

The Montrose Democrat.

"WE JOIN OURSELVES TO NO PARTY THAT DOES NOT CARRY THE FLAG AND KEEP STEP TO THE MUSIC OF THE UNION."

A. J. GERRITSON, PUBLISHER.

MONROSE, PA., FEBRUARY 16, 1860.

VOLUME XVII, NUMBER 7.

P. LINES.
FASHIONABLE TAILOR, Montrose, Pa.
Shop in the Brick Block, over Read & Co's Store. All work warranted, as fit and finish.

ALFRED HAND,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
Montrose, Pa. Will attend to all business entrusted to him, with fidelity and dispatch. May be found at the office of W. & W. H. Jessup, Esqs.

S. H. SAYRE & Brother,
MANUFACTURERS of Mill Castings, and Castings of all kinds, Stoves, Tin and Sheet Iron Ware, Agricultural Implements, and Dealers in Dry Goods, Groceries, Crockery, &c. Montrose, Pa., November 16th, 1859.

Guttenberg, Rosenbaum & Co.,
DEALERS in Ready-made Clothing, Ladies' Dress Goods, Furnishing Goods, &c. etc. Store at No. 24 Dey St., New York City, and in Towanda, Montrose, and Susquehanna, Pa.

L. B. ISBELL,
REPAIRS Clocks, Watches, &c. Jewelry, at short notice, and on reasonable terms. All work warranted. Shop in Chandler & Jessup's store, Montrose, Pa. [oc251f.]

DR. E. W. WELLS
HAVING permanently located in Dundaff offers his professional services to all who may require them. Also keeps constantly on hand a full stock of Drugs and Medicines, Pure Wines and Liquors for Medical purposes. [ap7-6m.]

DRs. Blakeoske & Brush,
HAVE associated themselves for the prosecution of the duties of their profession, and respectfully offer their professional services to the Inland Public. Office at the residence of Dr. Blakeoske, midway between the villages of Dimock and Springville. [oc251f.]

HAYDEN BROTHERS
WHOLESALE DEALERS in Buttons, Combs, Watches, Jewelry, Silver and Plated Ware, Cutlery, Fishing Tackle, Cigars, &c. etc. No. 100 North Second St., Philadelphia, Pa. Wholesale and Retail, supplied on liberal terms. [waf.]

HENRY B. MCKEAN,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
Office in the Union Block—Towanda, Brad.

DR. H. SMITH,
SURGEON DENTIST. Residence and office opposite the Baptist Church (north side) Montrose. Particular attention will be given to inserting teeth in gold and silver plate, and to filling decaying teeth.

ABEL TURRELL,
DEALER in Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Dyestuffs, Glass-ware, Paints, Oils, Varnish, Window Glass, Groceries, Fancy Goods, Jewelry, Perfumery, &c.—And Agent for all the most popular Patent Medicines, Montrose, Pa.

DR. E. F. WILMOT,
GRADUATE of the Allopathic and Homoeopathic Colleges of Medicine, Gt. Bend, Pa. Office, corner of Main and Elizabeth-sts., nearly opposite the Methodist Church.

Wm. H. Cooper & Co.,
BANKERS, Successors to POST, COOPER & CO., Montrose, Pa. Office Latrobe's Store, opposite the Fire Office.

C. O. FORDHAM,
MANUFACTURER OF BOOTS & SHOES,
At Montrose, Pa. Shop over Tyler's Store. All kinds of work made to order and repairing done neatly. [jel.]

Wm. W. SMITH & CO.,
CABINET and Chair Manufacturers, foot of Main Street, Montrose, Pa. aug11f

DR. G. Z. DIMOCK,
PHYSICIAN and Surgeon. Office over Williams' store; Lodgings at Seale's Hotel.

DR. JOHN W. COBB,
PHYSICIAN and Surgeon. Office on Public Avenue, opposite Seale's Hotel, Montrose.

DR. R. THAYER,
PHYSICIAN and Surgeon, Montrose Pa.—Office in the Farmer's Store.

JOHN GROVES,
FASHIONABLE Tailor. Shop near the Baptist Meeting House, on Turnpike street, Montrose, Pa. [ag11f.]

NEWS OFFICE.
THE New York City Illustrated, Newspapers, Magazines, &c. etc., for sale at the Montrose Book Store, by N. B. BILLIARD.

P. REYNOLDS,
FASHIONABLE TAILOR. Shop in basement of Seale's Hotel, Montrose, Pa.

C. D. VIRGIL,
RESIDENT DENTIST, Montrose. Office at the Franklin House, room No. 3. Filling and inserting teeth in Gold and Silver Plate done in the most approved modern style. His Plates are absolutely water-tight, no interstices where food can lodge. [no34]

CHARLES MORRIS,
BARBER and Hair Dresser. Shop No. 3 in basement of Seale's Hotel, Montrose, Pa.

MEAT MARKET?
On Public Avenue, near Seale's Hotel. KEEP constantly on hand a good supply of MEATS of all kinds. CASH paid for Beef Cattle, Calves, Sheep, and Lambs. Also for Hides of all kinds. HENSTOCK & HAWLEY. T. HENSTOCK, Montrose, March 30th, 1859.

H. GARRATT,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN FLOUR, GRAIN, SALT, &c. NEW MILFORD, Pa.—Sale Room, PRATT'S OFFICE. WILL keep constantly on hand the best brands of FLOUR—by the Sack or Hundred Barrels—at the lowest market prices. Also, SALT—by the Single Barrel or Load. All orders from Merchants and Dealers will be promptly attended to. *Cash paid for Grain, Wool, Pelts, Hides, and all Farmers' Produce in their season.

BILLINGS STROUD,
FIRE and LIFE INSURANCE AGENT, Montrose, Pa.

TESTIMONIALS.
We, the undersigned, certify that we were insured in Fire Insurance Companies represented by Mr. Billings Stroud, of Montrose, and that, having suffered loss by fire while so insured, we were severally paid by said companies to the full extent of our claims; and we have confidence in him as a good and effective agent. JAS. R. DEWITT, EUGENE COBB, LATHROP & DEWITT, H. J. WEBB, F. B. CHANDLER, J. LYONS & SON, HENRY GLIDDER, LORRAINE SEAR, Montrose, Pa., November 14th, 1859.

Patronize those that advertise.

SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY CLASSICAL & NORMAL SCHOOL, Montrose, Pa., 1860.

THE Trustees would present the following circumstances, in regard to this Institution, in confirmation of its claims upon the favor of the public:

It is not a literary institution of doubtful reputation, but has long enjoyed the most favorable patronage of the public.

It is situated, not amid the distractions and dissipation of a city, nor is it yet removed from the influences of refined society, but is located at the County Seat, Montrose, where few places are more fully supplied with wholesome and Christian influences for youth.

The Institution is now under the direction of PROF. H. BRODHEAD, B. A., a gentleman in whose ability, learning, and character almost confidence is warranted by the accompanying testimonials from literary agents than which there is none higher—the President and Professors of Yale College, of which Institution Prof. Brodhead is also an alumnus.

Provision will be made in the ensuing term, not merely for the study of the classics, but for all the departments of a common or classical education; for Normal scholars in a separate class; for children in a Primary Department; and for young men who desire to pursue the study of Music, French, German, Greek, Latin, or Higher Mathematics.

We therefore fully recommend the Susquehanna Classical and Normal School to the parents and youths of our State and all who take an interest in the advancement of Education.

WM. JESSUP, Pres't Board of Trustees. C. F. READ, Secretary.

The next Term of this Institution will begin TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14th, 1860, at which time it is expected that all the students will be present. We are prepared to fit students for any class in any American College, and will accept a special class for Teachers. Lectures on scientific subjects will be given each week during the term. The bills must be paid at the end of the eighth week of the Term. Text Books unchanged.

PRICE OF TUITION, per Term of 11 weeks: Normal Department, $6.00; Primary do., $5.00; In English Branches, and Latin or Greek, 9.00; Greek or Latin, each, 4.00; French, German, 5.00; Music on Piano, 8.00. Students wishing to procure rooms, or board, can be accommodated by writing to the Principal, and those wishing to board themselves can obtain suitable and familiar board from the Trustees, on reasonable terms. Price of Board from $2.00 to $2.50 per week.

H. BRODHEAD, Principal. Montrose, Feb. 15th, 1860.—It.

TESTIMONIALS.
YALE COLLEGE, June 24, 1859. Mr. Henry Brodhead, a member of the class lately graduated at Yale College, has held a high rank in the class as a scholar. So far as we are acquainted with him, his moral character, and habits, are irreproachable.

THOMAS D. WOOLSEY, President. Mr. H. Brodhead, who belongs to the graduating class of 1859, has shown himself during his residence at this Institution, to be a capable and successful scholar. He has applied himself to the work of instruction, I have no doubt of his ability to justify the confidence and satisfy the expectations of any who may avail themselves of his services.

JAS. LATHROP, Jr., of Greek. Mr. H. Brodhead of the class of 1859, in Yale College, is a good scholar, and has a superior mind. I have little doubt that he will make an efficient and successful teacher, and can command successful in the instruction and government of a school.

NOAH PORTER, Prof. of Philosophy and Metaphysics. Mr. H. Brodhead has just finished his course of collegiate education and received the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the annual commencement. As he proposes to be engaged for a time in the business of teaching, he is cheerfully recommended by the undersigned as a person well qualified by his scholarship and attainments, by his Christian character, and by the approval of a school.

THOMAS A. THACHER, Prof. of Latin.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS! AT THE N. Y. BRANCH STORES

Guttenberg, Rosenbaum, & Co., Montrose, Pa. and Susquehanna Depot, Pa.

THE undersigned have provided themselves with a SPLENDID ASSORTMENT of FALL AND WINTER GOODS

which they boast of being the HANDSOMEST AND CHEAPEST in this section of country. They also flatter themselves that they have the best facilities of obtaining Goods Fresh from the Market, and are determined not to be undersold by any firm in this section of N. Y. City. In regard to READY MADE CLOTHING

we would say that being in this business largely at 24 Dey Street, New York City

Guttenberg, Rosenbaum, & Co., Montrose, Pa., October 27th, 1859.

STOVES! STOVES! AT REDUCED PRICES! H. BURRITT

is just receiving a large stock of NEW stoves including a full assortment of Cooking, Parlor, Office, and Shop Stoves, for Wood or Coal. Also, Stove Pipes, Zinc, Stove Tubes, &c. His assortment includes the most select and desirable stoves in market, and will be sold at Reduced Prices for Cash or Prompt Pay. New Milford, November 1st, 1859.

BOOK BINDING.—Old Books, Newspapers, Pamphlets, Magazines, &c., bound up on short notice. J. L. & SON.

For the Democrat. ANNUAL MEETING OF THE Agricultural Society of Susquehanna Co.

The Society met at the Court House on Tuesday evening, Jan. 17th, 1860, pursuant to notice.

On motion Thomas Johnson was called to the chair.

Hon. Wm. Jessup then presented the following report of a crop of winter wheat raised by him upon his farm in Bridgewater. This report was not presented for a premium!

The wheat covered three acres and seventy perches by actual measurement. There was gathered one hundred and one-quarter bushels.

In 1858 a crop of spring wheat was taken from the land and it was seeded with clover. In 1857 and 1858, it was pastured, and in July 1858 the great heat killed nearly all the clover. In August of that year, from fifteen to twenty loads of barnyard manure was put on to the acre, and the latter part of the month it was plowed under. Two bushels of wheat were sown to the acre and it was dragged in.

It was harvested in July, 1859, and threshed in September, and yielded, as above, nearly thirty bushels to the acre. It was Soule's wheat, and very good.

ACCOUNT. 1004 bushels. Deduct 7 bushels seed. 997 bushels at $1.25 per bush. $116 62

Expenses. Plowing three days, $8 00; Dragging and Sowing, 4 00; Hauling manure from yard, 10 00; Harvesting, 6 00; Interest on land, worth $350, 21 00—47 00

Clear profit, $69 62. The straw pays for threshing. The land is a steep side hill, quite rocky and ledge, and originally beech and maple timber land. The wheat was very badly lodged and fallen down the hill, but was cut by Ketchum's reaper in four hours and a half, two men working the machine and two men carrying off the grain. I have again sown the field to wheat after putting about forty bushels of lime to the acre.

Signed, W. Jessup, Jan. 17th, 1860. TREASURER'S ACCOUNT. Susquehanna Co. Agricultural Society in account with A. Lathrop:

Jan. 18, 1859.—To bal. as audited, $116 62; Cash received of S. S. Mott, 3 00; Cash received of Bacon & Weeks, 2 00; Cash received of J. D. Doss for membership, 2 00; Cash received of ground rent, 532 00; Oct. 1.—Cash rec'd of J. S. Tarbell on subscription, 25 00; Cash rec'd of M. C. Tyler, 5 00; Cash rec'd of W. H. Jessup, 10 00; Cash rec'd of Leonard Searle, 25 00; Cash rec'd of L. F. Fitch, 10 00; Cash rec'd of H. Drinker, 25 00; Cash rec'd of B. S. Beutley, 25 00; Cash rec'd of W. J. & S. H. Milford, 25 00; Cash rec'd of B. J. & S. H. Bead, 25 00; Cash rec'd of G. Chapman, 25 00; Cash rec'd of D. Stewart, 2 00; Cash rec'd of H. H. Frazier, 2 50; Cash rec'd of Geo. Walker, 4 00; Cash rec'd of Alfred Baldwin on sub., 25 00; Cash rec'd of Mason Tingley, 1 00; Nov. 14.—County appropriation, 100 00; Cash rec'd of A. Lathrop on sub., 25 00; Cash rec'd of Boyd & Webster, 25 00; Cash rec'd of Wm. Jessup, 25 00; Cash rec'd of John Cox, 25 00; Cash rec'd of Caleb Carson, 25 00; Cash rec'd of Thos. Johnson, 25 00; Cash rec'd of estate of I. Post, dec'd, 100 00; Cash rec'd of A. Frink, 10 00; Cash rec'd of N. C. Warner, 10 00; Cash rec'd of J. D. Drinker, 25 00; Cash rec'd of E. Bacon, 5 00; Cash rec'd of F. B. Chandler, 25 00; Cash rec'd of L. Meacham, 3 00; Cash rec'd of E. H. Rogers, 10 00

$1,327 69

COVINA. By cash paid Post Brothers on contract, $628 00; Boyd & Webster, 24 71; Independent Republican, 14 50; Lathrop & DeWitt, 37 98; Police, doorkeeper, and clerks, 44 00; Thos. Pickety's order, 6 00; Robert Strange's bill, 12 00; D. Pierson, 7 50; D. C. Fordham, 10 00; H. N. Pierson, 17 30; Baldwin & Allen, 14 00; Mott & Tilden, 14 00; Paid premiums, 392 54

RECAPITULATION. Gross amount received to date, $1,327 69; Gross amount paid, 1,268 48

Amount in hands of Treasurer, $59 21. We do certify that we have examined the account of Azor Lathrop, Treasurer, and find it correct.

M. L. CATLIN, J. BALDWIN, Jr., Ex. Com. Jan. 17th, 1860.

The Executive Committee being called upon reported as follows:

The Executive Committee report that they have purchased of Post Brothers, a piece of land for the Susquehanna County Agricultural Society, for which they are to pay one thousand dollars, $1,000 00. They have paid Post Brothers by subscriptions, $828 00; Subscriptions unpaid, 80 00; A. Lathrop will take the two acres for, 175 00—883 00

Balance due on land, 117 00

Upon motion of W. H. Jessup, John C. Morris, Abel Cassidy, M. Catlin, D. D. Warner, and W. Jessup, were appointed a committee to nominate officers to the Society for the ensuing year.

The committee reported the following officers: For President—Abel Cassidy; for Vice President—Stephen Breed; for member of Executive Committee—Alfred Baldwin; for Treasurer—Azor Lathrop; for Corresponding Secretary—Thomas Nicholson; for Recording Secretary—W. H. Jessup.

Upon motion the report of the committee was adopted, and the officers named unanimously elected.

Report on Farm Productions was presented by Elijah Bullard and G. L. Williams, and upon motion, they were both referred to the Executive Committee, who were instructed to award the premium to the one in their judgment entitled to it, and report the same to the next meeting.

On motion of A. Lathrop, Esq., Alfred Hand, Esq., and Daniel W. Seale, Esq., were appointed a committee to revise the Constitution of the Society and its By-Laws and report the same for adoption at the next meeting.

On motion the Society adjourned to meet the first Tuesday of April, A. D. 1860. W. H. Jessup, Secretary.

Short Patent Sermon. BY DOV, JR.

My text this morning is contained in these words: How solemnest is woman! How tender is a woman! How loving is a woman! How child-like is woman!

My hearers—sure enough, how solemnest is woman! She is an unguessable riddle—a most intricate enigma; a flower by analyzing, no one can tell to a certainty whether it be poisonous or innoxious—not always. She is completely an enigma. A display of hieroglyphics—a magnetic mystery. Nobody knows what her heart contains. Sometimes it seems stiff with her love, tenderness and sympathy, and at others filled with nothing but grit and gravel. It won't answer to shake her; you cause the acids and alkalis in her heart to come in contact; and then such an effervescence takes place as might lower the ambition of perash and cider.

Like the month of April she is all sunshine and smiles. Many a tender opportunity in the warm light of her smile, are it has a chance to fall; and many a bright smile is suddenly quenched by a sparkle of some passing cloud of sorrow about the size of a blanket.

Griefs bubble up from her bosom to burst into an atmosphere of joy, like autumnal flowers spring from the warm bed of her heart, to be out down by the sudden frost of grief.

As a mother compound in woman! She is modest, boldness, beauty, alkali, satins, jealousy, hate, hatred, horsehair, white-bone, piety, pain, gaiety, gumastic, bear's grease, sympathy, tears, smiles, affections and kindness. She talks with her tongue, speaks with her eyes, is eloquent in her actions, and yet I cannot understand it.

My friends—how tender as a chicken, and as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman! No matter whether born in a cellar she can sometimes be as lofty as a garret. When she once gets her back up, O, cats and broomsick! Look for trouble. She must be as tough as an old pepper. She must be screened from the hot summer's sun—sheltered from storms and protected from the blasts of winter—and yet, if she makes up her mind to do it she can out sweat a northerner, and be a match for the devil. Notwardly, she is as tender as the moories of heaven; her heart is as much softer than human's as bee's wax is softer than a brickbat. Her many sympathies are as delicate as the down on an apple, and her love appears as fresh and unfaded amid the sorrows of adversity as the evergreen wreath that encircles the brow of old winter. Her tenderness is too tough to be destroyed by what chance, time or fortune may bring; as tough as tripe and twice as common.

My dear friends—how tender is woman