the Postmaster General to direct a mail-messenger supply from the 1st of July next. 19. Section eighteen of an act of Congress approved March 3, 1845, provides that contracts for the transportation of the mails shall be let "in every case to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guaranties for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transpor tation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty, and security of such transportation." Under this law, bids that propose to transport the mail with "celerity, cer-tainty, and security," having been decided to be the only legal bids, are construed as providing for the entire mail, however large, and whatever may be the mode of conveyance necessary to insure its "celerity, certainty, and security," and will have the preference over all others. 20. A modification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new hid and cannot be received, so as to interfere with a regular competition, after the last hour set for receiving bids. Making a new bid, with guar-anty and certificate, is the only way to modify a revious bid.
