DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION.

FOR GOVERNOR: HENRY D. FOSTER:

Of Westmoreland County. CAMPAIGN DEMOCRAT.

As the extensive circulation of papers is one of the most-effective means of calling out a FULL VOTE, we propose to offer our paper to such as may wish to subscribe during the campaign, at very low rates. The Democratic nominee for Pres-

LINCOLN AND HAMLIN.

The ticket made at Chicago to be whipt in November, is not a strong one. For President, men of talent, and respectability, like Seward and McLane, were set aside, and Abe Lincoln of Illinois, was nominated. If put upon the stump, among the excitable Illinoisans he might make an impression; but now that he is nominated, that strength is taken from him. Out of the State his strength is but negative.

For Nice President, Hannibal Hamlin was unexpectedly chosen. He lives in is mostly notorious for having stolen his inaugural address when elected Governor.

THIS VALUABLE IMPROVEMENT posseses many important advantages over all other Forks, among which are the following: The times being allowed to drop to discharge its load, the tilting of the handle, as in other forks, is avoided; hence, hay can be unloaded with the utmost facility and ease into shed windows or beneath purine beams, and other places where other Horse Forks cannot be used. It can in all places be managed with greater case than any other Horse Fork. It is equally adapted to stacking. With this Fork, a ton of hay may be unloaded in from 5 to 7 minutes.

It will prove a wonderful labor saving machine. I bolleve wherever tried it will be found profitable.

John Johnson, Geneva.

Unloading hay at the barn by horse power is such a simple operation that it seems wonderful how a sensible man can continue the exceeding hard labor of lifting it a forkful at a time in the stifling heat of a July afternoon.—N. Y. Tribune.

The best apparatus for unloading hay we are acquainted with.—Genesee Farmer.

Gadding's Horse Pitch Fork is one of the labor saving machines which will pay to purchase.—Prairie Farmer.

Unloading in a barn by means of a Horse Pitch Fork, is becoming quite common in some sections of our country, and will be practiced every where as soon as the farmers understand the operation.—The invention of C. E. Gadding his constructed a Fork which after a late trial we are satisfied is an important improvement—Albany Cultivator Testimonials.

DYSPEPSIA AND FITS. DR. O. PHELES BROWN, the great curer of Consumption, was for several years so badly afficted by Dyperbala that for a part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young clairroyant with. This prescription, given him by a neee child, while in a state of trance, has cured everybody who has taken it, never having failed once. It is equally sure in cases of Fire as of Dyspersia.

An engraving is here given of the principal herb used in his incedeine, and all of the ingredients are to be found in my drug store. I will send this valuable prescription to my person, on the receipt of one stamps open postage, in D. PHELPS BROWN, 31 Ornal et Jersey City, N. J. All of Dr. O.
