

" WE JOIN OURSELVES TO NO PARTY THAT DOES NOT GARRY THE FLAG AND KEEP STEP TO THE MUSIC OF THE UNION."

A. J. GERRITSON, PUBLISHER.

MONTROSE, PA., MAY 3, 1860.

WILLIAM A. SNOW.

USTICE of the PEACE, GREAT BEND. Pa. OFFICE on MAIN st, opposite Wester mse. 7 [Great Bond April 41n. 1860-16 House. DRS. L. W. BINGHAM & D. C. ANEY WOULD smoot ce to the Public that they have entered into a partnership for the practice of MEDICINE & SURGERY,

and are prepared to attend to all calls in the line of their protession at all hours when not other-wise engaged. OFFICE-The one formerly occupied by Dr Bingham.

occupied by Dr Bingham. N. B. The book accounts of Dr. Bingham must be immediately settled by notes or otherwise. L. W. BINGHAM. New Milford, March 28th, 1860.-tf

Dr. H. SMITH, & SON, SURGEON DENTISTS, have removed meir Soffice to Lathrops' new building, over the Banking office of Cooper & Co. All Denial operations will be performed in their usual good. style and warranted. Montrose, March 4th, 1360. (jan

McCollum & Searle. TTORNEYS & COUNSELLORS at Law.

A MONTROSC, Pa. Office in Lathrops' new building, over the Bank.

P. LINES, FASHIONABLE TAILOR, Montrose, Pa. H Shop in the Brick Block, over Read & Co's Store. All work warranted, as to fit and finish.

ALFRED HAND, TTORNEY and COUNSELLOR at LAW, A Montrose, Pa, will attend to all busindss entrusted to him, with fidelity and despatch, May he found at the office of W. & W. H. Jessup. Esqs.

S. H. Sayre & Brother, ANUFACTURERS of Mill Castings, and IVI Castings of all kirds, Stores, Tin and Sheet Iron Ware, Agricultural Implements, and Denders in Dry Goods, Groceries, Crockery, &c. Montrose, Pa., November, 16th, 1859.-wa: Guttenberg, Rosenbaum & Co.,

DEALERS in Ready-made Clothing, Ladies' Dress Goods, Furnishing Goods, etc. etc. Stores at No. 24 Devist, New York City, and in Montrose, and Su-q'a Depot. Pa:

L. B. ISBELL,

REPAIRS Clocks, Watches and Jewelry, at short notice, and on reasonable terms. All work warranted. Shop in Chandler & Jessup's store, Montrose, Pa oc25tf.

Drs. Blakesiee & Brush, . HAVE associated themselves for the prose-cution of the duties of their profession, and respectfully other their professional services to the Invalid Public. Office at the residence of Dr. Blakeslee, midway between the villages of Dimork and Springville. ap20y A. C. BLAKESLEF. ..... P. E. BRUSH.

HAYDEN BROTHERS,

BY G. W. LYON. Loveliest of all the seasons, In fair Nature's circling year,

Is the blithesome, blooming spring-time, With its fragrant atmosphere !--With its soft and flowery landscapes, Basking in the sunny beams,-Beauteous as some lover's vision. In the clysian land of dreams !

SPRING.

Brightest skies are smilling o'er us In the spring time of the year,-Mirrored on the placid, bosom Of the water, they appear As if the heavens were swimming In a sea of liquid light,-So glorious and beautiful, Are the sunny skies so bright.

Like our childhood-bright and joyous, Is the soft and gentle Spring, When the trees are waving gaily And the flowers are blossoming. When the streamlet down the mountain

Laughs and dances as it laves The flowers, that dip their fragrant lips, In its clear and fueid waves,

But the happy days of childhood. With their sunny scenes so gay, Like the glorious beauty round us, Are passing rapidly away, And fund memory loves to linger, As down we glide lifes rapid stream, Upon those scenes that seem so lovely Herrick, May 1st 1860.

From the May (1858) No. of the Ashlar. THE ANTI-MASON:

B) SALATHIEL C. COFFINDERRY.

'My dear child, why are you so depressed is morning ?' said Mr. Burnham addressing b's daughter, as they met at the breakfast table one Monday morning in June, 1854. It is a bright and glorious morning-the beginning of a new week-and every intelligent being should wear a cheerful countenance, expressive of a submissive thankfulness to the Great Giver of all good gifts for the manifold blessings with which he has been oleased to surround us." 'Father,' replied Lorina, 'I have been reflecting on the sermon you delivered to your rather see her carried to the tomb, and hear congregation resterday afternoon, and iny reflections have made me melancholy."

the kingdom of heaven."

of its deadly curse.

the Frankline, the-ham is a Freemason ?

gregation ?"

individuals belong to the Lolge.'

Can it be that you are mistaken in point of men who have passed off the stage of human action, and have left their memories embalmdefrauded them into an admiration of their Stop child. You know not what you say.

the masons, to give their vile institution non-not he mas ns, they were good men.'

"Why so, my child ?' refurned the fither ; considered it one of my allest and happiest efforts, and peculiarly called for in the pres-first thing I knew, he was caught in the ma- advances society has made in one hundred sing Mr. Burnham and Lorina, and at the the object of the solicitude of these kind first thing I knew, he was caught in the ma-sonic procession last June. I told him that years, in knowledge and in vice, and are, same time throwing open the door. I have been and const therefore, unprepared to add to the one or to Had the portals of the infernal regions he must at once renounce masonry, and con-}t herefore, unprepared to add to the one or to fess his sorrow for his sin, or that he should rebuke the other. On plunging out into the been unfolded before thm, Lorina and her fa-become a signal subject for the most severe struggling masses of the world, they are sur-ther would not have received a greater shock mnious. 'What was it ? Prav tell me. member of the Order, he would renounce the vers and measured tone of voice, and the on the floor, met their gaze. s'ern frown of his brow, sogfar from comchurch.'

'Well, father, what was the result ?' I had him expelled from the household of iract attention. He discovered too, to his tance. The ruffians' were determined that God summarily and almost without ceremony. So he is no longer a member of my world and mankind, which should have been church.

church discipline."

have been just, but may is not, be possible on which to erect the super-tructure of knowlsolicitude ? I am surprised and judignant to humanity, that his pursuits and habits, thro' ful and familiar sound of honest industry. find my only daughter defending the vilest' a long life, had been such as to close each avenue that might have admitted to his and foulest in-titution of the earth.' You mistake me, dear father. , I do not mind a ray of light from the outer worldwish to be understood as defending masonry, that he had veiled those crystal leases which for I know nothing about it, and therefore cannot have one word to say in its defence, would have reflected on his soul, as the panoroma of business life passed before it, a glimpse while my ignorance of it is a sufficient justi- of those scenes in human action, whose lights fication for not uniting with you in denounce and shades imprint upon our memories daing it, and especially with such an example before my eyes as the apparently just and up right walk and conversation of poor old Mr. Wickham, through a long, life of usefulness if a universe — individuals in the great family the universe-individuals in the great family It was nine o'clock when the steamer Ben and apparent goodness. I sympathize with the poor old man upon being debarred from church privileges on this account, after hav-Franklin touched the wharf in New. Orleans. ing maintained hisconnection with the church losom of the church, makes my heart bleed trunks. for him."

Silly child, no more. You do not know what you say. Yet, stav-let me ask you a ques ion or two, and Loring, answer me touly | Mr. Burnham. under the penalty of my indignation and in flexible displeasure.'

'Why, father, you know that I would not answer anything but the truth." I believe you would not. Now answer important functionary, the porter, generally the most important personage of the aquatic ine. Is George Elwood a Mason ? household, on occasions of ! unding passengers."

ie. Is George Elwood a Mason ? I knownot, my dear sir. I bave never After much difficulty he obtained an audience heard him mention the subject, nor have I of the custodian of trunks, hand boxes, valiever heard that he was, or that he was not. ces, carnet-bags, baskets of champagne, cigar But what if he were ? 'If should never be your husband. No Mason snall ever wed my daughter. I would my baggage.' rather see her carried to the tomb, and hear 'Cuecks. sir ?'

the clods of the valley raifle, on the lid of pour coffin than to see you wed a Mason .-But let me ask you, has not your brother Lotin, in some unpropitious moment, through the seductions of the devil, juined the Masons ? Burnham.

HAYDEN BROTHERS, Wildles Arg. Good. Watches, Juncip, Silverand Platers in Buttons, Comb-Suspender, Threads, Fancy, Good. Watches, Juncip, Silverand Platers, auguitor and the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has been on the increase rapidly. for the has the veras netwithstadiog the martyr-has the veras netwiths have said has depressed my mind.' out for California, was absent from the family circle till late at night. I thought noth Burnham, for the first time, the system of 'Why so, Lorina.' ing of the circumstance at the time, but have checking baggage. 'What other effect could you expect' from the picture presented in vopr serinon, exposince thought that he may have been attending a Mussine Lodge. Lorina, if that Lov sing the sin and sice of Freemasonry.' ha-joined the Masons, he shall never cross the explanation, "can it be possible? I had 'It is nevercheless, a true picture, my dear my threshold again-be shall never call me child? "Can it be?" May it not be possible that father; or you sister." "Think not of it. father ; it cannot be. rour violent opposition to secret societies. Poor Lorin is now on his way from home for pred that they would see that it was propersupported by a few instances of moral derelictions on the part of a few masons, and stimu- the first time in all his life, and Oh, my dear lated by your encloses tic ador in your ho- father, let pleasant thoughts go with him .-ly calling, has betraved you into too deep and He must now be on the high seas, at the mercy of him who alike protects the marrinlark a coloring of the picture." No, Lotina, no. never. It cannot be too er and the landsman. How my heart longs highly colored. Language is too meagre to for the society of my dear Brother.' present Freemasonry in all its hideous and Mr. Buinham and his daughter separated, horrible impiery.' Mr. Burnham to go to his Hbrarv, and Lorina 'Father, von declared, in your sermion ves--with the morning paper in her hand, to go baggage. What is the world coming to, terday, that no Freemason can ever enter into to her own anartment. The servants had friends, and in this hospitable man-lin, in stead of a miserable pest house, where we expected to find you !' prised to find themselves a century behind of fear and surprise. A stench of tobacco

"What was his reply ?" the age absolute cyphers in the world they smoke and whiskey as siled their nostrils; a veyed to the public hospital. The governor "It was contumacious and sinful—in fact, live in. So it was with Mr. Burnham. He sound of discordant piolins, mingled with had me removed from that horrible place to had no sooner gotten beyond the limits of laughter and cutres, burst upon their ears; this hospitable roof, where I have been pro-his personal acquaintance, than he discovers a vision of fiends in the forms of haggard, vided with the best medical and surgical 'It was, that before he would renounce ma-ed, to his deep mortification, that his sedate half-naked females, and bloated, blear-syed aid of the city-where I have lacked for sonry, or acknowledge sorrow for being a and sapient countenance, his habitually se-men, reeling and dancing in drunken revels nothing-where kind friends have watched by my bedside.' 'Lorin, my son, why all these attentions to Lorina shrieked and fled, she knew not manding respect and awe, failed even to at- | whither. Her father followed her at a disa strauger! Why should these good men. like good Samaritans, take you in, pour oil regret, that he was then receiving in his gray she should not so easily escape them. They and wine into your wounds, and minister unto decline, important lessons in relation to the pursued her until having nearly escaped from you as unto a brother !'.

tue purlieus of vice, and just as she was en-'Father, they are my brethren. I am a Father, perhaps your town action may incultated in his youth, as the two basis up tering the better and more civilized portion are been just but may is not be possible on which to erect the super-tructure of knowl- of the city she was overtaken by them near Free Mason, and these my friends, and your friends, and Lorina's friends are 'Brethien of that you may some day have cause to regret. its precipitance? 'My daughter, what is the meaning of this fault was that he neither knew himself nor whistling of the smith, sent forth the cheer-same morning that I was taken there, being a mason, discovered that I, too, was one, and After struggling a moment with her captors, I was instantly removed to this home of the she escaped from them and sushed to the shop to seek refuge under its shelter. She needy. Twenty mansions were opened for my reception, but the Colonel first claimed shrunk back with horror as she glanced into me as his guest, and he has proved a father the shop and saw the shaggy beard, the face to your son.

begrimmed with soot, and glaring eyes of the smith, lit up by the glow of red hot and spatkling ion which he was lustily hamcret mission of that institution which I have as it may seen, there are and viduals in this mering on the anvil. She again turned to fly, but again found herself within the grasp denounce as sin-conceived and hell born. Federal Constitution as a meaningless care-Ohl why have I been so blinded - so misied." mony, which can be foressoon by for individe of her pur-uers. Again she shrieked and cried for help. In an instant the smith was by her side. With a few strokes of his ese are it. office.' hammer he felled all the ruffians to the earth 'And my Reverend friends' snid Mr. Burn- Wendest Puillys: Wearv and worn, travel-soiled and depressed, except one, who, wielding a large knife, rush-Mr. Burnham approached the master of the ed upon him. The smith thust the red hot am, addressing the clergymen, are you also iron, which he still held in his hand, into his Freemasons ?. "We certainly are, Mr. Bufnham,' one of 'Captain,' said he, 'I will thank you for my face, when he dropped his knife and fled hem replied. screaming with agony, while wreaths of of-"And this honest blacksmith, ? continued 'Go to the porter sir,' returned the Cap- fensive smoke curled through the night sir from the hot bar, of iron, which had carried Mr. Burnham.

"He is also one of our brethren. In fact he flakes of the villain's flesh from his face, that is chief of all of us, returned the same initis-"My kind sir, said Lorina, falling upon 'O, our Ileavenly Father,' continued M.

her knees before the smith, 'you have saved good deal of jostling and elbowing, found that my life, can-may I trust you farther? 'Trust me, madam,' said the smith, 'cer-tain'y, trust me ever. A defenceless maiden the folly and wickedues of thy servant, a never appeals to a TEMPLAR in vain. I will be a friend, a brother to you, madam. You poor, weak old man, and enable him in his shall not suffer. But, who are you ? 'I am a poor, defenceless girl.'

boxes, &c. 'Mr. Porter,' said Mr. Burnham, 'I wantnama? Lorina Burnham." 'I say I want my baggage,' said Mr. Burn-fried and crisped as they clung to it.

a brother, Lorin ? 'Checks, sir ?' repeated the porter. 'I have. Speak for heaven's sake, do you 'I do not understand you, sir,' said Mr. know him; is he till living !

He is. I will take you to him.'

Without your showers I breed no fl iwers, Each'field a barren waste appears: I will, father; I was robbed of every pen If voit don't weep, My blossoff's sleep, They take such pleasure in your tears. ny and left for dead on the street. I was con-As your decay Made rooms for May, So I must part with all that's mino My bilmy breize, By blooming trees, VOLUME XVII, NUMBER 18.

To torrid suns their sweets, resign. For April dead My shades I 'spread, To her I owe my drear so gay; Of doughters three - It fulls on me

May to April.

To close our triumphs in one day. Thus to reposo All Nature goes ;

Month after month must find its dobm. Time on the wing May ends the Spring, And Summer trates over her tomb.

Seward a Perjured Man. Wendell Phillips, the most honest, logical and eloquent of the abolitonis, in a late onblis speech in Brookiyn, N. Y., charged Wm. 'Is it so ?' said Mr. Burnham, 'Can it be H. Seward with a crime no less than perjary, possible? Is, this Freemasonry? And are and the loud applaute of a crowded and ence these its offices, indeed I And is this the se- of Black Republicans at eved that, strange so often taxed the ingenuity of my mind to country who regard the path of festsy th the Even so father. This is Masonary, and val taking it, whenever it conflicts with giartizen necesi is or fanatis prejudipes. Hear "Mr. Seward ie or le the s'ave caus. Do.

you thinks he would obey it? Not A of the love of the milli me that boing up of hes lipe. Not for ten thouse and inest the more gardenne banble, for which his speech is a bat, would -Wm. H. Seward lift his highd to return a fu-gitive stare to Vargining (Lond spitalise.) You applaed it; and you what a compliment is in the is only a second to what a compliment

11.1. It is only a deserved compliment for us to believes of our greatest sost sman that Burnham, tising to his feet, lifting his ever when he sware to support the Constitution, he suffosed with tears, upwards, and extending intended to commit perjury (L and support in the attitude of prayer, 'pardon and laughter.) I am no exargrers inc. if I had stood here to right and alliemed in your presence that the great sta e-man of the Emfor the wickedness and fully of the past. He would have fashed back up affirmenthe epithet 'No, not defenceless. But what is your has her undone the thing he ought to have -Slinderer!' I aim office I to believe fulge done, and the things he ought not to have ing from the tecord of the life for the lette done the same he has done. Enable him to mony of his fellow eithens, that that viry "Good Heavens, no !" said the smith in do justice to that noble and glorious fistitu- Constitution which be has swon scores of astonishment. ! Gan it be possible ? Have you tion of benevolence and philanthropy which times to support - that very Constitution which brings the rich and poor, the great and small. he says comes from hunds alianst diving -that the young and old, upon the common level when he sicore to support it he intended to comof fraternal equality-which teacheth the mit perjury.". minister of God to at flown at the feet of the Yet this is the foremost man in the Republican ranks-the master spirit, the " feacher," The smith seized Louna, who was singing awardy mine, and you mine may extreme mean range-the master spirit, the "teacher," to the ground, and bore in his arms into his he draweth lessons of wisdom and, wither the errator of the party, and de a perfored shop, just as Mr. Burnham arrived in pursont from his ministering - which tinden the villion! With such a tencher what of the people of every nation, tongue and clime in scholars !

L .... It is a curious fact that it is ,only the

"Alas ! theirs is not the only female ; bills

.... It may be a question not easy to de-ide, whether an individual, emitted to no sort of respect, has a right to respect himself.

..... A Darkey preacher arose to anounce

"In de fus' pistol of Clover, second chapter,

"Hold, up, Dietor." cried out one of his hearers: "von've get in de wrong hocki you ment de pi-tol of Tunothy, I apos 1" The preacher the sits ed a moment, with a "Well, I must eave in dis time, though I

.... The Marine Bank Ageney at Columbus, Ga., has recovered $43,104 of the $45,542 ecently stolen from us vanit. It was found by a hiel dave secreted under a bridge. One of the bookkeepers has been - .... A little ragged urchin begging in the eity the other day, was asked by a lady who had fided his basket if his parents were dying?

"Oaly dad, marm," seil the boy. "Then you nave enough in your basket to feed the family some time,"said the taily, "On, ho, I havn's neither," said the lad, for did and me know de dat de text was same where anyong and two hundred and minery-fast werse ??

female mosquito that turments us., - Ezchange.

most difficult to stind. Prentice.

ery profound look, and sall:

ariested on suspicion.

his text as follows:

de grass!!

In our happy wakeful dreams.

DEALER in Drugs, Medicines, Chemica's vestuffs, Glass-ware, Paints, Olls, Varnish

Window Glass, Groceries, Fancy Goods, Jow elry, Perfamery, &c.-And Agent for all the most popular Patent Medicines, Montrosci Pa ( DR. E F WILMOT, G RADUATE of the Allopathic and Homeo pathic Colleges of Medicine, Gt. Bend, Pa, Office, corner of Main and Elizabeth-sts. nearly opposite the Methodest chutch.

Wm. H. Cooper & Co., BANKERS, Successors, to POST, COOPER & CO., Mantsore, Pa. Office Lathrop's new bailding. Turnpike Street.

C.O. FORDHAM. MANUPACTURER OF BODTS & SHOES. Nontrose, Pa. Shop over Tyler's Store. All kinds of work made to order and repairing done neatly.

WM. W. SMITH, & CO., ABINET and Chair Manufacturers, foot of Main Street, Montrose, Page anug th

DR. G. Z. DIMOCK.

PHYSICIAN and Surgeon. Office over Wil-sons' store : Longings at Searle's Hotel,

DR. JOHN W. COBB, PHYSICIAN : 13 urgeon. Office on Public Avenues opposite Scarle's Hotel, Montrose

DR. R. THAYER,

PHYSICIAN and Surge n. Montrose Pr. Office in the Farmer's Store.

JOHN GROVES. FASHIONABLE Tailor. Shop. near, the Baptist Moeting House, on Turnpike street, Montrose, Pa.

NEWS OFFICE. THE New York City Hustrited Newspiper Magazines, etc. etc., for sale at the Montros Book Store, by A. N. BULLARD.

P. REYNOLDS, FASHIONABLE TAILOR, Shop in base ment of Searle's Hotel, Montrose, Pa

CHARLES MORRIS, . BARBER, and Hair Dresser. Shop No. 3 in basement of Searle's Hotel, Montrose, *

MEAT MARKET, pretended virtue and patriotism,' On Public Acenue, near Searle's Hotel.

KEEP constantly on hand a good supply of To sages and patriot. who laid the founda- healthy person to renture within the pale of MEATS of sill kinds. CASH paid for tion of our government, the Washingtons, its disgusting precincts - New Orleans Delta." Beef Cattle, Caives, Sheep, and Lambs, Also for Hides of all kinds.

HENSTOCK & HAWLEY. A. T. HENSTOCK. Montrose, March 30th. '59-11.

BILLINGS STROUD, FURE and LIFE INSURANCE AGENT

Montrose, Pa.

TESTIMONIALS. Wr. the undersigned, certify that we were insured in Fire In-urance Companies represented ish and rebuke him on the enormity of being by Mr. Billings Strond: of Montrose, and that, a mason, shortly after the masonic procession having suffered loss by fire while so insured; we last Jone, and he had the audacity and impuwere severally paid by said companies to the full extent of our claims; and we have confidence in him as a good and effective agent. Jās, R. DEWITT, ZITRON CORB, ble an opinion of it?

LATHROP & DEWITT. 11. J. WEBE F. B. CHANDLER. J. Lyoss & Son. BENI. GLIDDES, LEONARD SEARLE. Montrose, Pa. November 9. '59-*y .

Nor can there. I repeat it. No mason table, when a shrick from the young lady's can ever enter into the Kingdom of God It room brought the whole household together is an object of his Divine whath. It is not / in her boutbir. She lay juncon-cious, and en outside and inside. It is rife with viel apparently lifeless on the sofa. At her feet lainy and corruption. The sacred desk should lay the Morning Herald, While some of he active in exposing it, and ridding society the domestics were busied in resusciating Lorina, one of them discovered the cause of her

I am sorry it is so, for many respectable fainting in the following paragraph in the 'It matters not how re-pectable they may ed:--appear outwardly, they are all profane and BRUTAL OUTRAGE. The body of wicked libertines, seducers and murderers."

dressed young man was found this morning 'Father if this is so, do you wonder at find. in a state of insensibility near the Lovee. He ing me melanchuly ? It is strange that my had evidently been robbed, beaten and stabbmind should be depressed on learning that ed several times in the breast, and left for many of our neighbors are divines and states- dead, as no money was found on his person. men-that many who stand high in the An empty pocketbuok and an empty portworld's esteem for their supposed virtue and monnie was found pear the body. The pock of the young man's recovery, especially in ther of us.' ed in the bosoms of a nation of freeman as sa the impure air and filthy condition of that cred household gods, were base and vicion hourible pest-tiousa; but as the young man deceivers, and that they cheated manking in was entirely destitute, no other place was to a belief of their pretended goodness, and open for his admitiance. Our municipal authosi ies should see that this miserable den of disease and wretchedness and vice, should be philfiel, for it is almost certain death for a The following day Mr. Burnham and his daughter were on their way to New Orleans. They were not Preemasons. It is a falsehood. Mr. Burnham had a difficult task before him. This is but one of the specious inventions of lie had never been twenty miles from Philadelphia, his navive city, since his youth he replarity among the ignorant. They could turned from Princeton, the bearer of collegiare honors. It is to be regretted that the Father do you know that old Mr. Wickclergy are not, practical men of the world,-They are a class who know but little of the'r 'Yes my daughter, I do. The graceless fellow men, their moral necessities and their old wretch ! I went, as his pastor; to admonintellectual want, while it is their duty to minister to the one, and to endeavor to supuly the other. They are not to consider themselve as sacred functionaries. set apart dence to tell me, that if I knew more about from their fellow men, and thinking them-masonry I would not entertain so unfavoraselves as such, are too apt to lock themselves into their libraries, pore over old books, "Well, is he not a member of your conplunge into and wade through the literary lore of an age gone by, and thus adapt their No, thank God, heis not. He was a memthought to the tone of society in the past her till recently. I had placed so much conand to date them, out as precious, morsels of and fithy alleys, they stopped in front of a

"Where is he to be found, sir?" inquired

Mr. Burnham, after several inquiries and a

'In the room below.' *

A gentleman present explained to Mr.

Burnham and Lorins entered it, while the Amen.' "What,' said Mr. Burnham, in wonder and honest smith monnted on the outside with the disappointment, as his mind comprehended driver. Lorina busied her mind in fortifying it to my baggage taken to the depot in Philadelphia. I saw it there on the platform, when inv daughter and I entered the cars. I supon a patiet of straw. The smith had only told bef that he was convalesting and out of distive and inconsiderate anti-Mas n.' v taken care of, and duly sent along with

'Then,' said the porter, 'I guess you will never see your baggage again.' 'Surely,' said the old man, 'no one would be so base as to steal a minister's baggage.--am a minister of the Gorpel, and I supposed of course they would attend to a clergyman's pure pearls, as seen in the light of a dozen when ministers receive no more attention not yet removed the cloth from the breakfast. than the common berd, and have to become lainps suspended near them. their own servants and perform mental du-> ies # The porter laughed beartily, which was echoed from half a dozen coarse fellows who appeared to enjoy the old elergyman's cha-

'Gentlemen,' said the old man, in consternotion, "what can I do? My trunks containnews column of the paper that she had dropp / ed all my money, except a sufficient amount et money, which is now entire'y exhausted.' 'Well,' said a rough fellow, one of a dozen who stepped on board the boat on its touch ing the wharf, 'well, if you are a preacher you airned it easy, and you can soon pray your pockets full again.'

'Gentlemen,' said the old clergyman, appealing to the ruffians, with tears in his eyes, goodness, are the subjects of so terrible a etbook was marked on the inside with blue Gentlemen, aid me. I pray you in the name malediction from the lips of my dear father i ink, "Lorin Burnham, Philadelphia, Pa." As of God to aid me! I am two thousand miles the victim still showed signs of life, he was away from home, with a helpless daughter fact, or is it true that those great and good conveyed to the City Hospital, but the physi- looking to me for protection -without a cent cian informs us that there is but little hope in my pocket, or a change of clothing for ci-

'Is she pretty ?' inquired one of the villains. If she is, she can be provided for without much trouble.

'Hold, scoundrel !' exclaimed Mr. Burn ham, starting with in lignation. Ft

'Father,' said Lorina, making her way brough the crowd of ruffians, her beautiful countenance contrasting in its purity and innocence with the rough and victous features of the debauched crowd through which she passed, like a sweet little flower clinging in in the midst of rude and blackened rocks and trags; 'Father, come away,' said she, seizing ber father's arm, and in an instant they pushed their way through the crowd, and left the bost, followed by a portion of the ruffians, who joined another bevy of idlers on the wharf, which theold man, with his daughter leaning on his arm at once approached. saying, "Gentlemen could either of you direct us to the city hospital?

'Yes,' replied one of the company, winking meaningly to his comparions, 'we will go and show the way."

man, and followed a party of the loafers into men.

BOOK BINDING --Old Books, New papers, Pumphlets, Magazines, etc., bound up on short notive. But as a member of the "Session," wheo the bim as a member of

A short explanation was sufficient to esdoth perceive the invstery of invandom and tablished a mutual confidence between the the fullness of thy Providence in its ministry partites, when the carriage arrived. Mr. Thy blessing vouchsafed in its prosperity !

"So mote it be," was heartily responded to the old man's Amen.

'Gentlemen,' continued Mr. Burnham, 'par sustain the shock of finding her brother in don my enthusiasm, but I have done you all the midst of disease, wretchedness, and misery, great injustice. I have all my life been a most bitter, and now I perceive, a most vin-

' Never mild, my dear sir,' said the Colonel danger. At length the carriage brought up in front It was not the fault of the heart. Command of a large and splendid private test lence in my purse, my hospitality-ny home. They the tichest and most fashienable part of the are all at your service. Masonry knows no anti-Masonry in its beneficence. The com city. In the millst of a rich flower garden, mon tie of humanity links the true M. in front of a splendid building, fountains were throwing up bright columns of water son to the whole human family of men. The only sign necessary to draw upon our hoswhich fell among the flowers like showers, of pitality is the cry of human suffering first pieferring, the household of the faithful." "Lorin,' said Mr. Burnham, ' ou have

The smith dismounted. With his sleeves sught your old father a lesson which he rolled un, his stalwart arms and bearded face ought to have learned long ago. But Ithank covered with the smut of his smithy, he as you for it, my son. I thank you for it from sisted the young lady and her father from the the depths of my soul. Lor na, Elwood mus ecome a Mason before he can become your husband; and as for myself, I will apply for admission upon my return home." 'Ha! good evening, brother Miller,' said

'And,' said Lorina, 'poor old Mr. Wickne, warmly grasping and shaking the hand ham ? Spare me, my child ! Spare me! Ample Sill improving. He rode out with me ustice to that good old man -he shall be restored,' and his chin fell upon his breast my private carriage to-day, and is much which heaved with emotion as tears traced his cheeks. Is he sufficiently recovered to see some After some minutes of silence he turned to riends to night f his son and asked, "Do you think Elwood I prestime so. But as the doctor i will be willing to join a Lodge, in order to ent, allow me to consult him. Walk in' resecure your sister's hand ? Perhaps I am uninrned the Colonel. ost in requiring it, but I do feel that I The party entered a large and gorgeously. could not now consent to give her away for furnished apartment, where the smith, Lorina life to any one that is not connected in this and Mr. Burnham were left alone a few mo-

-acred bund. "Have no fear on that account, father." . Who are the individuals that desire to said Lorin. 'He is already a Mason. It is risit our friend?' inquired the Colonel, re-to him I am indebted for my introduction turning in company with another gentleman into its sublime mysteries. of a remarkably fine and prepossing personal In a few weeks Mr. Burnham, accompanied appearance, and who shook hands with the by his son and daughter, returned to Phila mith, addressing him as . Brother Miller.' telphia. On the succeeding anniversary of · Pardon me, gentlemen, for my impolite-St. John the Baptist, Mr. Burnham was seen ness,' said the smith, 'my excitement has in the Masonic procession, wearing the lamb made me forgetful of everything. Allow me. skin, and participating in the coremonies as to introduce you to the father and sister of orator of the day. Mr. Burnham.

Welcome, welcome to my hospitality, aid the Colonel, shaking the old man's hand with unfeigned cordiality.

'I fear,' said the doctor, "that this uner- that he once made - Straws may be made pected meeting may prove too much for the instrument of happiness." tune to always be the subjects of pratical. system." . While the doctor was still speaking, Lorin jokes. In such cases it is very generally true rushed into the room and was clasped in the that the built of the juke can't see the point embrace of his sister. of it. 'I thought, said be, 'it was you voice; sister Lorion.'

part of the father and sister, during which and one of those was a woman." time saveral other gentlemen had dropped in, and had been introduced by Lorin to his father and sister, and three of them as clergy.

But Lorin,' said Mr. Barnhom, ' pray exthat we find you surrounded with these luxu- more important inquiry is, whether they are was upset. "And then," said ho, "I found keeps five boarder -- he does the house-work and I does the marketing. ' .... The following is said to have been prolocal during meteran Legislative exerts on' in Onio, under the immediate in-pration of a drink composed of eq al portions or Monon-cause have I had to regret my folly and in-traviation to the mode and man had hall the rest. The upion of type, and the union of corn, The anion of lake ice and river!

The million of sugar in one spacious herra. And their unitigg og union torever.

Fanny Definitions - (Mist your stops) -Parasol-a projection spatiast the sub, insed by ladies made of eaton and while hone. Strap-An article worn and rithe bots of gentlemen mels of addassi a -K tes -Light frames covered w to poper; sent into the air by boys will tails on them. y .... Respecti's recent "Life of John Brawn" says that at the commencement of his career he failed in the wool -perulation. The author might base added that he ended his career by snotherfailure in it woollspecdation.

..... An Trishman went into a country eeting hon-e wher? an and i mer way sell-"Well," lie cried G of hus broke down as well as the rest and here they are selling him out in his own house, to - just his own debits. a tree Young America is hor call order 4 Lite le Tommy T- is five vears old. Il was .... An exchange infers that Dryden in a musing mood the other die, nich his wasn't opposed to ming juleps, from a remarks mother asked him what he was thinking about. "O'," sail he, "I was thinking of old time. .... The Pretty Por ans-*Of what persuasion is Miss GF? Demanded one- a grave po'emie. "She is so hand-outs that to are She seems," said I. "an Eve Angelie."

..... Mr. Calhoun took the position that .... If there is any thing I hat, it is a woman with a lap-log I labours want to all men were not "created alike free and 'An hour was spent in explanations on the equal." Said be, "only two nien were breated drown i' and put a haby in its place," says Fanny Bern, forgetting that too of en the lap-

.... A Printer's Devil, wanting to kiss his dog owners feel the same way, but take the weet heart, addressed her as follow: Miss dog because they can't hav- the haby. .... A wag save that in journeying lately, Luov, may I have the pleasure of placing he was put in an omnibus with a dozen permy imprint on your bill?" Acutemporary asks if ladies of the sons, of whom he did hot know a single one. plain if within your power, how it happens present day are fitted for wives. A much Turning a corner shortly after, the omnibus them all out."

'Thank you, thank you, gentlemen, for your courtesy, said the unsaspicious clergy-the city. After traversing several dark streets carriage, and riging the door-bell, awaited, A tall, fine looking, middle aged man made his appearance.

to pay my presage and a few dollars of pockof the blacksmith. 'How is our friend, this evening, Colonel ? aquired the smith. improved indeed.